POPULISM TRIUMPHS

What Secretary Turner Says of the Convention.

DEMOCRATIC PARTY IS PURGED

He Claims Bryan Has Been a Populist Two Years—The Platform Fits Him in Every Respect.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—J. H. Turner, secretary of the national committee of the People's party, has issued a statement to the public. It says:

"The result of the late national Democratic convention is undoubtedly a triumph of Populism. A large portion of the voters in the Populist party in the South and West were originally Democrats, and left the old party because it was dominated in every convention by the eastern Democrats who represented Wall street and the monopolists of New York and New England. The Democratic party has purged itself, reorganized itself and come out for true Democracy, and to all intents and purposes, substituted the Populist platform for the old platforms that the party has been using for years and which were dictated and foisted upon the people by the gold bugs of the East.

"Bryan, the nominee of that convention, is a man who fits the platform. For more than two years he has acted with the Populists of his state. It cannot be successfully denied that the principles advocated by the Populist party have captured the Democratic party and have driven out of its ranks that element which from the beginning has been affiliated with the Republican party as its natural home.

"We have advocated the union of the South and West in order that we might bring about the necessary financial reforms. Now we have a chance of bringing all our hopes and our desires to a grand consummation. The truth of it is that the only point we now have to decide is whether or not they will take Bryan, whom every gold bug in the country has denounced as a Populist, for our next president of the United States, or whether they will take McKinley, who represents everything the Populists have denounced and just the opposite of everything they have advocated since they have been a party. Looking at it from this standpoint I feel that in the election of Bryan Populism has triumphed, and when I say Populism I mean the great common people of the United States, and should McKinley be elected the classes have triumphed, the English gold standard has been permanently fastened upon the lines of industry in this country and there will be nothing left for us but serfdom that will undoubtedly bring on a bloody revolution in the near future."

A STATEMENT BY HARRITY. Will Not Surrender His Convictions During the Campaign.

PHILADELPHIA, July 15.—W. A. Harrity returned today and was at his desk in the office of the Equitable Trust Co., of which he is president. Harrity was not disposed to express himself regarding the democratic platform or candidates. He did, however, make the following statement:

"Since my return to Philadelphia my attention has been called to the report from Chicago during convention week and I had declared that 'I am a democrat, and after that I am for sound money.' There is no foundation for such a statement. It is a pure invention, and the editorials based on it which appeared in some of the Philadelphia, Boston and New York papers are both unjust and unwarranted. I am a democrat and sound money man, too, not afterwards, but at the same time, and I shall do nothing whatever during the campaign that can possibly be regarded as a surrender of my convictions upon the currency or any other vital question."

Populists Endorse Bryan.
 HURON, July 15.—The Populist state convention today, after a discussion of two hours, voted two to one to endorse Bryan.

SOUND MONEY DEMOCRATS.

Semi-Official Statement by Assistant Secretary Hamlin.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The Evening Star today says: Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Hamlin made a short statement this afternoon in explanation of his position regarding the Democratic platform and nominations. Inasmuch as Hamlin represented the administration forces at Chicago and has been in frequent consultation with Secretary Carlisle over the political situation since the adjournment of the convention, the statement by him today will undoubtedly be accepted by many as a semi-official declaration of the position of the sound money men of the administration. This impression is further strengthened by the belief that Hamlin spent several days at Marion, near Gray Gables, on his way back to Washington from Chicago. The statement referred to is as follows:

"No political issue is involved in the coming election. The question to be decided is far deeper and more vital. The perpetuity of Republican institutions has been threatened, and every loyal citizen should ally himself against the forces which controlled the Chicago convention, forces of lawlessness which are inconsistent with the maintenance of the republic. Henceforth there should be no Republicans, no Democrats, but a union of loyal citizens against the combined forces of repudiation and disorder. When once this dangerous element has been stamped out at the polls by an indignant people, we can again divide and discuss these political questions, which for generations have kept alive the two political parties."

SEWALL IS CONFIDENT.

Believes the Disaffected Democrats Will Come Back Into the Fold.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 15.—Arthur Sewall of Maine, the Democratic nominee for vice-president, passed through today. He was asked:

"What do you think of the action of the Democratic papers in the East bolting the recently adopted platform at Chicago?"

"Oh," said Sewall, "they will all come back into the fold. In the West the people are enthusiastic over the ticket. Bryan is a very strong man. I have no doubt that when he presents his views clearly before the people in the East they will be won to his side."

Iowa Republicans.

DES MOINES, Iowa, July 15.—The Republican state convention today was harmonious throughout. The platform declares warmly in support of the St. Louis platform and says the party in Iowa is in line with the national party. Rollin J. Wilson was elected temporary chairman, but was overcome by the heat and was unable to preside. Congressman Hepburn filled the place. He made a strong speech in line with the platform.

Only One Opposed Bryan.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., July 15.—The Populist state convention to elect delegates to the national convention convened today amid great enthusiasm. Four hundred delegates composed the convention. Only one delegate openly opposed Bryan. He is Dan Burr, of Omaha.

Arkansas Populists.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., July 15.—The populist state convention met at Greenwood Park this morning. J. M. Pittman, temporary chairman, in a speech advocated the nomination of a Populist ticket, both state and national.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
