

OVERWORK —INDUCED— Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health. A fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatigued too, if I had not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say enough. —H. O. HIXSON, Postmaster, Plaster, Kansas, U.S.A.

Doom of the Theater Hat.

Alfred Bouvier, the manager of the Baldwin theater, San Francisco, thinks he has solved the feminine headgear problem and that diplomacy in such dilemmas as his will prove better than force. The plan he has devised for persuading the ladies to remove their hats consists of the following protest, which, engraved on a card, will be presented on a silver salver to the woman who wears a high hat to the play in the future:
"The management sincerely regrets any personal annoyance this may cause you, but must respectfully request that you remove your hat, as complaints have been lodged that it interferes with the comfort and enjoyment to which those seated back of you are entitled. (Signed) The Baldwin, San Francisco."

Big Failure in Albany.

The Albany Woolen Mills have been crushed by indebtedness. A dispatch says: A receiver was appointed for the Albany Woolen Mills yesterday, upon complaint in Judge Hewitt's court. The plaintiff's are J. M. Moyer L. D. Cole, E. D. Moyer and Mrs. F. F. Craft, the owners of ninety-six shares of the stock in the Albany Woolen Mills Co., of the value of $48,000, and constitute the whole board of directors. The indebtedness of the mill is given at $120,000, and the value of the entire property, embracing the goods, notes, accounts, etc., at $140,000.

The complaint states that, owing to the scarcity of money and the great depreciation in the market value of properties, the defendant has not been able to secure funds to meet the indebtedness of the company, that a large amount of goods is in process of manufacture, therefore the appointment of a receiver of the property is asked for. L. Finn was appointed receiver.

The present action was precipitated by the attachment of the property of J. M. Moyer & Co., of Portland, for $8,000, by the Eastern firm of Loewenstein & Co. of Chicago.

Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live.
