

UNTOLD MISERY FROM RHEUMATISM

C. H. King, Water Valley, Miss., cured by Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"For five years, I suffered untold misery from muscular rheumatism. I tried every known remedy, consulted the best physicians, visited Hot Springs, Ark., three times, spending $1000 there, besides doctors' bills; but could obtain only temporary relief. My flesh was wasted away so that I weighed only ninety-three pounds; my left arm and leg were drawn out of shape, the muscles

A BRYAN CLUB.

An Organization Effected at the Court House Saturday Evening.

The Bryan club of The Dalles held their first meeting Saturday night in the court house. There were about sixty present when the meeting opened, with a diminishing number as the meeting progressed. The first business of the meeting was the election of a president. There was but one nomination, Mr. J. L. Story, who was elected by acclamation, and who made a short speech in response. Though a Populist of recent conversion, Mr. Story is an apt pupil, and like his great leader of oratorical fame, arrays class against class—the laboring classes against the "plutocrats" and "money lenders." He exhibited a roster containing 210 names of purported adherents to a Bryan club.

For vice-president the difficulty at once appeared of selecting any who would accept the doubtful honor, and was in turn declined by Mr. A. S. Bennett, Mr. Reese and Mr. Ross. Finally Mr. B. H. Thurston and Mr. J. B. Crossen accepted the positions without murmur. They elected Frank Hill secretary, but couldn't make him serve, and so the assistant secretary, Mr. J. A. Douthit, fulfilled the requirement.

A committee of three on constitution and bylaws was appointed, consisting of A. S. Rennett, Al Reese and B. H. Thurston.

There appearing to be no other urgent business, speeches were declared to be the order, and on call Mr. A. J. Brigham, of Dufur, took the floor. Mr. Brigham is a very earnest advocate of free silver and talks quite entertainingly, but is not willing to let the Republican party consummate financial legislation in the only permanent and feasible way, by international agreement. Mr. A. S. Bennett followed Mr. Brigham in the usual lines of argument. He gave Bryan an entirely new appellation, calling him "that great commoer," and "our big brother." Mr. E. B. Dufur also made a short extemporaneous speech, promising to do better as the campaign progressed.

A motion was then carried that a committee of three be appointed to arrange for a meeting hall and times of meeting; also to arrange for speakers and to invite ex-Gov. Penoyer and Mr. I. H. Barclay to address our citizens at some future time in their convenience.

Mr. R. F. Gibbons was then elected treasurer, and the meeting adjourned. After adjournment eleven names were added to the club.

Hood River's Big Club.

Mr. M. P. Isenberg's prediction that Hood River would have a wonderfully active Republican club before November is already verified, for last Saturday a McKinley and Hobart sound money club was organized there with a membership of 130. Mr. Isenberg was elected temporary chairman and made an eloquent speech, which elicited hearty applause. G. J. Gessling was elected president of the club; W. M. Yates, secretary; William Potter, vice-president, and Frank Jones, assistant secretary. L. N. Blowers, J. W. Morton and William Smith were appointed a committee on rules and order of business, to report at the next meeting.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair. Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed on exhibit at the world's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the world's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."
