Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

The thermometer stood at 54 degrees this morning.

The concert tomorrow afternoon begins at 4:30 o'clock.

Tennant was given a jury trial yesterday before Justice Filloon and was found not guilty.

Miss Lois Helm has been tendered the position of teacher of Dist. No. 61, Hood River and will leave next week to accept that position.

Salmon trout in great numbers are now being taken from the Sitoulaw, where they have followed the salmon to feed on spawn.

The attorney-general's opinion in effect is that the state portage may be operated by the state regardless of the protest of the Day Bros., who claim to own the portage.

Mr. Pinkham of the Oregon Fruit Union will have shipped by tonight 446 boxes of Italian prunes, Bradehaw and Columbia plums. A part of the shipment left last night.

The fire laddies have done so nicely we should reciprocate. A good plan was that of last year, meet them at the boat and pull their cart from the landing. Then the boys should be met with carriages and the band should dispense their sweetest music.

The physicians who have been attending to Richard Closter talk very gloomily concerning his case, and evidently consider that the old gentleman has the worst of the fight. He is still in a dense stupor. His comatose condition is due to his injuries, and not to the slight doses of morphine he took yesterday.

The scholars of a Mosier school have been attacked by a peculiar coughing disease, somewhat resembling the whooping cough. The disease is contagious, but not dangerous, and has nearly completed the rounds of the school. Seven pupils were absent one day on account of it.

Two sales of real property were made by the sheriff today at the court house. All of block 25, Fourth addition to town of Dufur was sold to satisfy an execution for $98.29. The second sale was by E. Jacobsen, administrator of the C. V. Lane estate, comprising lots 1, 2, 11 and 12 and north half lots 3 and 10, block 8, Baird's second addition to Antelope. The amount realized was $622.17.

The Daily Dispatch is the title of a new morning daily paper which will be started in The Dalles during the first week of September. Mr. J. G. Miller will be editor and proprietor. The paper will be independent in politics. The plant will be the material of the old Sun office, now in Goldendale, and will be removed to The Dalles. It is the intention to take the Associated Press dispatches.

Mr. Herrin's visit to Pendleton was much of a success and resulted in large accessions to the local lodge. The Chronicle of that city says he not only endeared himself to members of the order while there, but also made many friends among the citizens and business men with whom he came in contact. He is of an unusually agreeable nature, which no doubt accounts in part for his success in his chosen field of work, and is a person whom one is always glad to have met.

At the meeting of the Press Association at Astoria the following were elected for the ensuing year: President, A. W. Patterson, Heppner; first vice-president, E. L. E. White, of Portland; second vice-president, D. M. Gault, Hillsboro; secretary, A. Tozier; treasurer, Charles C. Doughty, Dallas; historian, George H. Himes, of Portland. In the list of names mentioned as delegates to national convention appears the name of Miss Rose Michell of THE CHRONICLE, alternate.

Reception to Mr. and Mrs. Joslyn.

An informal gathering of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Joslyn met at the home of their hosts, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Brooks, last night, and the evening was most enjoyably spent in conversation. Invitations had not been extended, but all old acquaintances and friends in the church were welcomed. It may not be generally known that Mr. Joslyn and wife were among the original organizers of the Congregational church in this city. On the 11th of September, 1859, Mr. and Mrs. Joslyn, Mr. and Mrs. Z. Donnell, Rev. W. A. Tenny, E. S. Penfield of Canyon City and W. B. Stillwell organized the Congregational church, the same of which Rev. W. C. Curtis is now the pastor. The guests last evening were:

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Morgan, Mrs. E. Funk, Mrs. Chas. B. Cushing, Mrs. Mary Jane Atwell, Cascades, Miss Emma Roberts, Mr. D. H. Roberts, Mrs. Camilla T. Donnell, Mrs. James B. Condon, Mr. and Mrs. Bela S. Huntington, Master Wilson Huntington, Dr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Sanders, 3-Mile, Mrs. Fred Bayley, Mrs. Julie Knagge, Mrs. David W. Vause, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Collins and Chas. Edgar Collins, Mrs. John S. Schenck, Mrs. Wm. E. Garretson, Master Lindon Garretson, Mrs. Arthur C. Phelps, Miss Salina Phipman, Col. and Jas. W. Patterson, Master Glenn Patterson, Rev. W. C. Curtis, Mrs. Isabella Gray, Dr. and Mrs. Silas H. Frazier, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Euch, Joshua W. French, Mrs. Emma H. Doane, Mr. James R. Warner, White Salmon, Mr. and Mrs. Jessie C. Crandall.

