Illinois Gold-Standard Democrats Issue an Address.

WANT A SECOND CONVENTION

Three Reasons for Their Appeal to the Sound-Money Democracy of the Country.

CHICAGO, July 13. — The executive committee of the gold-standard Democrats of Illinois met in a protracted session today and prepared an address to the Democracy of other states in the union. It was the unanimous opinion of the committee that a second national convention should be called to nominate candidates for president and vice president. The address is as follows:

"To our Fellow-Democrats of Other States: A national convention, convened under the constituted authority of our party has just closed its session in the city of Chicago.

"It entered upon its work by violating all party precedents in the rejection of a distinguished Democrat as its temporary presiding officer.

"It deprived a sovereign state of a voice in its deliberations by unseating, without cause or legal justification, delegates elected with all the regularity known to party organization.

"It refused to indorse the honesty and fidelity of the present Democratic national administration.

"It adopted a platform which favors the free and unlimited coinage of silver by this country alone at the ratio of 16 to 1, and thereby it repudiated a time-honored Democratic principle, which demands the strictest maintenance of a sound and stable national currency.

"Finally, to make it still plainer that, although in name, it was not in fact a Democratic convention, it nominated for president one who is not in his political convictions, and has not always been even in his professions, a democrat. "This made such a crisis, both for the nation and for the Democrats party that sound-money Democrats must at once decide what political action they will take for the protection of the honor of the nation, the prosperity of the people, and the life and usefulness of the party.

"The sound-money men of Illinois have fully made up their minds that a new Democratic national convention should be called for the earliest feasible day to nominate Democratic candidates for president and vice-president, and adopt a platform of Democratic principles, and they desire to state to their fellow Democrats of the other states their reasons as follows:

"First—Sound-money Democrats owe it to the country to make it certain at once that their revolt against free silver is determined, and will be organized. It is unfair to jeopardize the credit of the nation and the business and industrial interests of the people by asking them to merely guess what the sound-money Democrats will do in November, and to wait until November to find out.

"Second—the nomination of a new ticket is the logical course. Without it and a sound-money Democratic campaign, the whole educational force of sound-money Democratic sentiment would be paralyzed from the beginning.

Republicans cannot argue the sound-money question to Democratic voters. Republican sincerity on that question is doubted by the mass of Democrats. The tariff question will be put to the front, and insisted upon by Republican speakers and the Republican press, as it has been persistently by Mr. McKinley himself. Democrats will not listen to lessons on finance when accompanied by abuse of the Democratic party. The most effective force at this time for a campaign is the force residing in the sound-money Democrats. For they are profoundly in earnest, and can get a hearing from Democrats that the Republicans cannot possibly get.

Third—A new convention would also preserve for the future the opportunities of the Democratic party. Unless a clear-cut separation is made between the genuine Democrats and Democrats who are drifting into Populism, or are already in Populism; and unless that clear-cut separation is supported by organization and a reorganized Democratic party is the result, the party has no chance of regaining public confidence for years to come. The sound-money Democrats in the different states must either make it clear that they have no association with the Bryan party, or they must accept association and entanglement with it; and all state organizations will, in the public mind, be for it that do not make it absolutely clear that they are against it. The sound-money Democrats are all sufficiently organized in this state to be able to meet their fellow-Democrats in a new convention, and are anxious to confer with representatives of other states, whenever a meeting can be brought about. Communications should be addressed to Charles A. Wing, chairman, Palmer house, Chicago.

(Signed) "James T. Soblitt, Adolph Kraus, James M. Sheehan, Charles H. Williamson, Lindon Evans, R. E. Spangler, John M. Palmer, Charles A. Ewing, James H. Eckels, Franklin McVeagh, Ben T. Cable, William S. Foreman, Thomas A. Moran, John P. Hopkins, Henry S. Robbins, A. A. Goodrich, executive committee of the honest-money Democracy of Illinois."
