

OVERWORK —INDUCED— Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless today had it not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. HENSON, Postmaster and Planter, Kearsarge, S. C.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.

Electric Bitters.
Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

A Coxeey General Recognized.

The selection of "General" Shreffler, for a place on the pay rolls of the city, even in so humble a capacity as driver of a street-sweeper, has amazed many taxpayers. Almost anything was expected of Penroyer, says the Oregonian, but giving the ringleader of the Coxeey movement in Oregon a place is deemed a little more than might have been expected.

Over two years ago, after "General" Shreffler had marched out of Portland and captured a railroad train on the O. R. & N. line, he, with others, was arraigned before Judge Bellinger in the United States court, for contempt of court. Ed. Teesdale, the labor agitator, secured the services of Frank V. Drake and Judge M. L. Pipes to appear for the men. They agreed to do so, but only on the stipulation that Shreffler and his crowd would plead guilty and throw themselves entirely on the mercy of the court. This was agreed to, and, when they marched into the courtroom, the plea was so made. Shreffler was allowed to address the court, and distinctly promised, if not punished then, he would abstain from further riotous acts. Each of his associates made the same promise, and Judge Bellinger discharged them without punishment. They had no thought of keeping their word, but, starting out, after passing the Oregon boundary line, they seized another train. They met with a sterner kind of justice in Idaho. The United States judge there sent Shreffler and his ragamuffin companions to jail for six months. He and some of his associates returned to Portland, and later Breckenridge, one of the lot, went to California and is now serving a life term in the penitentiary.

After he had been hanging about Portland for two years or more, Penroyer has recognized Shreffler by turning out a poor cripple and giving his place to a Coxeeyite.

A LESSON IN DOLLARS.

But Mr. Bryan Could Not Profit by the Lesson.

Los Angeles Times.
A. L. Morrison of Santa Fe, in a letter to the Cleveland World, recites an incident of a trip made by Mr. Bryan to Mexico last winter, which is interesting, likewise instructive.

When he (Mr. Bryan) was in Juarez, Mexico, he saw an opal in one of the curiosity stores, with which that city abounds, which struck him as being a good one. Inquiring the price of it, the merchant told him it was $4, meaning, although he did not say so, four Mexican dollars. Mr. Bryan thought $4 was a good deal of money for it, and said: "I will give you $3 for it, if you like." The merchant agreed, and Mr. Bryan there and then, much to the astonishment of the merchant, handed him three American dollars. The opal was carefully wrapped up, and Mr. Bryan departed, elated to think he had secured a good stone for $1 less than its price. But his elation was greatly inferior to that felt by the merchant, who had secured $6—three American dollars being nearly equal in value to six Mexican dollars—for what he had only asked $4.

This little incident carries with it a neat little moral: Mr. Bryan may know a good opal when he sees it, but he does not know that an American silver dollar is as good as two Mexican ones.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundersman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous: in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at River Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

Germans and Sound Money.

Chicago Times-Herald.
A large proportion of the Germans living in the United States were born in the fatherland long enough ago to have seen the effect of free coinage of silver in actual operation. They have been witnesses of the benefits conferred upon the industries and commerce of the new empire by substitution of the gold standard for the silver standard.

The sons of these Germans have profited by the experience of their fathers. There are 1087 papers in the United States in the German language. Of this number there are only forty-seven not advocating maintenance of the existing gold standard, no matter what their party affiliations.

LATIN AND GERMAN TAUGHT.

GERMAN.
The undersigned desires to organize a class in German. Every American citizen who can afford both time and expense ought to be master of at least two languages. The German language has many advantages over modern languages on account of her profound literature in all branches of ancient and modern science produced in her world-renowned universities. Those who would drink from these inexhaustible and yet unadulterated fountains of knowledge, must master the language which contains the key to them. The undersigned will organize a class in German, and will begin with actual work on the first day of September. The class will meet two or three times a week in the evening or when most convenient to the pupils. Rapid progress guaranteed to those who will get down to earnest labor. All who desire to participate in this work will please announce their intention to the undersigned at an early date, as the class will be limited to a certain number. Charges will be very reasonable.

LATIN.
The undersigned will also organize a class in Latin. There are so many reasons why those who desire to advance their knowledge beyond a common school education should take at least a course in Latin, that probably everybody is familiar with at least some of them. I will not take space here to speak of the beauties of the Latin language nor of the many advantages in life possessed by those who have mastered it. I will here only announce my intention to organize a class in Latin. Rapid progress guaranteed to those who will work hard. Charges very reasonable. All desiring instruction in Latin are kindly requested to announce their intention to the undersigned before September, if possible. Awaiting your application, I am, very respectfully yours,
L. GREY,
Evangelical Lutheran Pastor.
