

LOSS OF VOICE After Acute Bronchitis CURED BY USING AVER'S Cherry Pectoral

A PREACHER'S EXPERIENCE.

"Three months ago, I took a violent cold which resulted in an attack of acute bronchitis. I put myself under medical treatment, and at the end of two months was no better. I found it very difficult to preach, and concluded to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The first bottle gave me great relief; the second, which I am now taking, has relieved me almost entirely of all unpleasant symptoms, and I feel sure that one or two bottles more will effect a permanent cure. To all ministers suffering from throat troubles, I recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—E. M. BRAWLEY, D. D., Dist. Secretary, Am. Bapt. Publication Society, Petersburg, Va.

First Class in German.

In answer to my advertisement in THE CHRONICLE for a class in German quite a number of applications have been filed with me. After thoroughly investigating the different applications, I have concluded to organize three classes in German.

CLASS NO. I.

This class will begin with the rudiments of the German language, and will advance as fast as the time and ability of the class will permit. This class will meet for the first time at the old Lutheran chapel on Ninth street, on Monday, 7 p. m., September 7th. All desiring to participate in the work of this class must be present at this meeting, if at all possible. It is very much desired that those who wish to participate should order their books at once.

CLASS NO. II.

This class is for those who have already devoted some time to the study of the German language and who have thus familiarized themselves with all, or at least with a part of the German grammar, and have accumulated at least a limited knowledge of the German vocabulary. All who are able and willing to participate in the work in this class are kindly requested to apply to the undersigned at an early date. You cannot only learn as much with the aid of a competent teacher in one month, as you can by self-tuition in six, but you will also avoid the constant danger of making mistakes and applying rules in a wrong way if you will employ the aid of a teacher.

CLASS NO. III.

A third class in German will also be organized for the benefit of those who are well able to converse in the German language, but who are not familiar with the German grammar, with the German rhetorics and with the German classics. Those who desire to participate in the work in this class will please make this intention known to the undersigned at an early date.

Very Truly Yours,

L. GREY,
Residence Ninth st., opp. old Lutheran chapel. e2

LATIN AND GERMAN TAUGHT.

GERMAN.
The undersigned desires to organize a class in German. Every American citizen who can afford both time and expense ought to be master of at least two languages. The German language has many advantages over modern languages on account of her profound literature in all branches of ancient and modern science produced in her world-renowned universities. Those who would drink from these inexhaustible and yet undiminished fountains of knowledge, must master the language which contains the key to them. The undersigned will organize a class in German, and will begin with actual work on the first day of September. The class will meet two or three times a week in the evening or when most convenient to the pupils. Rapid progress guaranteed to those who will get down to earnest labor. All who desire to participate in this work will please announce their intention to the undersigned at an early date, as the class will be limited to a certain number. Charges will be very reasonable.

LATIN.
The undersigned will also organize a class in Latin. There are so many reasons why those who desire to advance their knowledge beyond a common school education should take at least a course in Latin, that probably everybody is familiar with at least some of them. I will not take space here to speak of the beauties of the Latin language nor of the many advantages in life possessed by those who have mastered it. I will here only announce my intention to organize a class in Latin. Rapid progress guaranteed to those who will work hard. Charges very reasonable. All desiring instruction in Latin are kindly requested to announce their intention to the undersigned before September, if possible. Awaiting your application, I am, very respectfully yours,
L. GREY,
Evangelical Lutheran Pastor.
