Confidence Being Restored in Business Circles.

UNLOCKING THE HOARDS OF GOLD

Certainty of McKinley's Election Shown in the First Wave of Returning Prosperity.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade will say tomorrow:

A very moderate and distinct improvement is seen, no longer in the buying of materials, which continues at stiffer prices, but also in orders for products of some industries, in money markets and in export of staples, and it is yet little more than a step towards better things, but has already started some important works and prompted a few considerable contracts.

Continuing arrivals of gold have raised the treasury reserve about $125,000,000, strengthened the banks and relaxed the stringency in commercial loans, so that at about 1 per cent lower rates more business was done than in three previous weeks. Hoarding is no longer reported, but same hoards are being unlocked.

The movement of crops continues large, and purchasers for exports have advanced prices or prevented depression. While the gain in working force is not great, it seems clear that, for the first time in many months, there is some gain. An important change is the general advance in produce, and especially in wheat, which rose sharply on Thursday and Friday, closing 5½¢ higher for the week, with much buying, apparently for foreign account.

Reports of crops abroad were supposed to be the chief cause, as visible supplies in this country increased largely; but for the first time since July, receipts fell below those of the same week last year. They are still large, and for the first quarter of the crop thus far have been 52,721,158 bushels against 40,414,351 last year, a gain of about 30 per cent, and it is conceivable but cannot be considered quite probable that such receipts have come from a crop smaller than last year's, although prices averaged 10½¢ in July and 6.8 lower in August than last year.

ONE MAN'S VOICE.

Raised in Support of the Ottoman Empire.

PARIS, Sept. 25.—"It is high time that some protest was made against the frenzy which has seized a large portion of the British press and the British public with regard to Turkish affairs."

Such are the weighty words of Sir Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett, M. P., in a long and interesting letter on the Armenian question. Sir Ellis says among other things:

"So far from the Turks being the inhuman monsters depicted by Mr. Gladstone and other fanatics, who are endeavoring by their frantic agitation to cry havoc and let slip the dogs of war in Europe, the Turks have a moderating and restraining influence on all struggling and warring non-Muslim races, who but for Turkish control would have exterminated each other long ago."

The great danger to the Ottoman empire, he affirms, is the risk of an outbreak of religious and race fanaticism which statesmen have foreseen and have always striven to avert. Such fanaticism was aroused by the Armenian outbreak in 1895, and its result was an outbreak of fury that cost the lives of thousands of innocent Armenians with all the attendant horrors that were so dwelt upon in the English press.

Sir Ellis calls on the fanatical agitators to recollect that the lives of millions of Ottoman Christians are at the mercy of the Mussulmans of Asia Minor; that the queen of England has 70,000,000 Mussulman subjects in India and their most important ally, the emir of Afghanistan, is also a Mohammedan; also with one or two socialistic exceptions, the intelligent press of Europe is protesting against the "atrocities" agitation in England.

"Fortunately," he concludes, "there is enough statesmanship and common sense left among the nations and governments of Europe to curb the mad fanaticism now raging in England and to save the English government from being dragged into the vortex."

The Yale News Apologizes.

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 25.—The Yale News has the following editorial commenting on the disturbance at the Bryan meeting yesterday:

"The Yale News must deprecate the spirit of 'horse-play'—this is the true light in which the animus must be regarded—which promoted the demonstration at yesterday's political meetings. The action of Yale men present plainly showed a lack of respect for the dignity of the speaker as a public man, everything political aside. A careful and fair-minded consideration by any one will unanimously condemn and regret the exhibition irrespective of party affiliations. Yale was the foster mother of Illinois college, where W. J. Bryan graduated. Illinois college was founded by a party of graduates from Yale, and has always looked upon Yale as its parent institution."

HERE AND THERE.

The wheat yield of Umatilla county will be at least 4,000,000 bushels this year, which is only a million bushels less than the average crop.

An eastern exchange suggests that the demonization of horses by the crime of bicycles may have had something to do with the price of oats.

The electoral vote of the state of New York equals the electoral vote of the states of Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Montana, Wyoming and Colorado.

In a Kentucky town the other day Mr. Hale asked Mr. Bush for a chew of tobacco. Bush refused to do so, whereupon Hale drew a dirk and stabbed him through the heart. Truly a finecnet performance.

In the east certain women are said to be wearing unmatched stockings. Thus we are going from one glorious innovation to another, and life grows every day more and more delightful, to say nothing of more soulful.

Indians who rode into Harney county with the intention to do a lot of hunting this fall were told to "clatawa" by the citizens. The siwashe considered it good policy to leave the grizzled pioneers in possession of the wild game in Harney county forests, and quietly departed.
