GOV. RUSSELL DEAD

Occurred Suddenly on a Fishing Excursion.

SUPPOSED TO BE HEART DISEASE

Was Elected Governor of Massachusetts in 1890 and Gave General Satisfaction.

Boston, July 10.—Ex-Governor W. E. Russell of Massachusetts was found dead this morning in B. W. Dutton's fishing camp at St. Adelaide, near Grand Pabos, Quebec. Grand Pabos, the nearest telegraphic station to St. Adelaide, is a little fishing place of only 300 inhabitants, and there are few facilities for getting more explicit information at present. It appears that this morning the guides found he slept longer than usual and when they went to wake him up, it was found he was dead. It is supposed he died of heart disease.

Governor Russell was born in Cambridge, Mass., in 1857. He graduated with marked honors from the public schools of Cambridge, and in 1873 entered Harvard college, graduating in 1877. He studied law, and was admitted to the Suffolk bar in 1880, and rose very rapidly in his profession. He served his native city for seven years, four years as mayor. He became Governor of Massachusetts in 1890, and so general was the satisfaction given by him during the first term that he was re-elected.

Populists Differ Regarding Bryan

St. Louis, July 16.—It becomes more and more evident each day as the time for the meeting of the Populist national convention draws nigh, that the members of that party will clash over the endorsement of Bryan for president. Letters from all parts of the country are pouring into headquarters, some demanding and some denouncing the endorsement of the Democratic ticket and everything indicates that there is a most decided difference of opinion. The opinion of some Populists here is that the party is near the danger line of a split over the question. They express the hope, however, that some definite plan of action agreeable to all can be decided upon at the meeting of the national executive committee next Saturday. Many of the Populist leaders are awaiting the coming of free silver senators who bolted the Republican convention. Upon the course they take will depend in a measure the action of the anti-Bryan following. If the Republicans come out openly for Bryan and the Chicago platform the opposition may not make much of a fight.

IOWA REPUBLICANS.

Fledged to Bimetallism but Opposed to Silver Standard.

DES MOINES, July 16.—The Republican state convention was remarkable in point of attendance and interest. Among the distinguished men present were Senators Allison and Gear and nearly all of the Iowa congressmen. Senator Allison's speech which warmly commended Major McKinley and sustained the St. Louis platform, was the real point of interest. The senator spoke with much more than his usual warmth and when he pointed to the picture of the Ohio man the convention went wild with applause. The platform, after endorsing the action of the St. Louis convention on the financial issue, says:

"In the interest of the export trade, for the furtherance of the policy of reciprocity and for the promotion of our commerce as well as for the benefit of our producers, we pledge the support of the Iowa Republicans in congress to the promotion of an international agreement to establish a joint standard universally, and from the same considerations oppose coinage to a single silver standard, because it will decrease and not increase the supply of money in the country. The Republican party, under its policy, assures the people ample currency, composed of gold, silver and paper, no one kind preferable to another, none of it subject in the hands of the people to a variation of value, but every dollar as good as gold, and there held by the real power of the government of the United States."

It is noteworthy that in the whole convention there was not a voice raised against the St. Louis platform and nominations.

Silver Convention in Kansas.

TOPEKA, July 16.—Nearly 100 delegates arrived last night to attend the free silver state convention which convenes today. The silver leaders are elated over the arrival of John R. Foster, president of the First National bank of Garnet, a Republican, at the head of the Anderson county delegation. It is fairly certain the convention will instruct its delegates to the St. Louis convention to vote for the endorsement of Bryan. It is conceded that every Republican who takes part in the convention tomorrow intends to bolt McKinley and the St. Louis platform and it is thought the convention may furnish some indication of the probable strength of the free silver bolt from the Republican ranks.

The state silver convention met at 2 o'clock today. Of those present at least three-fourths have been prominently identified with the Republican party.

A Mathematical Problem.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:

If the people of the United States produce $100,000 worth of silver bullion, sell the same in foreign markets, and with the proceeds buy $100,000 worth of the products of foreign labor, said people of the United States will have added to their wealth just $100,000.

Should the people of the United States coin said bullion into $200,000, they could only get $100,000 worth of the product of foreign labor for it; but would be bound to take it back and pay therefor $200,000 worth of the products of their labor. How much would the people of the United States lose? Answer—$100,000.

Suppose the $200,000 coinage is kept by the people of the United States? How much as a nation have they gained? Answer—Nothing.
