POLITICAL OUTLOOK

McKinley Indorsed in Strong Terms.

BRYAN'S TRIP TO NEW YORK

He Desires to Be Notified of His Nomination "In the Enemy's Country."

TACOMA, Aug. 7.—Congressman W. H. Doolittle (Republican) of this city, made a public statement through the press today of his political views. He endorses McKinley in strong terms and points out that the Republican platform is the only one that can bring about the adoption of bimetalism by international agreement. He says:

"I am for bimetalism in all truth and sincerity, by agreement with other nations, if that agreement can speedily be brought about. I am for the use of both gold and silver as basic money, and if, after an honest trial, which the platform of the Republican party pledges, an agreement cannot be speedily reached with the other nations, for bimetalism I believe the Republican party will deem it then to be the duty of the United States to open our mints to the coinage of silver and by proper retaliatory legislation against other countries, enforce our way and protect ourselves as suggested in the statement of Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, published in Fortnightly Review about two years since."

He says further that the St. Louis platform is the only one that makes possible the building of the Nicaragua canal, for the Chicago platform condemns bond issues in times of peace, and one is necessary if the canal be constructed.

Bryan's Trip East.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 7.—The train bearing Hon. William J. Bryan, the Democratic nominee for the presidency, and party to the notification meeting at Madison Square Garden, New York, on the 13th, will leave Chicago over the Pennsylvania system on next Sunday night and will arrive in New York on Tuesday evening, the 11th. No program has been arranged but short stops will probably be arranged at a number of points along the line. The distinguished party will remain in Pittsburg Monday night and arrangements are being made by the Democrats for a grand demonstration.

OMAHA, Aug. 7.—The Bryan tour through the East was inaugurated at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

CANNOT SWALLOW SEWALL.

Populists Have no Use for the Man From Maine.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 7.—Thomas E. Watson opened his vice-presidential campaign here last night with an address of two hours' length, delivered before an audience of 3,000 people in a rough shed used for the Moody revival meetings several months ago. Watson appealed at the outset for a non-partisan hearing, declaring that he spoke with bitterness to none and in behalf of the men who held the plow, who pulled the hook, who wielded the hammer. If God gave him strength, he declared, he would plead the cause of these people through the pens of the Northern reporters present, before 65,000,000 of people in the morning.

"We can stand by Mr. Bryan," said he. "He has been with us and fought for our policies. But when we are asked to swallow Sewall, we beg to be excused. We cannot vote for Sewall because he does not represent our platform. If we do we say we did not mean what we said in the platform. You cannot consistently say this is a fight of the West and South and go off to Maine to get a candidate for vice-president. This is a movement of the South and West and you must have a Southerner on your national ticket."

In conclusion Watson made this significant statement.

"We are not going to put up a candidate against Bryan. We are going to vote for Bryan whether Sewall is withdrawn or not. Let Mr. Jones say what he likes. Let him insult you if he will. Make no answer. We are going to put out a full electoral ticket for Bryan and Watson. We can't vote for Sewall."

A TEMPERANCE PLANK.

Georgia Populists Would Banish the Saloon.

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 7.—The Populist state convention having perfected organization yesterday and listened to Watson's address last night, settled promptly down to business this morning. The platform indorses the St. Louis platform and contains the following bar-room plank:

"Civilization, to say nothing of religion, has entered upon the judgment of condemnation against barrooms. Public conscience revolts at the license system, which fosters the saloon and generates its manifold evils in consideration of a revenue that pays less than a tithe of the public burden it entails. It is non-American monopolistic and essentially immoral."

The Sewall-Watson Muddle.

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—The Times-Herald says: There is a fight on between Governor Altgeld and Chairman Jones of the Democratic national committee. Governor Altgeld holds Chairman Jones personally responsible for the Sewall-Watson muddle and is of the opinion that if the Arkansas senator had remained away from St. Louis matters would have adjusted themselves in much better shape.

Was Loyal to His Party.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—A. C. Moore, a colored messenger in the treasury department, has resigned, assigning as the cause his refusal to serve under a Democrat who booted the ticket nominated by the party convention.

Senator Quay Will Retire.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 7.—Senator Quay says he will retire from politics at the expiration of his present term.

McKinley Declines.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 7.—Mark Hanna says McKinley will not go on the stump against Bryan.

Female Help Wanted.

WANTED—Red-headed girl and white horse to deliver premiums given away with Hoe Cake Soap. Apply to anywhere.

A Man Sold at Auction.

ELIZABETHTOWN, Ky., Aug. 6.—A sale on the court house steps last evening was a reminder of ante-bellum days. Instead of a negro slave being transferred to another owner, it was a white man sold at auction for vagrancy under an old law seldom enforced. The vagrant was Lawrence Peak convicted by the circuit court. Six months was the penalty. The sale was cried by Deputy Sheriff Williams. Out of the large crowd present there was only one bidder. John C. Reil bid $12 75, for which he is entitled to Peak's services for six months.

Oysters for Oregon.

PORTLAND, Aug. 7.—At the solicitation of Mrs. Governor Lord, State Fish and Game Protector McGuire has secured from the national fish commissioner a carload of Eastern oysters which are to be transplanted on the Oregon coast. The oysters will be brought as soon as the location is selected for planting them.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.

Help Wanted—Male.

WANTED—Solicitors for campaign book "Bryan, Sewall and Free Silver," authorized by Bryan, written by E. L. Metcalf, editor Omaha World-Herald, appointed author by Bryan. Contains speeches and platform. A bonus for agents, a free silver mine for workers. Only $1.00. The only authorized book. 50 per cent. credit given. Freight paid. Outfit free. Begin now with choice of territory. Permanent profitable work for '96. Address, The National Book Concern, Star Building, Chicago. aug-8-1m

The Tollers' End of It.

New York World, Dem.

The average dividend earnings of the railroads is less than 1 per cent. The best of them earn about 4 or 5 per cent. at most.

If, by a lapse to the silver standard, their earnings are reduced one-half, what is to be the fate of their employees? They will have to pay double for their necessities, but they cannot expect that their wages will be doubled, because the companies that employ them cannot earn the money to pay more.

The gripmen on trolley and cable cars, for example, are paid out of the nickels received for fare. If the value of those nickels is reduced one-half, will not the gripmen and conductors be the worst and most hopeless sufferers? The same thing applies to the earnings of the steam railroads and the wages of their employees. Is it not certain that free coinage and a lapse to the silver basis mean first of all impoverishment to the workingmen?

These are matters for the serious consideration of men who earn wages.

A Novel Spectacle.

Minneapolis Tribune.

William M. Singerly, of the Philadelphia Record, presents the novel spectacle of a man running for office and endeavoring, through his own paper, to defeat his own election. He is one of the Democratic presidential electors, and he says that if elected he would be in honor bound to vote for Bryan and Sewall, but he prophesies that there is no danger of his being elected. His paper is squarely against free silver and in favor of sound money.
