A CRUSHING DEFEAT

Spanish Column Utterly Routed by Maceo.

GENERAL YNCLAN WAS CAPTURED

Government Soldiers Were Drawn Into a Trap and Fired on From All Sides.

Key West, July 18.—The Spaniards under General Suarez Yncian have sustained a crushing defeat at the hands of the insurgents under Antonio Maceo. Not only was Yncian's column defeated with heavy loss, but it is currently reported in Havana that the Spanish general himself was captured and is now held a prisoner by Maceo.

The battle is said to have occurred on July 15, near Maceo's stronghold, in Pinar del Rio. For the last two weeks the rebels have been very aggressive, and small parties have repeatedly attacked the trocha, causing the Spaniards much annoyance.

Yncian was ordered to drive back these detached bands of Cubans, and for this purpose took with him 2000 men.

Maceo seems to have expected such a movement, and arranged to ambush the Spaniards. He stationed a large force in a favorable spot, and ordered his detached bands to draw Yncian into the trap. The Spaniards followed the insurgent skirmishers incautiously and fell into the ambush. Then the Cubans opened fire from all sides, which threw the Spaniards into confusion.

While the Spaniards were thus beset, the Cubans charged and completely routed their foes. Yncian made a desperate effort to rally his demoralized forces, but was surrounded by the Cubans and compelled to surrender.

It is said in Havana that the Spaniards were pursued almost to the trocha, and lost more than 300 killed and wounded. There were 14 officers among the killed. The Cubans here also say that Maceo will hold Yncian as a hostage to save the lives of prominent insurgent officers who have been captured by the Spaniards. One of those officers is Capote. If this rebel leader is shot by the Spaniards, it is thought Yncian will meet the same fate at the hands of Maceo.

WHAT MACEO WANTS.

A Few Cartridges and a Few Cannon Would Enable Him to Win.

New York, July 19.—The World publishes the following correspondence from the headquarters of Maceo, Tomas de San Jose, Pinar del Rio, June 28:

"The want of a few cartridges and a few cannon," said General Antonio Maceo, "is all that makes our government use nature's rocks instead of brick and mortar for a White House."

Asked how many and what arms and ammunition he needs to guarantee to win the war in, say two months, he said:

"I could do it with 20,000 Remington rifles, small calibre, 150 cartridges, 10 cannon and 100,000 rounds of artillery ammunition. I might do it with much less. I would invariably attack the Spaniards and attack them after maneuvering their columns into cul de sacs and I would take an important town. The supplies captured there would assist in the capture of the next one, and so on until I would be able to storm Havana with its fully equipped army of 100,000 men and 50 pieces of artillery."

"In addition to our 60,000 armed men, we have fully 20,000 more men armed with only machetes and revolvers, thus giving us a probable total of 80,000 revolutionists in the field."

He estimates the Cubans have seven cartridges to each soldier.
