THE DEMOCRATIC BOLT.

The intelligence of the country is turning against the Democratic ticket and platform. Many of the most influential and reputable Democratic journals of the East are declaring against Bryan and favor the election of McKinley in no uncertain tone. Among these is the New York Sun, which has published an address to its Democratic readers which is well worth the perusal of everyone. The Sun says:

It is impossible to bolt the Democratic national ticket next November, for there is no Democratic national ticket to bolt. There are Populist-anarchist candidates nominated on a Populist-anarchist platform. Such a ticket and such a platform bind no Democrat who does not confuse names with principles. The name of the Democratic party is assumed by a lot of persons who have foisted into the platform principles utterly repugnant to Democratic principles, strange and dangerous doctrines, threatening alike the honor and the prosperity of the United States. Rotten money, class legislation, restrictions upon the freedom of contract, freedom of riot, and the dependence of the supreme court are not Democratic principles, and should be opposed by them by all means in their power.

Democracy is not a transient collection of persons who may misrepresent or misuse it; it is a collection of beliefs, a whole history of political dogmas and traditions. When the attempt is made to supersede these by a mass of alien and hostile opinion, as revolting to the Democratic creed and practice as to business, to the security of property and good order, and to the spirit of American liberty, the Democrat is not the man who servilely consents to the violent changes in the party and in the country, but he who opposes them by all the means in his power.

The sane and loyal Democrat will maintain his allegiance to the state organization, wherever that has not bowed to anarchy. He will not cease to be a Democrat. For the ultimate recovery of his party from the power of the madmen who control it, for the present he will prepare the way for the only safe and sure means, by voting for William McKinley. Such a vote is a vote against anarchy and Populism, and such a vote is also the duty of a good citizen, for only by severe defeat can the anarchized Democratic party be brought back to its senses and to genuine Democracy.

The patriotic Democrat has a duty to perform which his conscience should not allow him to shirk.

Here is a truth which is worth remembering. In speaking of the issues present in the campaign the Oregonian says: "Everybody cannot think alike, and there will be some to whose minds the tariff question will appeal more strongly than the money question. McKinley is still the candidate of all who believe in protection to American industry. Bryan is still the free-trader he has always been."

The action of the D. P. & A. N. Co. in keeping their line running to Portland while so many obstacles exist is worthy of high praise. The boat company is the best friend The Dalles ever had, and the people should never be forgetful of their duty towards it. The Regulator should have the continued and enthusiastic support of our people.

Tacoma has a speedy and inexpensive way of settling election contests. When one is pending somebody breaks in and steals the ballots and further proceedings are brought to an end.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
