WEYLER'S NEW POLICY

Will Inaugurate a Campaign of Destruction.

CANOVAS DICTATED THIS MOVE

He Says the Republicans Must Be Promptly Crushed—Weyler is Granted Full Sway.

HAVANA, Aug. 31.—The rebels must be defeated before the end of the year. Premier Canovas cabled to General Weyler explaining that the Spanish government has taken alarm at the developments of a recent interview between U. S. Minister Taylor and the Duke of Tetuan, Spain's minister of foreign affairs. General Weyler cabled back to Madrid that in that case he must resort to extreme methods.

"Do as you please," replied Senor Canovas.

Thereupon General Weyler determined to issue shortly an edict forbidding the grinding of the season's sugar crop.

When that edict appears, war will begin in earnest. Cubans will occupy hills and woods, the Spanish troops will be in cities and towns. The sugar mills will be destroyed by both sides, for Weyler will adopt Gomez's tactics, and enter upon a campaign of extermination. Cuba will be desolate by fire and sword. The torch will be applied by regulars and insurgents alike to everything which might give aid and comfort to the enemy. Everybody outside the military lines will be shot without challenge.

There was a panic in political and financial quarters when General Weyler's intention leaked out. The Marquis of Apezteguia, the chief of the conservative party, was immediately summoned to Havana by wire and arrived yesterday from the Constanza sugar plantation, where he was making extensive preparations for next year. A meeting of the conservative leaders was held. Planters and politicians of great influence were present. After a long and hot discussion, in which General Weyler's expected edict was denounced without stint, resolutions were adopted to this purpose:

First—That a committee composed of the Marquis of Apezteguia, Pasquel Goicochea and Fatacco Sanchez visit Weyler and try to prevail upon him not to issue the edict.

Second—If he persists in his determination to issue the edict, that the government at Madrid be urged to recall Weyler to Spain.

The workmen in a Spanish cigar factory operated by an Englishman named Bock made a public demonstration Friday night in favor of Spain, at which the favorite cry was "Death to the Americans."

General Quintin Banderas, after defeating the Spanish forces under Captain Bulbano, at Bacunagua, Pinar del Rio province, wrecking a train and seizing the booty, marched eastward with 300 men, crossing the trocha unmolested through the Pirgua hills. He camped at Aguirre, southwest of Alquizar, Havana province, and is reported to be at the ruined sugar mill, Mirosa, near Quivican.

The Matanzas court of justice refuses to obey General Weyler's order to remove the Sagua judge. General Weyler threatens to abolish the court if it disregards his autocratic order. Lawyers here, Spaniards included, resent General Weyler's interfering with the civil courts.

The Spanish liner, City of Cadiz, has arrived with reinforcements. Captain Tomaso reports that 500 soldiers, mostly Andalusians of the worst character, mutinied on the voyage. Their leaders had to be put in irons. Nothing serious happened, however, as precaution against just such a thing had been taken previous to their embarkation. They were not allowed to have their arms while on the ship.

COLORED TROOPS FOR CUBA.

An Expedition Being Organized by Truman Stewart.

MUNCIE, Ind., Aug. 31.—The meeting held at Salem for the purpose of raising funds to assist Truman Stewart in defraying the expenses of landing 1000 col-troops in Cuba to assist the insurgents was attended by 1000 people, and a satisfactory sum was the result from the sale of refreshments and subscriptions. Another man is colonizing the troops in Georgia, and they will be shipped from Key West October 1.

Mr. Stewart is a fearless young man, once a candidate for the legislature, and is the promoter. Since his plans have been made public he has received hundreds of letters from military men and others anxious to accompany him and many donations.

SOUTHERN OREGON CRIMES.

Charles Perry Decoyed, Murdered and Robbed.

GRANT'S PASS, Aug. 31.—Information was received here today from Sheriff Fred Ferguson, of Del Norte county, California, that the dead body of Charles Perry had been found in a well on the old wagon road between Kerbyville, Oregon and Crescent City, California. Perry had been employed at the Brown Copper Company's smelter at Waldo, and when the company closed down last spring to put in a more extensive plant, he was induced by a man named Nealson to go with him to a supposed rich placer claim, about twenty miles from Waldo, in the direction of the coast. Perry, before setting out on the trip, asked the advice of W. H. Wood, who was in charge of the smelter, and Wood advised him not to go, as there were no placer claims in California or Oregon that would give 50 cents to the pan, as had been represented by Nealson, and that if a man had a claim half as rich he need never work a day, and added Mr. Wood: "Charley, I am an old-timer in Oregon. Beware of that man."

In spite of Wood's advice and warning, Perry left with this man. A few evenings after their departure, Nealson, it is claimed, showed up at Payne station and offered Perry's watch for sale to the storekeeper, who, luckily for justice, bought it, and afterward sold it to a man named Smith, who carried it to Humboldt county, California.

Mr. Wood not hearing from his old smelter hand, reported his suspicions to Sheriff Ferguson of Del Norte county, California, and also to the sheriff of Josephine county, Oregon. The Del Norte sheriff, Ferguson, hearing about the sale of the watch, followed up the clue and located the watch in Humboldt county. Ferguson then turned his attention to the finding of Perry's body, yet there was only evidence of the watch against him, and to arrest him might defeat the ends of justice. In the meantime Nealson went to or near Crescent City to see his wife, from whom he had been separated. He told her that his father had died in the Willamette valley and had left him a small fortune. He bought furniture and otherwise fitted up the house, but never suspected that the eyes of Fred Ferguson were on him night and day. Time after time the sheriff searched for Perry's body, and after five months' perseverance he was rewarded by finding it yesterday in an old well some distance from the Payne stage station. Whether Nealson has been arrested or not cannot be definitely ascertained, but word has reached here that forty placer miners have taken charge of Nealson at Summit, and there is one point certain, that if any of the old hands from the copper mines are there, Nealson, if guilty, will surely swing.

Perry, who was over 52 years old, was an Odd Fellow, and leaves a wife and family in Michigan. Mr. Wood communicated with the Perry family some three weeks ago asking about him, but up to this morning has received no answer.

A Drunken Man's Crime.

DETROIT, Aug. 31.—Frank Beabien, aged 40, a member of an old French family, inherited considerable money recently and had been drinking heavily. This morning he went home drunk. His wife remonstrated. He shot her in the back, inflicting a mortal wound. He also attempted to shoot his two children, but both escaped injury. He then blew his brains out.

Stockholders' Meeting.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Wasco Warehouse Company will be held at the office of French & Co., The Dalles, Oregon, on Wednesday, September 30, 1896, at 3:30 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. W. LORD, Pres.

Attest: G. J. FARLEY, Sec. 4w
The Dalles, Or., Sept. 1, 1896.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for coughs, colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's, Drug Store.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair. Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed on exhibit at the world's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the world's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."
