

THE BEST FAMILY MEDICINE
She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled."

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariable answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent a gripe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known. — Mrs. May Johnson, 368 Rider Avenue, New York City.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. O. B. Looney of Mitchell is in the city.
Mr. Geo. Sellinger of Mosier was in town today.
Mr. D. M. French returned today from Portland.
Mr. A. S. Blowers of Hood River came up today.
Mr. and Mrs. Crossfield left for Portland this afternoon.
Miss Williams returned to Portland yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. H. W. French.
Miss Florence Campbell, who has been visiting Miss Hattie Cram, left for her home in Oregon City this afternoon.
Miss Ida Foss, who has been teaching school in the 3-Mile district, finished her duties there Friday last, and returned to her home in Hood River.

Presented With a Gold Star.
Sheriff T. J. Driver was the recipient of a token of esteem yesterday which must have caused him to experience one of the proudest moments of his life. About two o'clock he was surprised at his residence by the McCoy laborers, and in amazement listened to a presentation speech offering him a gold star by Mr. Erickson, spokesman of the party. In substance Mr. Erickson said he desired on behalf of himself and the men to extend a token of their admiration for the conscientious discharge of his duties and in recognition of his interest for their cause. The sheriff was visibly affected and made a short speech in answer. He said he was prouder to be the recipient of such a gift from such a source than the most expensive one money could buy from men of wealth or title. He would treasure it as a token of sincere approbation coming from the hearts of those who gave it.
The star is a plain gold one, bearing the inscription, "Presented to T. J. Driver, sheriff of Wasco County, Or." Mr. Driver has reason to be proud of the token. It came from the scanty and half-paid earnings of the workmen at the McCoy ditch, Mr. Driver's sympathies being exhibited in behalf of the men instead of their employer.

Corraling Thieves.
Isaac Hildebrand and F. W. Williams were apprehended yesterday as thieves, and are now in the county jail. These are the men who were mixed up in the Indian case the other day. They have a camping place on 3-Mile, which serves as headquarters for their operations, and has hitherto been a secure cache for stolen articles.
Mr. Theodore Seufert purchased Saturday a bag of beans, some rolls of butter and a crate of strawberries, which he left on the porch at the house five miles up the river. In the morning the things were gone. They were not to be found on the place, and observing some tracks leading toward the creek, Mr. Seufert followed them. They led to the rendezvous of the men aforementioned, and about the first thing Mr. Seufert saw was his sack of beans on a dry goods box which is used for a table. The men were asleep. He returned to the canery and came back with one or two of his men. The thieves, not knowing of Mr. Seufert's first visit, and now being awake saw the party coming and hastily snatched the bag of beans from the table and hid it in the brush. The action was observed by the Seufert party. Arriving at the camp Mr. Seufert asked where the beans were. This incensed the man, who commenced calling Seufert names and assumed a very disagreeable manner. Mr. Seufert left his men with instructions to watch the thieves and he would telephone the sheriff. But while he was gone they ran a bluff on the men and they left. The thieves then concealed themselves in the brush about a mile distant.

When the sheriff arrived they were nowhere to be found, but Mr. Driver knew they could not have escaped him because of the lay of the ground, and that they were in hiding. He finally saw them, or rather the foot of one of them, the rest of his person being out of sight in a clump of brush. He ordered them out. They then tried to bluff the sheriff, but Driver don't bluff. He chained them together while in the brush, and walked them ahead of him to the county jail.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.
Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed on exhibit at the world's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the world's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."
