FIN DE SIECLE.

It would be preposterous to draw any parallel between the times of the French revolution and the scenes which are being enacted in America today, but there are, nevertheless, some circumstances which fit both centuries. The same feeling of unrest pervades America now which swept over France one hundred years ago; the same agitation against wealth, and the railings of the unfortunate against the fortunate. That the French revolutionists were wholly wrong in their views and actions, is not for a moment considered, though the excesses into which they plunged were unjustifiable.

In America the symptoms which are manifest, though they are not reassuring for the maintainance of a satisfactory commercial condition, will lead to nothing beyond material discomfort. Civilization has advanced too far and the nation is too justly for an attack such as overwhelmed France and made the rule of Napoleon possible. And yet the fruits which this year is bearing show that the American people have been leading away from the teachings of their earliest and best instructors. In the convention which is meeting now in St. Louis can be seen some examples of this truth. The convention is composed of men from various pursuits in life, and whose trainings were obtained in widely different circumstances. Many of them aspire to good citizenship, and conscientiously believe in the principles they are advocating. But there is a class among them, and who sympathize with them, consisting of professional agitators; men of revolutionary instincts, who are of a turn of mind which precludes success in any line of work save in stirring strife. Of unbalanced temperments, they are capable of being carried away by their own enthusiasm, and can lead unthinking people to dangerous precedents.

It is from this class of men that the country has to fear. Alged is one of them; Tillman is another. "Cyclone" Davis, "Bloody Bridles" Waite are other examples of enthusiasm run riot, and the country and age which produce them have cause to ponder over the future. Many of the principles which these men advocate are inimical to the country's welfare, and the only panacea for such ills as we are suffering through the disturbance to our commercial equilibrium will be obtained by a return of national prosperity, which will keep the people employed and allow of no idle minds wherein such schemes may be contrived.

The Democrats are averse to having any discussion over the tariff during the campaign. The tariff is a dead issue they say; no one wants to hear about protection or free trade. But four years ago the question of protection and free trade was the all-absorbing one. The advocates of the later policy won, and their theory has been given a practical test and proven a failure. The American people are but waiting for the day to come when they can render their verdict. In the meantime what reason exists for trusting the Democratic party, with its free silver platform, after its utter failure of the last three years?

The fruit crop of Oregon this season will not be so large as a year ago; but less damage has resulted in Wasco county than in any other section. As a country suitable for diversified fruit culture this section has no superior, and the future promises great things.

PROGRESS.

People who get the greatest degree of comfort and real enjoyment out of life, are those who make the most out of their opportunities. Quick perception and good judgment, lead such promptly to adopt and make use of those refined and improved products of modern inventive genius which best serve the needs of their physical being. Accordingly, the most intelligent and progressive people are found to employ the most refined and perfect laxative to regulate and tone up the stomach, liver, and bowels, when in need of such an agent—hence the great popularity of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These are made from the purest, most refined and concentrated vegetable extracts, and from forty-two to forty-four are contained in each vial, which is sold at the same price as the cheaper made and more ordinary pills found in the market. In curative virtues, there is no comparison to be made between them and the ordinary pills, as any one may easily learn by sending for a free sample, (four to seven doses) of the Pellets, which will be sent on receipt of name and address on a postal card.

ONCE USED THEY ARE ALWAYS IN FAVOR.

The Pellets cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation, sour stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, windy belchings, "heart-burn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. Put up in glass vials, therefore always fresh and reliable. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are mildly cathartic. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, take one each day after dinner. To relieve distress from over-eating, they are unequalled. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules; any child will readily take them.

Accept no substitute that may be recommended to be "just as good." It may be better for the dealer, because of paying him a better profit, but he is not the one who needs help. Address for free sample, WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
