MIDDLE ROAD DEFEAT

Bryan Men Control the Populist Convention.

TWO TURBULENT SESSIONS HELD

Senator Allen Is Permanent Chairman—Bryan's Nomination or Indorsement Seems Assured.

St. Louis, July 23.—The Bryan supporters are jubilant tonight. They demonstrated, after a division in the Populist convention, that they had a majority of 194. They perfected their permanent organization, installed their candidate, Senator Allen of Nebraska, as permanent chairman, and took charge of the convention and committees, while the silver convention at Music hall was simply dawdling along, listening to speeches and transacting trivial business in pursuance of the prearranged programme of remaining in session in the hope of influencing the action of the other convention by their action in indorsing silver and the Democratic ticket. There were two sessions of the Populist convention, a morning session of two hours and an afternoon session of six. The latter carried the convention into the night. Both were turbulent and noisy, but the tumult was confined to the delegates on the floor, the galleries being practically empty.

The report of the committee on permanent organization was brought forward, the majority commending the selection of Senator Allen, the ponderous statesman from Mr. Bryan's state. The anti-Bryan men pitted against the Nebraska senator James K. Campion, of Maine, a man practically unknown even to the middle-of-the-road contingent who entered him in the lists. Still, they rallied to his support every vote at their command, and they were defeated 758 to 561. The announcement of this triumph was the signal for an uproarious Bryan demonstration, which lasted 18 minutes. Senator Allen's speech as permanent chairman occupied over an hour. In many respects it was bitter enough to suit the most radical. When he finished the convention adjourned.

The situation remains practically unchanged. Although the Bryan forces were in control, and his nomination or indorsement seems to be assured, the defeat of Sewall still stares him in the face. If Sewall cannot be nominated along with Bryan, the efforts of the Bryan managers will be directed toward securing an indorsement of Bryan rather than a nomination. The question of the common electors is another complication which serves to tangle the skein which must be unraveled.

OPPOSED TO FUSION.

Middle-Road Populists Demand a Straight Ticket.

St. Louis, July 23.—Populists began assembling in the convention hall shortly after 9 o'clock. The air was extremely oppressive and delegates with coats swung over their arms, stood about discussing the situation. The middle-of-the-road fellows could be heard above the music of the band. The Texas delegation contains some of the most uncompromising men in the convention and they were mad at the prospect of being balked in their policy.

At 10:05 Senator Butler, temporary chairman, appeared on the platform. Simultaneously the band struck up "Dixie" and the delegates uncorked some of their pent up enthusiasm. The attendance in the galleries, as yesterday, was very thin. At 10:10 Chairman Butler called the convention to order and Rev. Smith offered an invocation for blessings upon a common country. The report of the committee on credentials was called for. No one responded and the states were called for members of the committee on permanent organization and resolutions.

After the announcement of the committee on permanent organization the members retired. A squad of middle-of-the-roads, headed by Delegate Branch of Georgia suddenly plunged into the hall through the main entrance, whooping down the center aisle. Branch bore aloft a big white banner with the inscriptions, "Middle of the road," "A straight ticket." At the sight of it Texas, Georgia, Maine, Missouri and Mississippi delegates mounted chairs and yelled at the top of their voices. At the same time middle-of-the-road delegates stationed in the galleries over the platform hurled through the air about a peck of small green tickets. The green tickets contained the following:

"Middle-of-the-road. Our financial plan—We demand that the national treasury notes issued by the general government be received for all public dues and be a full legal tender in payment of all debts, public and private, and loaned directly to the people through postal and other government banks at cost for the benefit of the people. And the purchase and coinage of such an amount of gold and silver bullion at a ratio of 16 to 1 as may be necessary to pay the debts of the government which are payable in coin. We demand that the volume of money be speedily increased to an amount necessary to transact the business of the country on a cash basis. Respectfully submitted for consideration of the Populist convention."

A motion to admit delegates of the silver convention on exhibition of their badges was ruled out of order. After some music and speaking a recess till 3 p. m. was taken.

William V. Allen of Nebraska has been selected by the majority of the committee on permanent organization as chairman. It was announced that the minority will make two reports, one for Campion of Maine, and the other for Butler of North Carolina, if the latter will allow his name to be used.

The delegates were on hand at the afternoon session promptly. Just before 3 o'clock a delegate climbed the steps of the platform and brought an umbrella handle down with a crash on the chairman's table. "If this is a Populist convention," he shouted in a husky voice, "for God's sake don't get into the Democratic band wagon." The crowd laughed and the middle-of-the-roader disappeared in the direction of the Texas delegation.

The convention was called to order at 3:31 and a partial report of the committee on credentials was heard. The committee recommended that in the Illinois contest both delegations be seated and given half a vote each. In the Colorado contest the Patterson delegation was seated.

Patterson moved to consider the contests in alphabetical order of states. His motion carried and speeches of the majority and minority were limited to 15 minutes each.

THE SILVER CONVENTION.

Appears to Be No Opposition to Bryan's Endorsement.

St. Louis, July 23.—The silver convention was called to order at 10:32 a. m. Chas. Towne of Minnesota was called on to address the convention. Towne was interrupted by frequent cheering. At the mention of Bryan's name there was a big demonstration. He said Bryan represents the cause of humanity against injustice.

Ex-Governor St. John of Kansas was called on and responded. His allusion to Cleveland was greeted with laughter by the delegates.

At the conclusion of St. John's speech the committees on organization, rules and platform were appointed, after which Mrs. Helen Gougar of Indiana addressed the convention. Mrs. Gougar touched on prohibition and Hon. E. R. Cole of Wisconsin took issue with her, defending the brewing interests of Milwaukee and St. Louis.

When Cole had concluded the convention took a recess until 2:30 p. m.

Will Oppose Any Compromise.

St. Louis, July 23.—Middle-of-the-road men held a meeting just before the hour for the afternoon session of the convention. The net result was the adoption of a motion declaring it the sense of the middle-of-the-road men that no compromise should be entertained or adopted by them.

A Victory for the Bryan Men.

St. Louis, July 23.—General Weaver has been elected chairman of the committee on platform. This is considered a victory for the Bryan men.

CHANCES AGAINST SEWELL.

Probable That the Populists Will Nominate Minus of Tennessee.

St. Louis, July 23.—Middle-of-the-road Populist leaders appeared to realize this morning that they could not control the situation, and although the rank and file still cried for absolutely independent action, most leaders were talking compromise on a basis of a Populist vice-presidential nomination and division of electors. The Bryan men consider they have Bryan's nomination practically assured and are now working like beavers to save Sewell. The chances seem to favor the nomination of A. J. Minus of Tennessee.
