WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

Gen'l Geo. H. Williams at the opera house Saturday night.

Sylvester Pennoyer speaks at the opera house this evening.

A $7,500 fire occurred in Tillamook yesterday, an entire business block being burned.

Six cars of sheep were shipped to Troutdale yesterday, D. P. Ketchum being the purchaser.

The Moro Observer is advising its farming constituents that now is the time to plant potatoes.

The McKinley and Hobart headquarters will be at Pease & Mays warehouse on Second street, opposite the Murchie Bros.' new barn.

Among the names of the attorneys who were admitted to the bar at Salem yesterday we notice the name of Fred W. Wilson, formerly editor of this paper.

Frazer's barber shop is soon to be moved to Peterson's old stand, across the street from THE CHRONICLE office. The building is now being fitted up for it.

All citizens supporting McKinley and Hobart are cordially invited to meet at McKinley headquarters at 7:30 sharp Saturday evening, October 10, and fall in line.

Saturday will be a great day at the Portland exposition for the Germans. It is Gesang Verein day, and a large delegation from The Dalles proposes to attend.

At the term of circuit court at Moro McIlwaine was found guilty of forgery, having raised a note from $4 to $14, and sentenced to two years. The trial of Frank Watkins was continued.

There will be a distribution of McKinley and Hobart uniforms at headquarters on tomorrow evening, October 9th, at 8 o'clock. All parties interested in the uniform work will please be on hand.

The McKinley Glee Club are practicing on some very catchy musical selections, which they will render soon. Mr. Thos Lynch has been engaged to sing the solos, and all will join in on the chorus.

A straw vote was taken on the Regulator yesterday, resulting as follows: McKinley 20; Bryan 12; Levering 1. A poll of the ladies resulted McKinley 5; Bryan 1, which proves that the fair sex are at least five-sixths right.

Mr. J. B. Golt returned last evening from Portland. He attended the recent fire there, and says the firemen made a very poor fight. He got up and dressed upon hearing the alarm, and then got there several minutes in advance of any of the firemen. He says it was 25 minutes after the alarm before a stream of water was directed toward the blaze.

The county judge has taken steps to repair the road between The Dalles and Floyd's. The road is in a very bad condition, deep ruts in places being partially filled with a light dust, which makes it treacherous for teamsters.

The streets of Jerusalem were kept clean by each resident being careful of his own dooryard, but that policy does not seem to be followed in The Dalles, judging from the rubbish that blows around on windy days like the present.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church will serve a hot dinner and supper on election day down town. They will have part of the tables decorated with free silver and the others with solid gold. Everybody come; you can be suited.

The venerable Geo. H. Williams, who has received the highest political honors of any man in Oregon, having been attorney-general in Gen'l Grant's cabinet, will make the speech of the campaign at the Vogt opera house Saturday evening. Great preparations are being made by the McKinley club to welcome him.

At the home of Will Michelbach last night a farewell party was given to Leo Newman, who leaves today for Portland. The Michelbach home is large and well adapted as a place for entertaining, as was proven last night, for the boys and girls all report one of the best times they have ever had. They played games, danced, etc., and did justice to a fine lunch as well. At some time during the "early" hours they bade Leo good bye, and might have been seen wending their way over Mill creek somewhat more slowly than when they went out.

The Dalles Provided For.

THE CHRONICLE was led into error, in stating that no Republican public speakers had had been arranged for The Dalles, through reading the announcements in the Oregonian, in which The Dalles was in each instance left out. As a matter of fact we have our full share, and through the efforts of the local campaign committee of Wasco county, the following speakers and dates have been arranged for already:

- Gen. Geo. H. Williams of Portland October 10, 7:30 p. m.
- Hon. F. X. Schoonmaker, Oct. 20, 7:30 p. m. (Mr. Schoonmaker is one of New Jersey's greatest Republicans and will deliver but three speeches in the state).
- Hon. Rufus Mallory and Hon. Binger Hermann have been engaged upon dates to be announced later.
- Judge L. R. Webster's itinerary in Wasco county is as follows: Tygh, Oct. 8 at 2 p. m.; Wamic 7:30 p. m.; Wapinitia, Oct. 9, 7:30 p. m.; Boyd, Saturday, 7:30 p. m.
- Hon. J. W. Quay at Antelope, Monday, Oct. 12th, at 2 p. m.
- Rev. I. D. Driver at Cascade Locks, Saturday, Oct. 17th.
- Hons. T. T. Geer, J. W. Ivey and E. L. Smith will also make speeches in the county, dates and places to be arranged later.

