HAS HER HANDS FULL

The Outbreak in the Philippines.

SPAIN SAYS SHE EXPECTED IT

Refugees From the Islands Said to Have Relations With the Cuban Insurgents.

LONDON, Aug. 22.—The developments of the troubles of Spain are followed here with considerable interest and the outbreak in the Philippine islands is regarded as seriously increasing her difficulty. The news of the conspiracy has caused great excitement in Madrid, where it is stated that the government is considering the advisability of promptly reinforcing the Spanish garrisons. The outbreak, however, is not a surprise to government officials, as news reached them some time ago of a considerable activity of the half-breeds. The object of the conspirators is to secure the independence of the Philippine islands, and a committee of refugees at Hong Kong is said to have relations with the Cuban insurgents.

The embarkation of reinforcements for Cuba commenced today. The Spanish police are extremely active in towns throughout the country just now in endeavoring to get at the bottom of the supposed republican plot to cause an uprising by exciting the masses who opposed the departure of further troops for Cuba. Domiciliary visits have been paid to the houses and clubs of prominent Republicans, and in many cases compromising documents have been seized. Numerous arrests have been made among the Republicans and great precautions are being taken in Madrid and other large cities.

In the meanwhile, the Liberals are conducting their policy of obstruction in the chamber in trying to prevent the passage of the extraordinary budget, which involves a renewal of the tobacco monopoly and the concessions of the Almaden quicksilver mines to the Rothschilds, in addition to railway subsidies, all of which the Liberals oppose, as against public interests. Consequently, there are likely to be stormy scenes before the session closes in the middle of September.

VICE-PRESIDENTIAL NOMINEE.

Mr. Hobart Will Make Some Suggestions to Gold-Standard Democrats.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—A World's dispatch from Hopatcong, N. J., says: "There are many thousand Democrats," said Garret Hobart, the Republican vice-presidential nominee, "who are hesitating to follow their party leaders and inclining to put patriotism above party. In my letter accepting the vice-presidential nomination of the Republican party, which I have here, and which will be probably made public after Major McKinley gives out his letter, I will devote considerable attention to them. For this reason, I must decline to give my views as to the right sort of remarks to be addressed to Democrats this year. I shall make no campaign speeches, and do not expect that Mr. McKinley will. Were he to do so, his opponent would probably follow in his tracks, and would no doubt delight to follow in a cart where Major McKinley had preceded in a palace car, contrasting the two for the sake of argument."

AT THE MCKINLEY HOME.

Visitors at Canton Yesterday—The Letter of Acceptance.

CANTON, O., Aug. 23.—Though this has been a cloudy, rainy day, Major and Mrs. McKinley took a short drive this afternoon with National Committeeman Charles C. Dawes, of the Chicago headquarters. Mr. Dawes reached Canton this morning and was a guest at the McKinley home. He returned to Chicago tonight. He said the campaign work was now well begun, and that there was an increasing demand for tariff literature.

Major Dick, who was with Chairman Hanna, at Cleveland, and is now a secretary at Chicago national headquarters, also called at the McKinley home tonight and supped with Major and Mrs. McKinley. He says the Chicago headquarters are running smoothly, and are well down to business.

McKinley's letter of acceptance will not be published before Wednesday or Thursday. The major has had a constantly increasing number of visitors, and his mail has grown to mammoth proportions.

Monday, a farmers' delegation from Knox county and a trainload of East Liverpool people are scheduled for a call. Despite the constant demands on his time, Major McKinley continues in good health, and Mrs. McKinley appears better than for years. Among the delegations announced to reach Canton during the week is a party from the National League convention at Milwaukee.

A FEARFUL FALL.

Defective Parachute Ends the Aeronautic Career of an Astorian.

