

THE BEST FAMILY MEDICINE

She Has Ever Known. Words of Praise from a New York Lady for

AYER'S PILLS

"I would like to add my testimony to that of others who have used Ayer's Pills, and to say that I have taken them for many years, and always derived the best results from their use. For stomach and liver troubles, and for the cure of headache caused by these derangements, Ayer's Pills cannot be equaled."

When my friends ask me what is the best remedy for disorders of the stomach, liver, or bowels, my invariably answer is, Ayer's Pills. Taken in season, they will break up a cold, prevent a gripe, check fever, and regulate the digestive organs. They are easy to take, and are, indeed, the best all-round family medicine I have ever known. Mrs. MAY JOHNSON, 208 Rider Avenue, New York City.

A good recommendation for Simmons Liver Regulator is, that it is purely vegetable and strongly tonic. Then too, it is better than Pills because easier to take in liquid or powder and with no gripping, while the relief from Constipation, Biliousness, Sick Headache and Dyspepsia is quick and sure. "I find Simmons Liver Regulator a very safe and valuable family medicine."—Rev. J. M. Rollins, Fairfield, Va.

A Polished Production.

The initial article in the current number of the Sentinel published at Portland, is by Dr. O. D. Doane of The Dalles, who is president of the Oregon State Medical Society. It is reprinted from an address made before the society by the doctor at the annual meeting June 9th, 1896. The subject of the address is "Medical Faith." It is worthy reproduction in any unprofessional magazine or newspaper, so filled is it with beautiful thoughts clothed in the choicest diction. It is impossible to explain fully the theme of the address without publishing the whole. Without trying to perform an impossibility, therefore, we extract from it a few striking paragraphs.

"Of the world's workers no man needs a greater measure of faith than the physician. He labors in a field where the path of knowledge are often dimly marked, and his feet but feebly lighted through the mists of vague conjecture. It is his constant mission to guard and guide the issues of life, that mysterious force whose beginning none may trace, and whose secrets none have solved. That which expresses life, the human body, so fearfully and wonderfully made in the image of the divine Creator, is the object of his constant solicitude and care.

"After centuries of investigation how little do we really know of the human body. With dissecting knife and microscope we may indeed unfold the structure of its component parts, and in the light of chemical science and physiological research we may come into close proximity with the initial forms of life. We may trace even to their protoplasmic cells the varied transformations which attest the vital force, but of the life itself, that subtle and mysterious essence which lies beneath and beyond all these, and of which all that we can trace is but the outward working and expression, we are still, and perhaps must ever be, profoundly ignorant."

Bryan's Borrowed Figures.

Philadelphia Ledger. Mr. Bryan's friends assert that the speech he is now preparing for delivery on accepting his nomination will be the greatest effort of his life. Let us hope it will be a new effort, at any rate, for evidence is accumulating that the one which gained him the nomination had done duty at least once, and probably two or three times before, and that its most striking passage, the "crown of thorns" figure, was taken from a speech delivered in congress in January, 1894, by Representative McCall, of Massachusetts. Mr. Bryan being then and there present. The boy orator must prepare something fresh and original if he wishes to retain his prestige for eloquence.

Germans and Sound Money.

Chicago Times-Herald. A large proportion of the Germans living in the United States were born in the fatherland long enough ago to have seen the effect of free coinage of silver in actual operation. They have been witnesses of the benefits conferred upon the industries and commerce of the new empire by substitution of the gold standard for the silver standard.

The sons of these Germans have profited by the experience of their fathers. There are 1087 papers in the United States in the German language. Of this number there are only forty-seven not advocating maintenance of the existing gold standard, no matter what their party affiliations.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed on exhibit at the world's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the world's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

LATIN AND GERMAN TAUGHT.

GERMAN. The undersigned desires to organize a class in German. Every American citizen who can afford both time and expense ought to be master of at least two languages. The German language has many advantages over modern languages on account of her profound literature in all branches of ancient and modern science produced in her world renowned universities. Those who would drink from these inexhaustible and yet undiluted fountains of knowledge, must master the language which contains the key to them. The undersigned will organize a class in German, and will begin with actual work on the first day of September. The class will meet two or three times a week in the evening or when most convenient to the pupils. Rapid progress guaranteed to those who will get down to earnest labor. All who desire to participate in this work will please announce their intention to the undersigned at an early date, as the class will be limited to a certain number. Charges will be very reasonable.

LATIN. The undersigned will also organize a class in Latin. There are so many reasons why those who desire to advance their knowledge beyond a common school education should take at least a course in Latin, that probably everybody is familiar with at least some of them. I will not take space here to speak of the beauties of the Latin language nor of the many advantages in life possessed by those who have mastered it. I will here only announce my intention to organize a class in Latin. Rapid progress guaranteed to those who will work hard. Charges very reasonable. All desiring instruction in Latin are kindly requested to announce their intention to the undersigned before September, if possible. Awaiting your application, I am, very respectfully yours, I. GREY, Evangelical Lutheran Pastor.
