

LOSS OF VOICE After Acute Bronchitis CURED BY USING AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

A PREACHER'S EXPERIENCE.
"Three months ago, I took a violent cold which resulted in an attack of acute bronchitis. I put myself under medical treatment, and at the end of two months was no better. I found it very difficult to preach, and concluded to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."

Pectoral. The first bottle gave me great relief; the second, which I am now taking, has relieved me almost entirely of all unpleasant symptoms, and I feel sure that one or two bottles more will effect a permanent cure. To all ministers suffering from throat troubles, I recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—E. M. BRAVLEY, D. D., Dist. Secretary, Am. Bapt. Publication Society, Petersburg, Va.

This of course is intended only for occasions where there is sufficient number to justify a reduction in rates. This is done so that there will be no partiality in favor of any one party.

THE CUPEY.

A West Indian Tree That Grows from Tree Tops.
The cupey, or, as it is sarcastically called in the English possessions, "the attorney," is one of the most curious as it is certainly the most picturesque denizen of the virgin forests of the West Indian island, says London Tid-Bits. It belongs to the parasitical family of trees or plants, but, terrible to relate, it invariably with the basest ingratitude destroys all life in the unfortunate tree that cherishes it in its early growth. The seeds are borne on the wings of the wind, and deposited on the branches of other trees, when they burst into roots, which are dropped toward the ground all around the "nurse" tree. In time these roots reach the ground and strike into the soil.
From this moment the roots grow stronger and stronger until they resemble a lot of rope ladders thrown over the tree. Next the parasite sends down a great cord, which twines round the trunk of the supporting tree, at first as though in loving embrace, but it grows tighter and tighter, eventually strangling its benefactor out of existence. The "nurse" tree thus killed rots to decay, and from the immense fibrous roots of the destroyer now springs a great trunk, which rises high into the air. When the cupey is full grown it presents a magnificent spectacle, for the cord-like roots rise often to 50 or 60 feet, and support in midair the vast tree itself.

Voracious Birds of Prey.

The voracity of the eagle and similar birds of prey is well known, but the contents of a nest which was recently discovered in the Alps by a Swiss hunter shows the following remarkable variety in the daily menu: A hare, 37 chamolais feet, four pigeons' feet, 30 pheasants' feet, 11 heads of fowl, 18 heads of grouse, and the remains of a number of rabbits, marmots and squirrels.

Ceremony at Marlborough.

At Marlborough house there is more ceremony, socially speaking, than at Sandringham. A number of servants herald your arrival or departure, and there are usually two servants standing outside your room door when you are staying in the house, and a man behind the chair of every guest at meal time.

The English Language.

English is spoken by 45,000,000 persons in the British Isles, by probably 57,000,000 or 60,000,000 inhabitants of the United States, by 4,000,000 persons in Canada, by 3,000,000 in Australia, by 3,700,000 West Indians, and by 1,000,000 in India and other British colonies, bringing the total of the English-speaking race to over 100,000,000.

AT HIS WITS' END

Father Tells How His Baby Suffered from Eczema.

IN ITS WORST FORM

Grew Worse Under Treatment of Best Physicians. Tried CUTICURA REMEDIES

Great Change in Five Days. To-day Entirely Cured, With Nice Head of Hair. Lively and Hearty.

I had a baby that had Eczema in its worst form. I had one of the best physicians in the city attending her, but she continued to get worse all the time under his treatment. He finally admitted that he was at his wit's end. I then got CUTICURA REMEDIES, and in a few days noticed great changes in her condition. She continued to improve after that, and to-day is entirely cured, has nice head of hair, and is lively and hearty. I can fully recommend them as being the best medicines for the cure of this disease. I spent considerable money for drugs and doctor's bills, which was useless in this case, for I think if your remedies don't cure, nothing will. I am telling every one that I see suffering about CUTICURA REMEDIES, and can cheerfully recommend them to those in need of them.

LATIN AND GERMAN TAUGHT.

GERMAN.

The undersigned desires to organize a class in German. Every American citizen who can afford both time and expense ought to be master of at least two languages. The German language has many advantages over modern languages on account of her profound literature in all branches of ancient and modern science produced in her world-renowned universities. Those who would drink from these inexhaustible and yet unadulterated fountains of knowledge, must master the language which contains the keys to them. The undersigned will organize a class in German, and will begin with actual work on the first day of September. The class will meet two or three times a week in the evening or when most convenient to the pupils. Rapid progress guaranteed to those who will get down to earnest labor. All who desire to participate in this work will please announce their intention to the undersigned at an early date, as the class will be limited to a certain number. Charges will be very reasonable.

LATIN.

The undersigned will also organize a class in Latin. There are so many reasons why those who desire to advance their knowledge beyond a common school education should take at least a course in Latin, that probably everybody is familiar with at least some of them. It will not take space here to speak of the beauties of the Latin language nor of the many advantages in life possessed by those who have mastered it. I will here only announce my intention to organize a class in Latin. Rapid progress guaranteed to those who will work hard. Charges very reasonable. All desiring instruction in Latin are kindly requested to announce their intention to the undersigned before September, if possible. Awaiting your application, I am, very respectfully yours,
L. G. GREY, Evangelical Lutheran Pastor.
