SPEAKER CRISP DEAD

Passed Away This Afternoon at Atlanta.

HIS DEATH HAD BEEN EXPECTED

Illness Which Carried Him Off Dates From Last Spring—Sketch of His Political Life.

ATLANTA, Oct. 23.—Charles F. Crisp, ex-speaker of the house of representatives, died here this afternoon.

WASHINGTON, 23.—Speaker Crisp's death was not altogether a surprise in political circles, as it has been known for some months that he had not long to live and never again could be an active figure in public affairs. The speaker had several spells of illness in Washington. He suffered from asthma and later from heart trouble. His ill health, however, did not become a matter of public notoriety until the past spring, when he was compelled to abandon a series of joint debates arranged with ex-Secretary Hoke Smith by reason of the advice of his physician that it would imperil his life for him to continue the debate, which had attracted great interest, as it involved the position of the Democratic party of the state on the silver question and the senatorship of Georgia for which the ex-speaker was an active candidate. The silver men won the fight, and Crisp, had he lived, would have been the next senator from Georgia.

He was a forceful speaker, a man of great tact and possessed of qualities that fitted him for leadership in parliamentary assemblies. His first prominence in national affairs came from the skill with which he led his party in several warm election contests. He was elected to the speakership after one of the most memorable canvasses in the history of the house. His chief opponent was Senator Roger Q. Mills, of Texas, whom he defeated after a struggle prolonged so that the house of representatives, contrary to custom, assembled on the opening day with the question of the next speaker in doubt.

The end came at a quarter to two o'clock. Crisp had been an inmate of the sanitarium of Dr. Holmes, in this city, for several weeks. His condition had been reported as very low, but no fatal conclusion of his illness had been expected so soon. When the rumor got abroad several days ago that he was sinking, it was denied at the sanitarium. His untimely death makes the choice of senator a matter of great uncertainty. Whoever is named will be an advocate of free silver.

Crisp had been in the sanitarium for five weeks, suffering from malarial fever. The immediate cause of his death was heart failure.

SILVERITES MUST MARCH.

Chicago's Chief of Police Sustained by the Court.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Judge Tulley today refused to issue an injunction restraining Chief of Police Badnoch from interfering with the free silver parade on the night of Saturday, October 31. He held that the court had no jurisdiction, the right to allow the parade being vested in the chief of police. When the Democratic county committee applied for permission to have a parade in the downtown streets that evening, Chief Badnoch refused on the ground that permission had already been granted the Republicans for that evening. After futile attempts at compromise with the Republican leaders, the matter was taken into court.

The Democratic leaders stated in open

No one would drink poor tea if he or she knew the difference in tea.

Good tea is not costly.

Your grocer will sell you Schilling's Best, and return your money in full if you don't like it.

court today that they will fight the police force or any one else who attempts to stop their marching in the parade on the night of October 31. Chief Badnoch, on the other hand, declares it would endanger the peace of the city to have two opposing political factions marching on the streets at the same time, and says the Democrats will not be allowed to parade.

THEY REFUSE TO FUSE.

Georgia Populists Retaliate Upon the Democrats.

ATLANTA, Oct. 23.—It is learned here, on what is believed to be unimpeachable authority, that fusion was agreed upon yesterday between Senator Jones and Populist Committeeman Washburn. As a result Washburn left Chicago for Nashville, and H. W. Reed left Atlanta last night for the same place, where they will meet Tom Watson.

Democratic National Chairman Jones wired his representative here in substance as follows yesterday:

"We must accede to the demands of the Populists for fusion in Georgia."

The reply in substance was:

"Populists of Georgia don't want fusion; they demand surrender."

To this Jones responded: "If those are the facts use your own judgment."

It appears from this that a general plan of fusion satisfactory to the Populists has been agreed upon between Washburn and Jones, and Georgia alone stands in the way of its consummation.

Mr. Thos. Fifty cents and $1.00 at Blakeley and Houghton's Drug Store.

$100 Reward $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address:

NOTES ON DRESS.

Fetching Designs That the Early Autumn Has Revealed.

All the latest frocks have medium-sized if not actually narrow sleeves. This is now a well-recognized fact, the arm being covered with a tight-fitting smooth or wrinkled sleeve, with a very short puff or drapery arranged at the very top.

It seems to be conceded that this season any style whatever may be worn—Louise XV., Henry IV., Marie Antoinette, 1830; in fact, anything that suits the style and taste of the wearer. For this reason, doubtless, there seems to be no very marked change in the autumn gowns. Nevertheless, one cannot be too sure, as the dressmakers are apt to reserve their surprises until later; and it is never safe to order gowns until some decided fashionable function, like the Horse Show, for instance, has shown the tendency of the season. There are certain indications, however, that may be followed by those who desire to have a new but not too expensive costume for the semi-season. Nearly all the street costumes are made with a jacket, either real or simulated, for where a tight-fitting waist is preferred, basques are frequently sewed on to the bodice, the joining being covered with the belt.

Corsets, too, are in great favor, and the bolero jacket seems to have taken a new lease of popularity, and, combined with the corset or high-draped belt, will be much worn this season.

A very pretty green foulard covered with strange hieroglyphics in white, which are now so popular, is made with a bolero slightly gathered at the neck, but otherwise fitting smoothly over the bust and back. This is cut very open and short, to show a draped belt of dark red satin, hooked together in front, with a couple of tiny ruffles of embroidered red chiffon edging to match. This at the top of the corset-belt turns back on either side and edges a jabot of red chiffon, which is gathered full, and so graduated that the embroidered edge forms diamond-shaped graduated squares to the neck, this arrangement filling the entire space left open by the bolero jacket. The sleeves are long and tight fitting, with a very short, full puff at the top, over which is gathered a drapery of the silk lined with red silk to match the chiffon front. The skirt is plain, lined with red taffeta, and finished at the bottom with a couple of tiny ruffles, also lined with red.—St. Louis Republic.
