NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

For President, WILLIAM M'KINLEY, Ohio. For Vice-President, GARRET A. HOBART, New Jersey.

For Presidential Electors, T. T. GEER, Marion County; S. M. YORAN, Lane; E. L. SMITH, Wasco; J. F. CAPLES, Multnomah.

"It is immaterial, in my judgment, whether the sheep grower receives any benefit from the tariff or not."

"Whether he does or does not, I am for free wool."—Extract from speech of William J. Bryan in the house of representatives when the Wilson bill was under consideration.

WHY IS IT SO?

Dealers say that never before in the history of Oregon has the wool situation been anything like what it is at the present time. Heretofore there has always been a market for wool at some price. There has always been money in the past, plenty of it, to advance to any and all who wanted to consign their wool. People have held back for better prices in days gone by, but when the time came that they had to sell there were always buyers ready to pay the market price. Now there is no market, no price, no buyers, none who will make advances. The wool business is at a dead standstill. It is stuck fast in the mire of financial demoralization the horses have balked and refuse to budge an inch. A big lump of wealth, represented by great mountains of wool, one of the mainstays of Eastern Oregon, is tied up, and for the present needs is as worthless as the sands of the Columbia—20,000,000 pounds of wool in Eastern Oregon towns alone, and no one to even advance money enough on it to pay freight from one town to another. This wool is stored in warehouses at Huntington, Elgin, Baker City, Union, Durkee, Pendleton, Heppner, Echo, Arlington and The Dalles. The producers of this wool would like to know "where they are at."

The above is taken from the East Oregonian, one of the staunch Democratic journals of Eastern Oregon. It is a truthful presentation of the disastrous condition, and coming from such a source carries with it great weight as a campaign argument. Although the East Oregonian seemingly asks why such a condition exists, it knows the answer as well as any one. Had it not been for the part played by newspapers and politicians in influencing the people to vote into power a free trade Democratic administration, there would not be this congestion in the wool market. No manufacturer nor speculator is going to put one dollar in wool till it is known whether these immense foreign shipments are to continue. There need no one think that the situation will change unless the election of McKinley becomes absolutely sure.

With Eastern Oregon's greatest industry stifled in the way it has been, it is preposterous for the Democratic party to ask for votes from the chief sufferers.

An effort is being made towards retrenchment in the city government of Portland. Big cuts have been made in the salary lists of the fire and police departments, and both forces reduced. The action taken was inevitable, but the good of the city would have been better served if the economy had begun years ago. The municipal extravagance of Seattle, Tacoma and Portland should serve as an example to smaller places, which often spend more than they should.

A sound-money Democrat is not obliged to vote the Republican ticket, but that is the easiest and best way for him to show that he means what he says.

PURELY VEGETABLE.

The Cheapest, Purest and Best Family Medicine in the world! AN EFFECTUAL SPECIFIC for all diseases of the Liver, Stomach, and Spleen. Regulate the Liver and prevent CHILLS AND FEVERS, MALARIOUS FEVERS, BOWEL COMPLAINTS, RESTLESSNESS, JAUNDICE AND NAUSEA.

BAD BREATH! Nothing is so unpleasant, nothing so common, as bad breath; and in nearly every case it comes from the stomach, and can be so easily corrected if you will take SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR. Do not neglect so sure a remedy for this repulsive disorder. It will also improve your appetite, complexion and general health.

PILES! How many suffer torture day after day, making life a burden and robbing existence of all pleasure, owing to the secret suffering from Piles. Yet relief is ready to the hand of almost any one who will use systematically the remedy that has permanently cured thousands. SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR is no drastic, violent purge, but a gentle assistant to nature.

CONSTIPATION SHOULD not be regarded as a trifling ailment—in fact, nature demands the utmost regularity of the bowels, and any deviation from this demand paves the way often to serious danger. It is quite as necessary to remove impure accumulations from the bowels as it is to eat or sleep, and no health can be expected where a constive habit of body prevails.

SICK HEADACHE! This distressing affliction occurs most frequently. The disturbance of the stomach, arising from the imperfectly digested contents, causes a severe pain in the head, accompanied with disagreeable nausea, and this constitutes what is popularly known as Sick Headache, for the relief of which TAKE SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR OR MEDICINE.
