NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET

For President, WILLIAM M'KINLEY, Ohio
For Vice-President, GARRET A. HOBART, New Jersey
For Presidential Electors, T. T. GEER, Marion County; S. M. YORAN, Lane; E. L. SMITH, Wasco; J. F. CAPLES, Multnomah

Never was a more grievous wrong done the farmers of our country than that so unjustly inflicted during the past three years upon the wool growers. Although among our most useful citizens, their interests have been practically destroyed. —McKinley's letter of acceptance.

WATSON'S WARNING.

Watson is dissatisfied with the treatment he is receiving, and it is only surprising that he has not complained sooner. He now publicly declares: "Under present conditions Mr. Bryan cannot get the full Populist vote.

They (the Populists) may not be able to break up the fusion deal, but they can stay at home. With one accord the Bryan and Sewall papers have given me nothing but disparagement, misrepresentation and ridicule."

Every word Mr. Watson says in this respect is true. What care the Democrats for Populists or the principles Populists are contending for? It has always been their boast and their greatest element of strength that, regardless of results, they would vote their true sentiments. In Oregon, as in many other states, they are called upon to vote, not for what they believe in, or have always professed to believe in, but for the elevation to office of Democrats. Sewall is to be vice-president if Jones and the other managers can make him so, and Watson is to be but a sacrifice. He and all men who want to see him vice-president have a right to be dissatisfied.

Mr. Watson says: "They (the Populists) will not stultify themselves by voting against their principles." This they must do if they acquiesce in the trade made between the leaders of Bryan's campaign.

It will be seen that Bryan is not, and will not be, taken to visit Watson. The plan is to elect Sewall, who, for every reason, should be more objectionable to Populists than any man on either ticket.

Bryan is everywhere declaring, both directly and by innendo, that the capitalists and manufacturers are working for the Republican ticket under a pretended solicitude for the welfare of the laboring classes. Nothing is more false or more misleading. The sneer that Bryan has again and again uttered, "Why are your employers so solicitous for your welfare just before election?" is unworthy a candidate for the presidency. No one has ever claimed, or does now claim, that the anxiety of the capitalist, manufacturer and business man in this campaign is not on account, to a large degree, of his own welfare; but every candid and truthful man knows perfectly well that the highest and truest interests of the capitalist and laborer are inseparable. The manufacturer is saying to his employes that "the departure from a fixed and stable currency, the currency of the great commercial nations of the world, to a fluctuating or experimental currency, will be detrimental to my business; I can not manufacture with these conditions staring me in the face. It is for your interest and mine to oppose the proposed change, for if I cannot continue my mills, you cannot find employment in my mills or those similarly situated." The capitalists who have capital to loan to the manufacturer and merchant, says: "If manufacturing and trade decrease, my capital will not find safe employment." And the laborers of this great country will say on November 3rd: "We will stay by those who are able and willing to employ us, rather than by the demagogues and political experimenters."

The campaign in Wasco county will be pushed with more vigor from now until November 3rd than any campaign we have ever seen. The McKinley Club of The Dalles, acting in conjunction with the state, congressional and county committee men, will endeavor to have the principles for which Republicans are contending thoroughly discussed in every precinct in the county. The more of this work the better. Leading men from other portions of the state, as well as residents of this city, will be heard wherever an audience can be gathered.

The gold monometalism, so denounced by the Populists, never did and never will exist. There never was a gold standard country which did not use silver in connection with the gold. The United States today is using almost as much silver for monetary purposes as gold, and a very much greater proportion of silver than she ever used in free coin age days. She is using three times greater a proportion of silver than any free silver nation.

Bryan draws as large crowds, or even larger, in New England than he did in the West. So far as a presidential candidate is concerned, crowds do not count.