Of the above Mrs. Atwell and Mrs. Donnell are pioneers of 1852, the same year the Joslyns came.

THE ASTORIA RACES.

How The Dalles Lost the Wet Test—Victory at Last.

A dispatch was received yesterday briefly stating that The Dalles lost the wet test. News was also received by wire this morning that they failed to capture a prize for the dry test race this morning, notwithstanding the following telegram which was sent from The Dalles at 7 o'clock this morning:

"The Dalles team is all right. This is our day. Wipe 'em off the face of the earth."

The above dispatch was signed by about a dozen of our citizens who are brimming over with good will, the last signature being "George Brown and all the girls." One chance remains for the boys to win—the championship race this afternoon, and if that is won we can well afford to forfeit all the other honors. This is the race of the tournament, and carries with it the big prize of $150. The race is a run of 900 feet, lay 300 feet of hose and get water; time; then run back and uncouple the second length of hose from the line and replace it with a length taken from the cart; time. It is a noble race, but the impression is here that the boys will not win it owing to the fact of insufficient practice.

In the dry-test race this morning Astoria won. The time was: Astoria, 45 2-5; Oregon City, 46; The Dalles, 46 1-5; Vancouver, 46 1-5.

The story of yesterday's race is more fully told in an Astoria dispatch to the Oregonian today:

"The wet-test race was the first contested, and brought out a field of five. The first to run was The Dalles team, but, although the men made fast time as far as running went, they were beaten by the man at the hydrant, who turned on the water before nozzle could be made fast. This put The Dalles team out of the race. No time was taken. The Astorians followed, and, with a poor start, covered the distance and got water in 49 seconds. They were followed by Vancouver, who were also credited with 49 seconds. The Liberty hose team, of Portland, was next, and, from their condition, looked like winners, but all three of the timers' watches indicated exactly 49 seconds. The excitement was intense and a proposition made to divide the prizes, but the members of each team insisted on running the race off later in the day. Oregon City was unable to do better than 52 1/2 seconds. In the hub-and-hub race, the first teams to compete were The Dalles and Vancouver. The latter won easily in 31 1-5 seconds. Liberty, of Portland, Oregon City and Astoria next appeared. The heat went to the local men. In the final, between Vancouver and Astoria, a grand race was witnessed. Vancouver got the best of the start, but the local team gained inch by inch in the last 100 yards, and looked like winners. Vancouver reached the tape, however, about four inches in the lead. In the run-off of the wet-test run, Astoria got water in 48 2-5 seconds, and were followed by Vancouver in 49 2-5. Owing to the Liberty hose team's mishap of two men falling at the start and the hydrant-man missing connection, their time was 52 seconds. The race therefore went to Astoria, with Vancouver second.

HURRAH! THE BOYS WIN.

3:15 p. m.—Defeat is swallowed up in victory! We are repaid for all the suspense, anxiety and drear forebodings by the joyful news which comes over the wires that our boys have won the big race—the one worth winning—the championship New York race. The Dalles beat the next best time by three and three-fifths seconds, making the race in 123 2-5. The following bulletins tell in brief the story of the afternoon:

Astoria—No time; lost in coupling.

Vancouver—No time; lost in coupling.

The Dalles—Just finished making a successful run; time 123 2-5.

Portland—Time 127; will be protested.

Oregon City—The coupling blew out; consequently no time. The Dalles wins first prize of $150; Portland second.

Fits the Condition.

It is hard to make the boys campaign hats show just exactly the spirit of the wearer, but the effort is not lacking. A McKinley cap this morning had the names concealed by a band neatly sewed on by the boy's mother. The gold button and cord were, however, conspicuous. It is very probable that that boy's father is a gold Democrat, and to pursue the logic further, it is also reasonable to suppose he is quite elderly. A young or middle-aged Democrat would have no hesitancy in voting for McKinley because he is merely an exponent representing his principles, and is not to be considered either as an individual or a Republican. A Democrat who would not do this must have been born a Democrat and have voted that ticket since 1840.
