HONEST CITIZENSHIP.

No man can afford to and no true citizen should desire to vote other than his true sentiment on the third of next month. The question of states rights, advocated in the Democratic platform, the proposed unlimited coinage of silver under circumstances which the thinking men in Bryan's own party admit will drive gold to a premium, and therefore out of circulation, are matters too serious to be trifled with. The most careful estimates indicate that Bryan will be badly defeated, and if party selfishness, the basest of motives, could excuse a voter in voting contrary to his conscientious convictions, there is therefore nought to be gained by so voting this year.

In Oregon, as in many states, the effort to force a large body to vote contrary to their conviction, is now made. Outside of the free coinage of silver, the policies of the Democratic and Populist parties are, and always have been, directly in conflict. But the Populist voter of Oregon can vote his sentiments only by voting against government control of the telegraph, railroads and other ideas fundamental to Populism. Every silver Democrat in order to vote his sentiments, must vote for a Populist for vice-president; in other words, fusion between parties so widely differing is indefensible upon any grounds.

Mr. Watson has discovered the true situation and does not hesitate to denounce the whole scheme as a plan to make a foot mat of the Populists to assist the Democratic office-seekers to the pie counter. It is useless for Senator Butler and others like him, who are hungry for official pap, to appeal to the Populists to stand by Bryan. Honest Populists cannot and will not thus be sold and traded for. Fusion seldom succeeds; it ought not to succeed, and it will not now. It is directly contrary to every principle of honest citizenship.

There is no Democratic ticket; there is no Populist ticket, so far as Bryan is concerned.

Brother Bryan quotes scripture as readily as the tempter of the Savior of mankind, but he has overlooked one or two passages: "He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase. This is also vanity."—Ecc. v:10. "Thy silver is become dross; thy wine mixed with water."—Isaiah i:25. On November 3d the people will say: "Receive my instruction and not silver."—Prov. viii: 10. "Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the Lord hath rejected them."—Jer. vi:20.

Our Populist friends never know when to cease misrepresenting. Mr. U'ren, on Saturday evening, declared that the three Lincoln electors in this state are all for Bryan. The electors referred to were T. J. Dryer, W. H. Watkins and B. J. Pengra. The two former are long dead. Whether Mr. Pengra is living or not we are not sure; but it is not at all likely that any portion of the statement is true. It is certainly false as to two, unless our Popocratic friend has some intercourse with the other world.

Shall the federal government be supreme, or shall the entire business of this great government be left to the whim of every mob which, by reason of weak or disloyal state governments, may undertake to dictate to the United States? This question is to be settled by this election. Upon which side are the men who stood by the government in 1861?

Hon. W. R. Ellis last evening filled all expectations and presented the political questions with force. If efficient discussion of political questions, and clear argument can lead men to vote right, the majority for McKinley in The Dalles ought to be very large.

In 1865 Penoyer cheered the assassination of Lincoln; today he is telling the people what a great man Lincoln was, and thus seeking to influence the American people to vote for Bryan. The American people can forgive, but they do not forget.

BRIGGS' MULE HAS MYOPIA.

Some Queer Mistakes He Makes Around His Master's Barnyard. Stories have been told of horses with snakes in their eyes and horses with "watch eyes," or an evil eye, a blind eye, and a vast amount of information has been printed about pink eye, but it is doubtful if any authentic history has been written of the peculiarities of the animal owned by Col. Haydock Briggs, of New Jersey, whose banyan whiskers were recently described and illustrated. It is afflicted with myopia or near-sightedness.

"I reckon that the reason for it," said Col. Briggs, "is that my horse is a mowl. Can't see a fence till he gets his nose within three foot of it, and then he shies. Mistakes the pig pen for the barn an' tries to git in with the hogs. Stumbles over the pasture fence and stubs his nose, which makes him kick. Drinks out of the milk pail 'cause he thinks it's water, and gen'ly makes an all-round mowl fool of hisself."

"Leastwise," added Col. Briggs, "that was the situation up to three months ago, when an idee strikes me, wch I mentions to Maria—that's Mrs. Briggs. 'Ef you need glasses to read the newspapers,' says I to Maria, 'that mowl needs glasses to see whether he's eatin' oats or snowdust, and I got him fitted, an' he's got to like 'em so he won't stira peg without 'em.'"

Col. Briggs' spectacled mule is the wonder of all that section of New Jersey around Scuttleville. The lenses are octagonal in shape and are in heavy leather frames, which are strapped to the side straps of the bridle. They are so adjusted that the animal gets a perfect vision while looking ahead or sideways. When first put on they opened up such an unexpected vista that the mule backed into a well and had to be hauled out with a derrick. But as soon as he got accustomed to them he brayed loud and long every time they were taken off.

"People kin laugh," said Col. Briggs, "but I don't keer. 'Ef I had a near-sighted oyster and wanted to put spees on him I'd do it, an' let 'em laugh 'till they busted.'"—N. Y. Mail and Express.
