MR. BRYAN EXPOSED.

Mr. Bryan ought to set up an escutcheon, taking as emblematic the ostrich which hid its head in the sand and imagined its body was concealed. Is the man actually so dull as not to see that the wild rush of Populists and anarchists to his support tells the whole story? There is not a ranting fanatic in the country, nor a mad breaker of all laws, human or divine, who is not today willing to vote for Bryan. How does all this come to pass? Is it because these people know nothing about him? He has spent some years as the agent, it may be charitably assumed as the salaried agent, of the silver millionaires in stumping western and southern states, and the craziest cranks in all that region are for Bryan. Does it make any difference to anybody whether he accepts a Populist nomination or declines it? Says the New York Tribune: One may assume that he will decline, or do something which he imagines equivalent to a declination. Where is the use? The trouble is that though he is willing to promise anything to anybody, or to refuse anything which would not pay, a convention of the most brainless and passionate creatures on this planet have joyfully chosen him, in the words of one of them, "as their Moses." When folks get into that state of mind about a man, they think his ideas are their own. They have heard him talk, in multitudes of speeches which have not been reported, fortunately for Mr. Bryan. They know what his underlying temper is, and they get a great deal more enthusiastic about the man than they do about any statement of their own opinion that they are able to frame.

This will not be the whole of the fight this year. Bryan would be a cheap third-class rafter, hired by some faction of his party at a moderate figure per week, in another campaign. This time he is a candidate for the most exalted office in the gift of seventy million Americans, because some of them think he means the same revolutionary things which they mean. Possibly he talks too much, some of them say, with a tone of apology, but he is against corporation—being at the time a hired attorney for one of them. "Perhaps he is a wordy demagogue with no principles at all," say others, probably without justice. At bottom the trouble is that he mistakes his own declamation for knowledge, and his own metaphors for convictions.

The impressive feature of his nomination by the Populist convention is that it gives better and stronger testimony than any which Mr. Bryan himself can possibly give, that he is the kind of man the fanatics and repudiators want above all others. It will not do him a bit of good to say that their platform is not his; they chose him from all the world to represent and execute that platform. It would be a stupid waste of time for the man to say that he is in form not a Populist, but a Democrat. The Populists had votes enough to pitch Sewall into the ocean which washes the shores of Maine, but the some votes deliberately selected Bryan to be their Moses. The world will certainly take him and them at their word. He fished for anarchists and repudiators in his speech at Chicago, and caught them. But the whole tribe of them stuck to him at St. Louis, because they really know him better than he probably knows himself.

YOUNG SPIRITS.

A vigorous body and robust strength follow good health. But all fall when the vital powers are weakened. Nervous debility and loss of manly power result from bad habits, contracted by the young through ignorance of their ruinous consequences. Low spirits, melancholia, impaired memory, morose, or irritable temper, fear of impending calamity and a thousand and one derangements of body and mind, result from such pernicious practices. All these are permanently cured by improved methods of treatment without the patient leaving home.

A medical treatise written in plain but chaste language, treating of the nature, symptoms and curability of such diseases, sent securely sealed in a plain envelope, on receipt of this notice, with 10 cents in stamps, for postage. Address, WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents.

Marvelous Results. From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at River Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.
