WHAT BRYAN HAS TO DEFEND.

Candidate Bryan says he is ready and willing to defend the platform upon which he stands. By this he means both the Democratic and Populist platforms, since he has been nominated and, to all intents and purposes, accepted the principles which form the cardinal faith of these two parties. Bryan is ready to defend the propogandas which the Democrats and Populists have put forth.

Have you stopped to think what these mean? The Democratic party declares that the government shall stamp 53 cents' worth of silver and call it a dollar, and shall keep on stamping such amounts of metal as long as they shall be presented. This same Democratic party which has always contended that the nation is no greater than the individual states, now announces that this government is greater than the rest of the world and by its own action can do what other countries have long ago given up as impossible.

The amount of bullion in a silver dollar is worth today fifty-three cents. Behind it is forty-seven cents' worth of government credit. That is what makes up the deficit and enables the fifty-three-cent dollar to purchase 100 cents of commodity. If free coinage were to result, the government would be unable to pledge its proportion of credit, and the silver dollar would purchase just what its bullion was worth. This would be depreciated currency, and this Mr. Bryan is ready to defend.

The Democratic platform declares for free trade. Have we not had enough of free trade? It is a tiresome subject to refer to, but the people of Eastern Oregon have cause to heed it well. Free trade has been the curse upon us all. It has brought the wool industry, upon which each of us is dependant, from a prosperous business to a calamitous undertaking. Free trade has made bankrupts out of well-to-do business men; destroyed credit, and made the severest of economy necessary. And free trade Mr. Bryan is ready to defend.

The Democratic and Populist platforms attack the supreme court. They say it does not render equitable decisions, and yet the supreme court represents one of the bulwarks of our liberty. It is composed of the most eminent men that can be found in the nation. It is a check upon the other departments of government. Yet the delegates in conventions assembled assume to know more than the learned justices of the supreme court. And this Mr. Bryan is ready to defend.

In fine, Mr. Bryan is ready to defend any proposition which is contrary to the welfare of the nation. He is a free coiner, a free trader--an anything for office. And, candidly, does he represent one single measure which will inure to the benefit of the American people? We think not.

Bryan is a smooth man. He is an adept in making phrases. He knows how to say the right thing in the right place. He sizes up his audience, finds out what they want, and gives it to them. Consequently he is successful to a certain degree. You remember what Barnum--the enterprising circus man--said: "The American people like to be humbugged;" and so they do. Bryan is humbugging them. He tickles the fancy of those to whom he speaks. What recommendation has Bryan for the presidency? None whatever. He is a callow youth, to whom nature gave a volatile tongue. Is he the sort of a president this nation wants? Calmly think this over, and don't vote until you have considered it well.

The statistician has no place in this campaign. Figures cut no figure. You see the condition of things now and you remember what they were four years ago. How do you like the change?

Bryan stands for bankruptcy, repudiation and anarchism. McKinley stands for protection, patriotism and progress. Which will you choose?

PURELY VEGETABLE. The Cheapest, Purest and Best Family Medicine in the World! An Essential Specific for all diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Spleen. Regulate the Liver and prevent CHILLS and FEVER, MALARIAL FEVER, BILIOUS COMPLAINTS, RHEUMATISM, JAUNDICE AND NAUSEA. SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR

Do not neglect so sure a remedy for this repulsive disorder. It will also improve your appetite, complexion and general health.

PILES! How many suffer torture day after day, making life a burden and robbing existence of all pleasure, owing to the secret suffering from Piles. Yet relief is ready to the hand of almost any one who will use systematically the remedy that has permanently cured thousands. SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR is no drastic, violent purge, but a gentle assistant to nature.

CONSTIPATION SHOULD not be regarded as a trifling ailment--in fact, nature demands the utmost regularity of the bowels, and any deviation from this demand paves the way often to serious danger. It is quite as necessary to remove impure accumulations from the bowels as it is to eat or sleep, and no health can be expected where a constive habit of body prevails.

SICK HEADACHE! This distressing affliction occurs most frequently. The disturbance of the stomach, arising from the imperfectly digested contents, gives a severe pain in the head, accompanied with disagreeable nausea, and this constitutes what is popularly known as Sick Headache, for the relief of which TAKE SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR OR MEDICINE.
