Never was a more grievous wrong done the farmers of our country than that so unjustly inflicted during the past three years upon the wool growers. Although among our most useful citizens, their interests have been practically destroyed. McKinley's letter of acceptance.

THE DAILY PAPERS IN THIS CAMPAIGN.

Mr. Bryan says: "We have not the daily papers with us in this campaign, and hence we must discuss these issues from the platform."

There probably never was a campaign in this country, where the daily press and the leading periodicals were so generally united in opposition to one candidate. From Maine to the Pacific, and from the lakes to Mexico the great newspapers—newspapers which have become great because of the ability of the men who edit them, and the vast number of people whose opinions are to a large extent formed by them—stand boldly and firmly against Bryan and his platform.

While daily papers form the opinions of the people to a great extent, it is also true that many of them are susceptible themselves to the influence of public opinion; each watches and shapes the other to a large degree. But the papers most ably edited are most fearless of the opinion of its readers, and, in case of conflict, invariably come off conquerors. That the papers of the South and the great Democratic papers of New York should stand together in their open opposition to the men and principles of their party, is a very powerful argument against the safety and wisdom of the leaders and platform, and at the same time a greater or less indication of their approaching failure.

Notwithstanding their opposition, the daily press has given Bryan every opportunity to present his views. His speeches have been as fully and accurately reported as McKinley's; the enthusiasm with which he has been received everywhere has not been belittled or misrepresented, the thinking, reading public, and those whose judgment is best upon these great questions, are uninfluenced by these speeches or shouts of the people. In November they will vote against the party and principles of Bryan, Altgeld, Tillman and Penoyer; against repudiation; against the supremacy of the state over the federal government.

The following figures serve to answer several of the so-called arguments advanced by the silverites. The relative decline in railroad rates and price of wheat and cotton is as follows.

	PER TON	PER MILE	DECLINE
	1873	1895
N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R.	3.78	1.66	56 per cent
Lake Shore	1.335	0.561	58 "
Chicago, R. I. & Pac.	2.29	1.06	54 "
Mobile & Ohio	3.23	0.88	77 "
GOLD VALUE OF WHEAT PER ACRE.
	1873	1895
Wheat	12.39	6.99	45 per cent
Cotton	24.81	14.74	41 per cent

We venture to say that there is a greater amount of mortgage indebtedness today against the railroads than against the farms of this country. Yet we never hear the Popocrats referring to the fact; and, indeed, the people who have given mortgages feel that they are peculiarly deserving of aid because they went into debt. We don't believe in this, because a law that does not treat all alike is unconstitutional, and we are sure these mortgaged railroads will demand all that the farmers get in the way of relief from debt.

Carl Schurz, who was a member of the senate in 1873, said in his great Chicago speech, Sept 5, 1896: "I wish to be scrupulously courteous to my opponents; but as a conscientious student of contemporaneous history, I am bound to say that in the forty years during which I have been an attentive observer of public affairs, I have never witnessed nor heard of such unscrupulous, shameless, persistent, audacious, accumulative, gigantic lying as has been, and is now, done with regard to the Act of 1873, its origin, its nature and its consequences."

Not one farm mortgage in twenty is over five years old today. The same financial system was then in vogue as now. Prices have fallen perceptibly, but the causes are easily found in the closing of factories and consequent distress among laborers, increased production elsewhere, and many other influences. The monetary system now in force was inaugurated over twenty-three years ago. Almost every private obligation, and all national obligations, except the Pacific railroad bonds, have been contracted under this system.

All that Bismarck said in his now famous Culberson letter was: "I believe to this day that it would be commendable to obtain by endeavors of those nations chiefly engaged in the world's commerce, an agreement in the direction of bimetalism." When a truthful translator gets hold of that letter it is found that Bismarck agrees exactly with the Republican party. Culberson ought to be kicked out of the country for his contemptible trick in mistranslating this letter of Bismarck.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 cents. No. 2-8.
