NOT A SICK DAY For Over Thirty Years! RESULT OF USING AYER'S PILLS

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills for over thirt, years have kept me in good health, never having had a sick day in all that time. Before I was twenty I suffered almost continually-as a result of constipation-from dyspepsia, headaches, neuralgia, or boils and other eruptive diseases. When I became convinced that nine-tenths of my troubles were caused by constipation, I began the use of Ayer's Pills, with the most satisfactory results, never having a single attack that did not readily yield to this remedy. My wife, who had been an invalid for years, also began to use Ayer's Pills, and her health was quickly restored. With my children I had no-ticed that nearly all their ailments were preceded by constipation, and I soon had the pleasure of knowing that with children as with parents, Ayer's Pills, if taken in season, avert all danger of sickness."-H. The Campaign Opens sent into Oregon through its means, sistance in practical campaign work, especially in the matter of club work. They appeal particularly to Republicans who feel an inclination to break over party lines and join the free silver movement, to stop and consider well how the success of that movement would affect them as Republicans and the principles which they have always held to be of supreme importance. It League of is an appeal to Republicans to stop and think, to refrain from throwing away their Republican birthright for a mee and patriotic purpose. Let every Republican who remembers the prosperity of the country under Republican administration and the prosperity of Oregon under the tariff which bore the name of the statesman who is now the Republican nominee for the presidency, and who saw this prosperity stricken down as with a plague in 1892, by the defeat of the Republican nominee at the polls, take sober thought of the situation, and determine solemnly in his own mind, whether it is not his imperative and patriot c duty to vote for the man and the party whose names are synonyms of prosperity for Oregon and for the entire country.

Behind Mr. McKinley are the thrift, the providence, the industry, the basiness, the inteiligence and the honor of the country. Behind Mr. Bryan are the discontent, the unthrift, thes improvidence, the ignorance, the paternalism, socialism, the anarchism and the dishonesty of the country. That there are many honest and earnest, though mistaken, men who favor the independent free comage of silver, cannot be denied, but the elements named are the controling ones in the present silver movement. Can any Republican, whether he be a veteran grown gray in the party service or a new recruit marching to his first battle, contemplate the ascendency of these elements in the government of the country with other than the most direful forebodings? Can any Republican find in a triumph at the polls of any ideas he may happen, for the time being, to hold in common with Bryan, anything whatever to compensate him for helping to elevate these elements into power in the United States, postponing or defeating utterly the protection to American laborers and producers, and for another four years at least keeping the government out of the hands of the only party through whose management the country has found prosperity?

These are matters which should receive sober and thoughtful consideration from every Republican of Oregon. When this has been given, we feel certain that every patriotic Republican, entered upon a campaign of education tionalism or class prejudice, and not upon the principles of the St. Louis forgetting the real cause of the distress platform, embracing both the financial he has suffered since the defeat of the question and the principle of protection, Republican party in 1892, will not only so dear to the hearts of Oregon Repub- decide that duty to his country and his licans. of extremely doubtful pottage. Following is the address :

To the Republicans of Oregon:

The Executive Committee of the Republican League of Oregon has entered upon a campaign, to carry the State of Oregon for McKinley and Hobart in November, and in this effort it asks the hearty support of every Republican, whether a member of a league club or not.

If you are a member of a Republican club, do your utmost to make it a vigorons and active one.

If it has become dormant, revive it.

Insist upon having frequent meetings, and have them addressed by speakers, both local and those brought from a distance. Speakers will be sent out by the league, who will go from club to club.

See that your club is prepared for such meetinge.

Attend the meetings yourself and indace your neighbors to attend them also.

Endeavor to have the clubs in your county unite in a county league, so that speakers sent to your county may be managed in a practical way and all matters of the campaign receive proper attention.

If you do not belong to a club, join one.

If there is no club in your precinct, organize one, even if you can get but ten members. The secretary will send you blanks for this purpose upon application.

The situation at the present time is peculiar, and calls for patriotic and thoughtful action. Through four years of misery and gloom, the Republicans of Oregon have waited for the time to come when they might cast their votes for William McKinley and the protection of Oregon's industries, and yet, now that the time so ardently longed for has arrived, a new issue has been raised to turn them aside from their righteous
