THE DALLES, OREGON, TUESDAY, JULY 7, 1896

NO 157.

DANIELS IS CHAIRMAN

The Contest Was Between Him and Hill.

THE NATIONAL DEM. CONVENTION

Opens with Some Very Heated Speeches The Silver Men Have the Upper Hand.

CHICAGO, July 7.—The National Democratic Convention commenced assembling at 10:30 and was called to order at 12:50. Harrity reported Hill for temporary chairman amidst great cheering. Clayton of Alabama moved that Daniels name be substituted. There was an immense demonstration preceding the calmer discussion of the motion. New Jersey delegates advocated the choice of Hill. Waller of Connecticut advocated Hill for temporary and Daniels for permanent chairman.

Mr. Waller said: "I can stand any candidate the convention may nominate. The gold men are here to stay and ask only for courtesy and fair treatment and the upholding of Democratic precedents. If Hill is turned down I tell you the Eastern Democrats will fight." [Cheers and hissing by all.] It was now 1:30 p. m. Thomas of Colorado, Waller of Alabama and Tarpey of California advocated the choice of Daniels in speeches altogether consuming fifteen minutes of time. Fellows of New York was another who advocated the choice of Hill, when there was great cheering at mention of his name. He appealed to the convention not to violate precedents and trample on the rights of the majority. [Cheering again and again.] He made the point as to the reason why the convention should be willing to accept all the rest of the recommendations of the majority of the national committee and turn a Democrat like Hill down.

2:20 p. m.—Marston of Louisiana cannot speak owing to the confusion. The chairman warns the convention to keep quiet. Marston retires. Ladd, of Ill., advocates Daniels and says if Hill should make a speech he would keep the party explaining till election came. St. Clair advocated Hill. His reference to free silver was cheered. He says if the silver men are afraid of having the question discussed by Hill what will outsiders think.

2:45—Call of states ordered. 3:20—The vote resulted in favor of substituting Daniels for Hill, 552 against 343; including territories, ayes 554, noes 345. The announcement of the vote causes great cheering throughout the hall. Daniels takes the chair.

3:40—Daniels in his opening speech referred to Hill as a great senator. [Cheers.] Also referred to Teller. [Great cheering.] Advocated free coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. 4:35—Roll of states ordered for appointment of committees. 4:45—Convention adjourned till 10 a. m. tomorrow.

POINTS TO A DEADLOCK.
It Would Take a Shrewd Prophet to Name the Nominee.

CHICAGO, July 6.—On the eve of the Democratic National Convention, which convenes tomorrow in the Coliseum on the lake front, all is confusion. One thing looms up like a searchlight in the fog that hangs over the situation, and obscures the vision of the wisest and most far-seeing of the leaders. That is that the convention will be for silver, at 16 to 1.

As for candidates, the convention is still groping in the dark. The din of the Bland and Boies boomers is deafening, and so infectious at times that it almost carries the public off its feet. Bland is unquestionably in the lead, so far as actual votes are concerned, his strength approximating 250, a liberal estimate, with Bland moving along at his heels with about 200, but neither is able to demonstrate as yet how he can win.

In this chaotic condition of affairs gossip and speculation cast about for dark horses. William J. Bryan, the boy orator of the Platte; Vice-President Adlai Stevenson, John R. McLean, the Ohio journalist; the Bluegrass orator, Senator Joe Blackburn of Kentucky, and Senator White of California, all share the distinction of being canvassed. Even Senator Hill, of New York, is talked of, and his famous Elmira speech of 1892 is recalled as an evidence that he is a bimetalist and would make a strong compromise candidate. The name of ex-Governor James E. Campbell, of Ohio, is also heard.

The Penoyer boom from Oregon was formally launched today, and ex-Congressman Joe Sibley, of Pennsylvania, announced his candidacy.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. B. F. Laughlin and mother went to Ilwaco today.

Mr. Wm. Birgfeld and family went to Gear lake this morning.

Mr. Geo. Anderson left on the Regulator this morning for Sprague.

Mr. Geo. Unger returned to Lyle this morning. He has been in the city purchasing supplies.

Mr. J. A. McArthur left on the Regulator this morning to join his family at Sprague. The family will return Saturday.

Mr. McCauley, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Cassie Hill, deceased, arrived in the city from Portland last night to attend the funeral.

Misses Sady Gideon, Lillian Vampelt and Lizzie and Rosa Bates of Grass Valley came in on the stage from their 4th of July trip last night.

Attorney W. H. Wilson and family left today for Ilwaco to spend the heated season. Mr. Wilson will shortly return, as he is unable to neglect his legal business long at a time.

H. H. Newhall, great sachem, and Chiefs J. K. Carr, Thos. Collins, Jos. Jones, Dr. Paul and J. A. Semler arrived in town today on the local train and will be present at the big pow wow of Red Men tonight.

Mr. Hugh Glenn left yesterday for Astoria to begin operations on his contract to construct 47 miles of roadbed for the new railroad to Astoria. The work is to be finished by June 1, 1897, and involves the expenditure of several hundred thousand dollars.

These Must Go at Once.
A home with lot, worth $900; $750 takes it. Owner leaving city, and must sell. Three lots only five blocks from Court house. Lay in fair shape; $150 for the three. One fine business lot in heart of city; $800. Among a multitude of offerings, these three are the very best. Match them if you can.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed on exhibit at the world's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the world's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."
