

WITH THE NOMINEES

What the Presidential Candidates Did Yesterday.

MCKINLEY RETURNS TO CANTON

He Visited His Campaign Manager at Cleveland Yesterday.—Mr. Bryan Leaves Irvington.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 17.—Major William McKinley, the Republican presidential nominee, accompanied by his wife, returned to Canton this morning, after having spent Sunday in this city as the guest of M. A. Hanna, the Republican campaign manager.

When Major and Mrs. McKinley arrived at the depot this morning to take the train for Canton, they found a crowd of people waiting to see them off. Hearty cheers were given for McKinley, to which the nominee responded by bowing and raising his hat. The demonstration was not concluded until the train had pulled out.

Hanna will leave for New York this evening to visit the Republican headquarters there and look after important business in connection with the campaign.

When asked today as to the truth or falsity of the recent report that McKinley would soon take the stump, Manager Hanna responded that McKinley would do no speaking during the coming campaign.

Hanna is confident of the success of the Republican party at the coming election, and says that evidence continues to come in of the weakening of the free-silver craze in various states.

The Nogales Raiders.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—The war department has received dispatches from General Wheaton, detailing the movements of the troops in pursuit of the Indian raiders from Mexico. It is believed that such disposition of the troops has been made as will intercept them if they attempt to cross into Mexico. The Indians are on foot and are pursued by mounted troops. Mexican authorities will establish a garrison at Nogales for the purpose of preventing further Indian raids.

Bryan at Poughkeepsie.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Aug. 17.—When W. J. Bryan reached Poughkeepsie 400 people were on deck to greet him, and followed him up the street cheering and shouting for a speech. When he reached the depot the crowd became so insistent that Bryan finally yielded to their wishes, and standing on a box said:

"I am up here for rest, and I did not expect to make a speech, but I probably shall not see you again, and I will take this opportunity to say a few words to you. I am very glad to see you all. From the tone of the New York opposition press one would be led to suppose there was no silver sentiment in this state. I am glad to see here the refutation of that fallacy and to notice that even the great New York press cannot stifle the wishes of the people. This is a time when the thinking people outnumber corporations and when people will vote according to their own judgment.

"It is to be the greatest campaign we young people have ever seen, and I believe is a good sign when we can, as in this campaign foresee independence. We are naturally an independent people, and this is a time when that independence should be asserted."

Then Bryan asked, "How many here are silver men?"

A number of men raised their hands, and he said: "I want you to study up this matter and see how many silver men you can get out for our campaign."

"How are you for the workingmen?"

Bryan hesitated a second and then answered: "Will you take what I have said and what I have done, consider it very carefully, then judge as between our cause and that of our opponents? The candidates represent only the politics in their parties, and it is not for me to tell you what is your duty. It is for you to study the issues and I am glad that you are doing so, and when you find out what your duty is, do it."

Like Darius Greene.

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—A special cable from Berlin to the Journal says that Professor Otto Lilienthal, the well known inventor, died Tuesday from the effects of a fall from his flying machine. The aeronaut arose 15 meters from the mountain when he lost his balance and fell to the ground head first. His last words were: "Mine is the true inventor's death."

The Barking of Dogs.

VARDØE, Norway, Aug. 17.—Dr. Nansen left this morning for Christiania. The meeting between Nansen and Jackson, the English explorer, was the result of the barking of dogs. The Norwegian and companions were exploring when they heard barking. Following the sound they reached Jackson's camp. Vardøe has been decorated in honor of Nansen's return.

GAIL HAMILTON DEAD.

Famous Journalist Passes Away at Her Home.

HAMILTON, Mass., Aug. 17.—Miss Mary Abigail Dodge, writer, biographer and controversialist, died here this evening. Miss Dodge sustained a stroke of paralysis while sitting at the breakfast table yesterday morning. She fell from her chair, was picked up unconscious, and remained in that condition until her death.

Since the illness of last year, which came on suddenly in the Blaine mansion in Washington. Miss Dodge lived very quietly at her old home in Hamilton, Mass. Her strength had never rallied after that illness, but during that time she had been able occasionally to drive about the town and to entertain, in her old delightful manner, the friends who called upon her. Her literary work during this time had been fragmentary, done by the help of an amanuensis as a diversion when some current event had especially attracted her interest.

A Boy Murderer.

MINNESOTA, Minn., Aug. 17.—Carl Ranberg, an 18-year-old boy of this place, was shot and almost instantly killed by a stranger, who calls himself Walter H. Glass of Nebraska City, Neb. The weapon used was a shotgun of large bore. Two other lads, Mike Bunce and Gaeger, who among others were with young Ranberg at the time, were also wounded by stray shots.

Glass gave himself up to the authorities and was taken to Marshall and lodged in the county jail. He claims that he was provoked to shoot by insulting language used by some of the boys in the hearing of the prisoner and his wife.
