SATURDAY, - - - SEPT. 19, 1896

THE WORK IS NOT COMPLETED.

The enthusiastic meeting at the courthouse last evening indicates that Republicans in this vicinity are in earnest. The success of that meeting must not, however, be misleading. Securing a large list of members is a good thing; but no one should for a moment think that this ends the work to be done. We have about 350 members enlisted on our side. These members must now be organized for active work in their own and other precincts, and recruits should be added daily to the list. Every voter who expects to vote for McKinley, who has not already united with one of the numerous Republican clubs in the county, should be influenced to put his name on one of the club rolls and go to work.

This is a campaign in which there is no danger of having too large a majority. Every precinct in the county should be thoroughly canvassed, and in this work our club can and should be of great assistance. We have in The Dalles a number of young men who should be put into active campaign work. There are many communities away from the railroad which cannot be reached by speakers from abroad, and these should be looked after by our club. The time is short, the work to be done is great, and the result to all is of the utmost importance.

The state of Oregon cannot afford to take its stand with Bryan, Altgeld Tillman and Waite, and the outcome in this state may depend upon the work done by the largest and strongest political club in Eastern Oregon—the McKinley Club of The Dalles.

Senator Jones was originally an ultra free trader. He afterward became an ultra-protectionist. When asked by Hon. David A. Wells, in a familiar conversation, what was the cause of his conversion, he replied: "Don't you see, David? How could I ask the government to regularly purchase our product of silver and refuse to give the iron manufacturer in Penn. the tariff protection which he needs to maintain his prices?" Jones was one of the fellows in the senate who recently declared that there should be no tariff legislation which does not provide for free coinage of silver. He is now, and always has been, an ultra-protectionist of Jones.

It is claimed that Mexico is prosperous because it is adding largely to its railroad mileage. These railroads are being subsidized by the government, and the day of accounting will come, as it has with us. It was all very well when the great transcontinental railroads were being built in this country to give them aid by land grants, etc.; the people then favored that policy. Now it is the most unpopular thing our government ever did. In Mexico the subsidy is an agreement to pay cash, in some cases from month to month, to continue for years.

Taking the average prices of labor and commodities in 1860 at 100, the price of labor in 1891 was 160.7, and of commodities 92.2; that is, labor made a gain of 60.7 per cent, and what laborers buy with their wages fell 7.8 per cent. From 1870 to 1891 the gain in wages was 12.9 per cent, and the lowering in prices 30.7 per cent.

Thos. B. Reed has done most excellent service in his own state for the party. If he could be induced to spend ten days or two weeks in California, that state would no longer be in the doubtful column. No one man in this country would have as great an influence with Californians as Speaker Reed.

One of our Popocratic contemporaries gets consolation out of the Maine election thus: "It is not surprising that Maine cast so large a Republican vote, because it is the home of the brainiest man in the Republican party." If he had said "men" it would have given the true reason.

The weight of $1000 in standard silver dollars is 58.92 lbs., and $34,000 in these dollars will weigh a little over a ton. The weight of $1000 in gold is 3.68 lbs.

The Sheep Men Victorious Thus Far.

A number of the cases of the United States against the sheep men, for herding sheep on the government reserve, were heard in the United States court yesterday. In the cases argued yesterday F. P. Mays of Portland and Huntington & Wilson of this city appeared for the defendants; in the criminal cases, in which the defendants were charged with having committed trespass, the demurrers were sustained and the informations dismissed, there appearing to be no law making the herding of sheep on the reservation a crime, the reservation not being enclosed. The suit of the United States vs. The Tygh Valley L. & L. S. Co., was also heard upon the question of granting a preliminary injunction; but Judge Bellinger decided not to consider the question concerning the injunction until the final hearing. A general demurrer to bill was argued and submitted, and taken under advisement by the court. Sheepmen can, with perfect safety herd their sheep in the mountains until this fall, and before spring the matter will probably be definitely decided.
