HE TALKED TOO MUCH

Bismarck Divulged State Secrets.

DUE TO JEALOUSY OF CAPRIVI

His Article in the Hamburger Nachrichten Brings Forth a Rebuke From the Official Press.

BERLIN, Oct. 28.—Public opinion generally in Germany condemns Prince Bismarck's revelations in the Hamburger Nachrichten, regarding the alliance between Russia and Germany, which existed during the last years of his chancellorship, and allusions are made to his "discreet loquacity, which is gradually tarnishing his glorious reputation."

There is little doubt that the prince has divulged important state secrets in his attempt to triumph over his successor, General Count von Caprivi, and the official communication in the Reichsanzeiger yesterday, cabled exclusively to the Associated Press, indirectly admits the truth of the article in the Nachrichten, and sharply rebukes Prince Bismarck by saying:

"Diplomatic events of this kind are strict state secrets, and to preserve them conscientiously is an international duty, a breach of which would prejudice important state matters. The imperial government must therefore decline any attempt to clear up the matter, and it will neither deny what is false nor supply what is incomplete.

THINKS SPAIN WILL WIN.

General Weyler Is Confident of Success in Cuba.

HAYANA, Oct. 28.—In an interview General Weyler was asked last night: "What do you think about the prospects of putting down the insurrection in the province of Pinar del Rio?"

The general replied that he thought the chances were excellent for the complete success of the Spanish arms in the province. He had been of this opinion for some time, he said, and the recent victories of General Munoz at Cacarajaca, and of General Arolas at Artemisa, had only confirmed him in his belief of freeing the province of all insurgents.

"Is it a fact that you have decided to take the field in person, General Weyler?" asked the correspondent.

"There is nothing absolutely decided on that subject. I am in telegraphic connection with my generals everywhere and can direct the movements of all my forces. Here I can follow the course of events, both civil, political and military. I have so far believed that my best work could be done here. Here I can better direct operations; here I have in my hands the control of telegraphs, railroads and steamships. Once in the field my scope would be limited to that of a commander of an army corps.

SITUATION IN INDIA.

Outlook for a Famine Is on the Increase.

SIMLA, Oct. 28.—The famine outlook in India is increasing in gloominess. It is not probable now that rain will fall and prospects are serious in the north-west and central provinces in the Punjab. The scarcity is extending to Behar. At Bombay prices have risen heavily. Large imports of foreign grain are expected. About thirty lakhs of rupees have already been given from the imperial revenues for advance seeds, etc., and relief work in the north-west and central provinces, the Punjab,

OHIO IS SAFE.

The State Will Give McKinley an Immense Majority.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 28.—Hon. C. L. Kurtz, chairman of the Ohio Republican executive committee has sent the following telegram to M. A. Hanna at Chicago:

"COLUMBUS, Oct. 27.—Hon. M. A. Hanna, Chairman Republican National Committee, Chicago: Ohio will give McKinley a larger majority than she ever gave to a leading candidate on the state or national ticket, with the possible exception of that given to Brough for governor in 1863. C. L. Kurtz, chairman."

This is the first prediction which Chairman Kurtz has made concerning the election in Ohio. Numerous statements have been attributed to him, but none of them have been authentic. The magnitude of the vote claimed by Mr. Kurtz can best be understood when it is stated that two years ago Hon. S. M. Taylor, Republican candidate for secretary of state, received a majority of 64,000, his plurality being 137,000. Brough's majority for governor in 1863 was 100,882. Mr. Kurtz says he does not care to give any figures at this time, but may do so before the election. It is figured that the vote in the rural precincts will stand about the same as last year, the cities and towns rolling up the big majorities for McKinley.

REPUDIATION AND DISHONOR.

A Part of One of Henry Ward Beecher's Best Sermons.

During the fiat money and unlimited paper currency excitement of 1877 Mr. Beecher delivered a famous sermon on Thanksgiving of that year on the perils of the day. In it he used this language: "Whenever in any nation there is such an attempt to tamper with standards that the moral sense of man is bewildered and liberty is given to unprincipled men at large to cheat, to be unfaithful to obligations, to refuse the payment of honest debts—whenever that takes place, it is all the worse if done with the permission of the law. I hate the devil riding on a law worse than I do the devil riding without a law under him. Whoever tampers with established standards tampers with the very marrow and vitality of public faith.  The danger into which we are running is hidden under the mystery of finance and the currency. All money is but a representative of property. As now, by facility of intercourse, all the world is one open market, the need of one and the same standard of money, uniform, universal and unalterable, becomes imperious."

"Gold is the world's standard. Gold is the universal measure of value. Other kinds of money there are—silver, copper, paper—but they all must conform to gold and be measured by it and be interchangeable with it, in fixed and definite proportions. Gold is king in commerce. All other money must represent gold. No vote of legislature can change the nature of commerce, the nature of property, the nature of its representative in money or the relative superiority or inferiority of different currencies. Gold came to its supremacy as a representative of property by the long established consent of mankind. Congress cannot change it for the world, nor even for this nation, except upon past transactions. It may give impunity to men to cheat confiding creditors, but it cannot rule the value of currency in all future transactions.

"The crime of paying a debt in a currency inferior in value to that in which it was contracted, base at all times and anywhere, has a deeper guilt and a baser infamy in our case. When in our mortal struggle capitalists were solicited to lend their money to us on the faith of the nation, we were too glad, most grateful, for their aid. Then they were not grasping and swollen usurers. Oh, no! They were benefactors. We rejoiced in their bounty and gave thanks for their confiding faith in our national honesty. Now, our dangers past, we revile them, finding no epithets too violent, and strive to pay them, not gold for the gold they lent our misery, but in a dishonest measure of an inferior metal.

"In the court of the commercial world's conscience we shall be convicted of endeavoring to cheat the men who came to our rescue in the dark day. This congress would not have existed nor any government of the United States but for the strength given to our armies by foreign capitalists, and now to return their aid by a base treachery is to deserve an infamy as deep as the lowest depths of hell. But woe to those men, bull headed, without eyes, who are attempting to undermine the integrity and simplicity of the nation."

An Unworthy Citizen.

Silverite Orator—What we want is more money.

Skeptic—Would free coinage make more money?

S. O.—Certainly. It would give us both gold and silver.

S.—But wouldn't free coinage at 16 to 1 drive gold out of circulation, in accordance with the Gresham law?

S. O.—My friend, Mr. Bryan proposes to repeal any law that is working in the interest of the goldbugs and Shylocks.

S.—But the Gresham law is a natural law, like the law of gravitation.

S. O.—My friend, you are a pessimist and don't know that you are a citizen of the grandest country on earth—one that can "without the aid or consent of any other nation" repeal even the law of gravitation itself if it should become a tool of Wall street. Shame on you! You don't belong to this country. As I was saying—
