Never was a more grievous wrong done the farmers of our country than that so unjustly inflicted during the past three years upon the wool growers. Although among our most useful citizens, their interests have been practically destroyed. -McKinley's letter of acceptance.

POPULISTS AND THE SUPREME COURT.

From the time of the Chicago convention the Populists of the Populist and Democratic parties have continued to denounce the supreme court of the United States. This court has gone contrary to their wishes in several particulars, but chiefly in the income tax decision and the Debs case. As to the latter case, the burn-up-the cars branch of the party finds much to criticize; but with the law-abiding people of this country that decision stands among the greatest in importance ever rendered by any court. The principles are not new, though the application of them had no direct precedent. The conclusions of the court are just what all, except those of anarchical tendencies, should wish to have firmly established, and are as follows:

1. The relations of the general government to interstate commerce and the transportation of the mails, are such as authorize a direct interference to prevent a forcible obstruction thereof.

2. A court of equity has jurisdiction to issue an injunction in aid of the performance of the power and duty of the general government to prevent a forcible obstruction of interstate commerce and of the transportation of the mails.

3. The right of the government to use force to prevent any unlawful and forcible interference with interstate commerce and the transportation of the mails, does not preclude the right to appeal to the courts for a judicial determination and for the exercise of all their powers of prevention.

4. Government has a right to apply to its own courts for any proper assistance in the exercise of its powers and the discharge of its duties, and it is no sufficient answer to its appeal to one of those courts that it has no pecuniary interest in the matter.

5. The same fulness of control exists in the government over artificial highways as instruments of commerce as over waterways, and the same power to remove obstructions from the one as the other.

6. A court of equity has power to interfere by injunction in cases of public nuisance. 7. The jurisdiction of a court of equity to enjoin interferences with property rights is not destroyed by the fact that they are accompanied by, or are, violations of the criminal law.

8. A court enforcing obedience to its orders by proceedings for contempt is not executing the criminal laws nor invading the constitutional right of trial by jury.

These principles are based upon wise precedents, and no man who wants his lawful rights protected, and who recognizes the rights of other people, can find criticism in these conclusions.

David B. Hill has notified his friends that he is soon to get off the fence; that bad as the Chicago platform and as unacceptable as the ticket is, he is soon to jump down and march with the denouncers of capital and all that capital represents. Hill has stayed on the top rail long enough so that he knows the only effect his leap will have will be to enable him hereafter to say: "I was with my party in 1896." To make it certain that his jump will not help Bryan, he tells his friends beforehand how he dreads to come down.

Now Colorado's greatest city wants martial law. This is not in line with the ideas of the leaders of a great number of Denver's citizens. Altgeld, Tillman and Waite certainly have not been consulted in this matter.

The New York Democracy is united just as the Portland Republicans were during the June campaign. New York is now safely in the McKinley column.

Bryan's manager, Jones, says his talker will carry every western state. He has not received late advices from Oregon evidently.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair. Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed on exhibit at the world's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the world's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."
