AFTER LIVELY FIRING

Horsethieves Captured by Wallowa County Officers.

ONE OF FORMER SHOT IN THE HEAD

Druggist in Enterprise, Or., Attacked by a Woman With an Umbrella, and Shot by a Lawyer.

LA GRANDE, Oct. 8.—Particulars of a battle between horsethieves and deputy sheriffs in Wallowa county, were received by telephone from Enterprise today.

A few days ago two men, George and Henry Smith, passed through the Inunaha with a band of horses, supposed to have been stolen, and camped on Carrall creek. A day or so afterward a warrant was issued for their arrest. It was feared they would resist, and five men were sent out to bring them in. The camp was easily located, and Henry Smith was found in it and captured by strategy. Four officers went to camp, leaving a fifth in charge of the horses. The officers carried no arms in sight, and the horsethief did not suspect them, so that when they asked to see his pistol, he passed it over for inspection. The pistol was then turned on him, and he was compelled to hold up his hands. He was then taken away from the camp and left in charge of an officer.

Two of the officers started out to find the other brother, and one was left to watch the camp. George Smith returned to the camp and "got the drop" on the officer, and held him up. He suspected that something was wrong, and proceeded to march the officer up the trail. After proceeding a short distance, he met the two officers who were looking for him. The officers opened fire, which was returned by Smith, but none of the shots took effect. The officers then took refuge behind trees, and Smith fired four shots at them, three of which hit the trees. The deputy that Smith had a prisoner, fell to the ground as soon as the firing began, to escape the stray bullets.

The shooting cooled the ardor of the officers somewhat, and they turned their efforts toward keeping the trees between themselves and the horsethief. While the horsethief was trying to get another shot at the men behind the trees, the officer that had been left with the horses came up and shot the horsethief in the head with a shotgun. He had heard the firing and came up just in time to relieve his brother officers from an unpleasant position.

IVANHOE TO THE RESCUE.

Saw a Man and Woman Struggling, and Shot the Man.

LA GRANDE, Oct. 8.—At Enterprise, in Wallowa county, today, F. S. Ivanhoe shot and seriously wounded R. C. Gregg. Mr. Ivanhoe is a well-known attorney, and Mr. Gregg is a druggist. The report received by telephone says that Mrs. J. W. Dalzell and Gregg were having trouble over Mrs. Dalzell's son, and Mrs. Dalzell had assaulted Gregg with an umbrella. In attempting to disarm her, Gregg broke the umbrella, and a scuffle resulted. Mrs. Dalzell continued the assault, and, in protecting himself, Gregg used considerable force. Just at that time Ivanhoe appeared, and, seeing, as he supposed, a man assaulting a woman, took a shot at the man. The first time he missed, but the second shot struck Gregg in the leg, inflicting a severe wound. The bullet was recovered by physicians this afternoon. Unless blood-poisoning sets in, no serious results are apprehended.

THEIR HOPES SHATTERED.

Two Old Prospectors Find a Quicksilver Mine.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 8.—For a short time yesterday Christian Soll and John P. Green, two old prospectors, believed they said good-bye to poverty and had jumped into riches that clouded the fame of Monte Cristo from view. They were the possessors, they were confident, by means of filing a mine claim on a portion of the ocean shore near the Cliff house, of the richest quicksilver mine in the world. A moderate estimate of its value they thought would reach $10,000,000, and, as the ledge was on property owned by Adolph Sutro, as they thought, they believed they could acquire it under the mining law.

The dream was short-lived. They had scarcely left the city hall, after filing their mineral notice, when they learned that they had located on a piece on the Presidio, instead of the possessions of mayor. With this knowledge away went skimming dreams of untold wealth, for title to military reservations is beyond the reach of the caveat of the law regarding mining claims.

But even in the face of the disheartening turn of fortune, Green and Soll still hope, although an inscrutable and immutable hand had banished them like Adam from their Eden. They hope that the government will allow them to develop as much of their claim as lies between the lines of high and low tide, for even with this morcel from the feast they think they can acquire wealth enough for all practical purposes.

DU MAURIER IS DEAD.

Author of "Trilby" Passes Away in London.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—George Du Maurier, artist, novelist, author of "Trilby," died at 2:30 o'clock this morning. His end was painless. He passed away surrounded by his friends. For days he has been hovering between life and death, at intervals conversing with friends regarding his work.

Upon one occasion a friend at the dying man's bedside referred to the success of "Trilby" as a book and a play, whereupon Du Maurier replied: "Yes, it has been successful, but popularity has killed me at last."

One of Du Maurier's friends who was present at his death said:

"He died almost as tragically as Svengali. At the zenith of Trilby's fame Svengali became the victim of an affection of the heart. Du Maurier has gone the same way. At the zenith of his popularity the author has succumbed to heart trouble from which he has always suffered, his suffering being accentuated by a constant succession of exciting incidents in which the closing few months of his life were spent. Checks rained in upon him as his old heart trouble increased. This, complicated by an affection of the lungs, took him off."

"Coin" Denies It.

KEOKUK, Ia., Oct. 8.—Regarding the alleged treatment of W. H. Harvey ("Coin") by an audience at Clinton, Ia., Harvey has furnished the following statement:

"There is not one word of truth in the printed report that the audience or any part of it treated me disrespectfully, or took umbrage at what I said at Clinton. The report is made out of whole cloth, and has not a word of truth for its basis."

NICHOLAS IS VENTURESOME.

He Wanted to Explore the French Capital Incognito.

VIENNA, Oct. 8.—It is rumored here that the czar will attend the wedding of the Prince of Naples and Princess Helene of Montenegro October 24th.

A dispatch from Paris says that the czar asked the prefect of police there whether he might not venture to explore Paris incognito. The prefect said that it would be so unsafe that if his majesty insisted he would feel it his duty to resign.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
