PEASE & MAYS

Maltese Cross.

MAIER & BENTON are Sole Agents for the Maltese Cross Fire and Garden Hose for The Dalles. Anyone once buying this brand of Hose will never buy any other. It is carbolized and guaranteed to stand a pressure of 350 pounds to the square inch. This city has just purchased 500 feet of the Fire Hose and the School District 200 feet of the Garden Hose. The city has some of the Maltese Cross brand that was bought seven years ago, and it is better today than some other brands that were bought only four years ago. The Maltese Cross has been the standard Hose for years, and is manufactured by the Gutta Percha Rubber and Manufacturing Co. Parties wanting hose for spray pumps and lawn purposes will do well to buy the Maltese Cross. It will cost a little more in the start, but it is the cheaper in the long run.

Weather Forecast.

PORTLAND, AUG. 13, 1896.
FOR EASTERN OREGON—Tonight and tomorrow cooler.

WAYSIDE CLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

Don't neglect the McKinley club meeting tomorrow night.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the thermometer stood at 95 degrees.

A part of the incline which was washed away during high water was repaired today.

Nicely furnished room, with or without board, at Mrs. Helm's, Fourth street, foot of Rinehart stairs. al3

The new hose ordered for service by the fire and water committee of the city council arrived yesterday.

Protection, sound money and prosperity. Promote the tenets of the Republican party by your presence tomorrow night at the council chambers.

R. E. Saltmarsh shipped twenty-two carloads of cattle today. They were bought by Mr. W. F. Melleck from Robt. Mays & Sons and shipped to Montana.

We learn that a field of carrots near the city of an acre and a half has been completely destroyed by the grasshoppers, the insects even pursuing the roots into the ground.

Word has been received from Mr. E. Jacobsen that he is very ill at Burns, Or., with dysentery. A letter from a friend states that at the time of writing it he was unconscious.

A crew of fourteen men has been set at work repairing and improving the wagon road from Ashland to Klamath Falls. Portland contributed $500, according to the Klamath Falls Express, and from collections made $1,200 will be expended for a starter.

Potatoes continue to bring a high price, maintaining their value better this season than for many years. We are informed that there are lots of potatoes in the country, but the farmers are too busy with their other work to dig them.

The arrangements, now practically completed, for the regatta to be held at Astoria, provide for one of the most interesting entertainments ever given on the Northwest Pacific coast. Every detail has been looked after. Appropriate prizes have been arranged for every race in all of the important events.

Mrs. Marshal Hill was thrown from her buggy last evening, caused by the horse running away down the Union street hill, and was severely cut and bruised about the forehead. She was picked up and conveyed to Rev. Miller's house, and Dr. Doane summoned. The wounds will be a long time in healing and may leave a scar.

From reliable reports received from the valley travelers of Portland hop-brokers and buyers the 1896 hop crop will hardly reach 50,000 bales; less than half of last year's crop. But the prospects this year for the growers as regards prices are somewhat better, as shortages in Eastern and European crops are reported, and for choice quality the valley hopmen are likely to reap a fair profit.

Wheat stands at the head of bread grains. On account of its superior value, be the price high or low, wheat will bear transportation for a greater distance than any other grain or produce. Thus we have all the inducements for its continued production, even at low prices. Wheat will sell at any time, and always at some price. The man that has wheat can always command some money.—Moro Observer.

Henry Lauretson's scow burned last night at a point on the river about two miles below town. Upon the scow was a quantity of fishing tackle and other materials which burned with it, making the loss reach several hundred dollars. This scow was the old ferry boat which used to cross the river at this point. Having so much tar about it the scow made a bright blaze and was taken by some to be Mr. Henry Klindt's house from the direction of the blaze.

United States District Attorney Murphy has received instructions to defend ex-Indian Agent Peter, of the Klamath reservation, who has been sued in the county court of Klamath county by Henry O'Brien, late a teacher in the Indian school there, to recover $5,000 damages for being put off the reservation. It is charged that O'Brien became so unmindful of his duties and so obstreperous, that the agent deemed it advisable to discharge him and forcibly expel him from the premises.

Second Car of Peach Plums.

The second car of plums fared even better than the first. A telegram was received today from Chicago that they sold for $1 per crate, which is the highest price ever yet received for that variety of fruit. The following shippers contributed to the carload: A. S. Bennett, 244 crates; E. Lane, 7; A. J. Linton, 29; Marshall Hill, 119; O. D. Taylor, 70; A. Root, 282; Robt. Cooper, 144; total, 883.

Sliding Mountain Won't Stop.

The sliding mountain just below the Upper Cascades is one of the wonders of the Western world. It has the slides this year worse than usual, and its movement has rendered necessary the relocation of the O. R. & N. Co.'s railway for a distance of some 1200 feet. The new line will be moved some sixty feet back, and will be eighteen feet higher than the present line, which has gone away below grade, owing to the sinking and sliding of the land. The railroad engineers have become so accustomed to the antics of this sliding mountain that they just let it slide, and when it gets the track too far down, they move it up again.—Oregonian.

HON. W. R. ELLIS ARRIVES.

He Defines His Position and Will Take off His Coat for McKinley.

Hon. W. R. Ellis arrived on the noon train today from Newport, where he has been for a month, and where his family now are. Mr. Ellis purchased a cottage there, where he will spend the greater part of the summer. His business in The Dalles at present is to consider the applications of young gentlemen who may wish to try for West Point or Annapolis honors.

Knowing that his position politically was in some doubt since the curious interview alleged to have been held between himself and an Oregonian reporter, a CHRONICLE representative called upon him at the Umatilla House. "Will you take a part in the campaign this year?" began the reporter. "I will," replied Mr. Ellis. "I have offered my services at state Republican headquarters, and will be ready to go on the stump as soon as the campaign opens. I would prefer to be assigned in my own district, but will go wherever in the judgment of the committee I am needed."

"The general impression among the people of the state is that you favor the 'silver' side of the question?" "Oh, not wholly," with a deprecating gesture. "I have been friendly to both metals, and should like to see the largest use of both consistent with keeping up the parity. I am not one of that number who believe that great disorder is to follow the financial issue, no matter which way it is settled. Whatever may be the result of the election I do not believe we shall have any great panic or commotion. I think McKinley will be elected and that the fight is going to be settled along Republican lines, and I do not think the financial plank is the most important. There are several others ahead of that. I believe the tariff plank is paramount to all others. Then the old established Republican principle of restriction of foreign immigration is of more importance than the financial plank. There are several that in my judgment come ahead of that one."

Mr. Ellis will remain in the city till tomorrow afternoon. In the morning he will receive the applicants for military examination.

Resolutions of Condolence.

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Supreme Master Workman of the universe to remove from our midst the dearly beloved daughter of Brother and Sister Kreft, and we, their brothers and sisters in the Degree of Honor, are desirous of expressing our earnest and affectionate sympathy with the household thus deeply bereaved. Therefore be it Resolved, That we tenderly condole with the family of the deceased in their hour of trial and affliction, and devoutly bid them find consolation in the belief that all is well with her for whom we mourn.

Resolved, That while we keeply sympathize with those who were bound to our departed friend by the nearest and dearest ties, we share with them the hope of a reunion in that better world where there are no partings, no heart-aches, no tears.

Resolved, That these resolutions be transmitted to the family of the deceased as a token of our respect for the Christian character of the dear girl gone to her rest and the interest felt by the lodge in those she loved and cherished.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records of the lodge and a copy thereof be transmitted to each of the daily papers.