ASTORIA, Aug. 22.—J. Watson Daggett, the aeronaut, met with an accident this evening which will in probability bring his parachute-jumping to a close. An ascension and parachute jump was advertised for 5 o'clock, but the usual delay occurred; and it was 7 o'clock before everything was in readiness. A large crowd had assembled, from among whom the aeronaut collected $28. He was dissatisfied with this, and, before ascending, made a short speech, stating that he had not been treated with a great degree of liberality. "There is not enough in the money subscribed," he remarked, "to pay my funeral expenses, but I'm going up, anyway." When about to start, Daggett's attention was called to one of the parachute ropes having been broken. "Never mind," he said, "let her go." The balloon was then let loose and ascended to a height of about 5000 feet. A slight current of air carried it in a southerly direction, and, when a short distance south of the schoolhouse, the parachute was disconnected.

For the first 300 feet it came down like a rocket, and the cry, "He's killed!" went up from hundreds of throats. The parachute then became partially filled, and the descent was somewhat checked. It was seen that the ropes had become twisted, but the aeronaut retained his self-possession, and, by swinging, endeavored to get the ropes into position. In this he was unsuccessful, and he came down with a succession of lightning-like flights. When about 100 feet from the ground, the aeronaut seemed to have lost his power to check his descent, and he fell with a terrible thud on one of the hills south of the residence portion of the city. He was quickly picked up and conveyed to St. Mary's hospital, but the exact nature of his injuries cannot yet be stated. The legs are thought to be driven up into the hips, the collarbone broken, and it is feared that inter-injuries have been sustained.

Nebraska for McKinley.

Heppner Gazette.

The following letter received by a gentleman now in this city from a Nebraska friend gives a very encouraging report of the political situation in that state:

"I suppose you know that Nebraska is furnishing the Democratic lamb of sacrifice this year. Our William, as he is familiarly called, I understand is going to swamp things out your way. Of course you are excusable; had you a personal acquaintance with the gentleman's abilities, you would do just like we shall do—snow him under. Nebraska will go for McKinley by an overwhelming majority. I hope you people will not go wild over our William. He is not to blame for all this hubbub. You can place Nebraska in the McKinley ranks for a certainty."

The article below relative to a partial canvass of Lincoln, Bryan's home, strongly substantiates the above statement.

"News was given out last Tuesday of a partial canvass of Mr. Bryan's town, Lincoln, and the county of Lancaster, in which it is situated. The county Republican committee distributed blanks and sought to secure an active canvass. In two precincts reported the result was: 'McKinley 219; Bryan 44.'"

"The poll of University place, a leading center, was: McKinley 128; Bryan 14; Prohibition 19; uncertain 22."

"It is claimed that, while the returns are incomplete, they establish the general character of the whole."

AN ALARMING STATEMENT CONCERNING WOMEN.

HOW BAD HABITS ARE FORMED.

The New York Tribune says: "The habit of taking 'headache powders' is increasing to an alarming extent among a great number of women throughout the country. These powders, as their name indicates, are claimed by the manufacturers to be a positive and speedy cure for any form of headache. In many cases their chief ingredient is morphine, opium, cocaine or some other equally injurious drug having a tendency to desensitize the habit of taking them is easily formed, but almost impossible to shake off. Women usually begin taking them to relieve a raging headache and soon resort to the powder to alleviate any little pain or ache they may be subjected to, and finally like the morphine or opium fiend, get into the habit of taking them regularly, imagining that they are in pain if they happen to miss their regular dose."

In nine cases out of ten, the trouble is in the stomach and liver. Take a simple laxative and liver tonic and remove the offending matter which deranges the stomach and causes the headache. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are composed entirely of the purest, concentrated, vegetable extracts. One Pellet is a dose; sugar-coated, easily swallowed; once used, always in favor. They positively cure sick headache and remove the disposition to it.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTIN, D.D., New York City.

When four days old my babe broke out over one side of his head and body with watery blisters, which turned to a complete scab. We called the family doctor, and he said that "he could heal them up," but "the baby would never have any more hair on his head," and we were completely discouraged. We were told to try CUTICURA REMEDIES and did so. We used two boxes of CUTICURA, two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP, and he now is all right. The hair is on thick, and you would never think there was anything the matter with him, he is so fat, good, and healthy, and I do not know how to praise CUTICURA REMEDIES enough for the good they did my child.