Christian Endeavor Convention.

Our correspondent furnishes us the following report of the Christian Endeavor convention, which has just been held at Dufur:

Owing to various circumstances but two delegates arrived on the noon train Tuesday. They were met by The Dalles reception committee and escorted to the Christian church, where a bountiful lunch was prepared for all the delegates.

Shortly after 1 o'clock Tom Ward's firm grip tightened on the reins of the six horses which drew the wagonette "and away we went." There were eleven delegates in the conveyance. Tom landed us safely at the U. B. church in Dufur a little after 4 o'clock, where the Dufur reception and entertainment committee were ready to receive us and gave us a hearty welcome. They assigned us places in the homes of the good people of Dufur.

EVENING SERVICE.

Promptly at 7:30 the president, A. G. Hoering, announced that the time had come for commencing the meeting and announced the opening hymn. After a short song service, led by the Dufur choir, and in which all joined, the choir sang an anthem entitled "Crown Him Lord of All." At this point E. H. Merrill was appointed secretary pro tem, as the secretary, Miss Etta Story, could not be present.

The address of welcome by E. O. Underwood was very hearty and all felt what it meant to be in the Christian Endeavor work. It was responded to by Curtis Egbert in a hearty manner and in which all were united into one Union Endeavor society.

The president appointed the following committees:

Nominations—Rev. J. L. Hershner of Hood River, George Ernest Stewart, The Dalles, James Powell, Dufur. Resolutions—E. H. Merrill, The Dalles, Rev. J. W. Jenkins, The Dalles, Ervino Underwood, Dufur.

Credentials—Joseph O'Brien, Mary Underwood, George Powell, all of Dufur. Mrs. Edward Hinman's solo was very highly appreciated by the audience.

Mr. J. L. Hershner, of Hood River, delivered the address of the evening on the subject of "Missionary Work." It was very helpful and interesting and was well received.

The evening session closed with the usual C. E. benediction.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Endeavorers are not sleepy heads and those who were on the watch could have seen about twenty-five young people gathering at the U. B. church at the early hour of 7 o'clock, where they had a very enthusiastic prayer and praise service, led by Miss Anna Powell.

9:50—A devotional service, led by Miss Edith Underhill, was well attended. President Hoering gave many valuable suggestions and many good thoughts in his address and thanked the Endeavorers for the honor conferred upon him.

The secretary, Miss Etta Story, not being present, her report was read by E. H. Merrill. It showed that there are eleven societies in the county. The treasurer's report was also read by the secretary pro tem and showed $27.05 receipts and $19.85 disbursements for the last year, leaving a balance of $7.20 in the treasury.

The conferences were led by E. H. Merrill, and in truth became conferences, as many entered into the discussion, and all seemed interested. Thirty persons have now signed the roll of delegates.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

The praise service was led by Curtis Egbert, which was enjoyed by all. E. H. Merrill was relieved from serving on the committee of resolutions and Mrs. E. W. Tront officiated in his place. Mr. G. E. Stewart's address on Christian Endeavor and Christian unity was very helpful and instructive. He dwelt with much force upon unity and its value in Christian work, and said there could be no real success without it and no victories could be gained over sin without a united effort.

The question box brought out some historic facts about Christian Endeavor work.

BUSINESS HOUR.

Reading of minutes of last convention. Then reports of societies showed many things to encourage and some to discourage.

The committee on nominations reported the names of the following persons for the consideration of the convention. E. H. Merrill, president; Joseph O'Brien, vice-president; Mrs. C. E. Bayard, secretary; Miss Margarette Shelley, treasurer.

The convention adopted the report and the persons named were declared duly elected.

The committee on credentials reported a total of thirty-two names as delegates attending the convention.

Appropriate resolutions of thanks and valuable suggestions were offered by the committee on resolutions.

Junior hour was led by Mrs. Eruby, and the juniors of Dufur favored the convention with songs and recitations. It was a pleasant session.

EVENING.

The devotional service was led by George Howlet.
