NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President, WILLIAM M'KINLEY, Ohio
For Vice-President, GARRET A. HOBART, New Jersey
For Presidential Electors, T. T. GERR, Marion County; S. M. YORAN, Lane; E. L. SMITH, Wasco; J. F. CAPLES, Multnomah

TIME FOR WORK.

The candidates have been chosen and the platforms been made for the great campaign of 1896. The real work will now begin. Already the results in some portions of the country can be predicted. In the Eastern and Middle states the only question is how large will McKinley's majority be. In the South Bryan and Populism will triumph. In the West the battle is uncertain.

The fusion of the Democrats and Populists will undoubtedly make the Bryan ticket strong west of the Rockies, and some of the rank silver states will probably give it their electoral votes.

In Oregon and Washington, conceding all the claims of the Bryan men, the contest will be a close one, with the chances in favor of the Republicans. As the campaign progresses the cause of sound money and protection will increase in strength.

At the same time there is urgent need for active, well-directed work. The Republican schism in Oregon last spring has interfered greatly with the efficacy of the work done by the state committee, and the situation now is not as harmonious as earnest Republicans would wish it. But factional differences must be healed; selfish considerations must be put in the background and an unbroken front shown to the enemy.

The address which was sent out a few days ago by the executive committee of the state Republican leagues should be given careful attention. In every county the organization of Republican clubs should be begun without delay. In Wasco county every precinct should have a club which will serve as a nucleus for campaign work. The membership of The Dalles McKinley Club should be three or four times what it is, and every member should feel a responsibility in doing what he can to secure Republican success.

The present campaign is no ordinary one. Whatever other people may say, we believe that the success of Bryan next November means nothing less than national bankruptcy. Free trade and free silver will complete the ruin begun four years ago when the country slumped to Democracy. Business men have a vital interest in the outcome, and this should be eminently a business man's campaign.

Have the free silver Republicans forgotten that Bryan is a free trader? Are they going to ignore the overpowering question of protection in this campaign and vote for Bryan because he represents their ideas only on the coinage question? Bryan's whole course while a member of congress was in opposition to the principles of protection, which the Republican party believes is essential to the prosperity of the nation. Here is what he said during the debate on the tariff bill: "What I denounce is a protective tariff, levied purely and solely for the purpose of protection. It is false economy and the most vicious political principle that has ever cursed this country."

The states which hold elections before November this year are Alabama, August 3d; Vermont, September 2d; Arkansas, September 7th; Maine, September 14th; Florida, October 6th, and Georgia, October 7th.

And now it is stated that no formal notification will be made to Bryan of his nomination for president on the Populist ticket. Is it possible the Populists are ashamed of their action and want the people to forget it?

The man whose presence is desired most in this community is Senator Mitchell. There are a good many things our people wish to say to him and some questions to be asked.
