BRYAN ROWDYISM

Generals Palmer and Buckner Grossly Insulted.

DERIDED BY POPOCRATIC THUGS

General Buckner's Stinging Reply to the Brutal Taunts--Bryan Tours the Badger State.

PARIS, Mo., Oct. 30.—Generals Palmer and Buckner arrived here this morning and were met at the depot by 500 people. As the candidates stood on the rear platform of the car with heads bared some young men pushed up with a big Bryan banner and shoved it under the noses of the generals, at the same time shouting for Bryan. Several efforts of Buckner to speak were interrupted by cries of derision, many in the crowd yelling, "Look at the McKinley Aid Society."

Strung at this last fling, Buckner pointed at the banner and said: "Let me tell you who and what constitutes the McKinley Aid Society. In 1892, on a sound-money platform, we elected Grover Cleveland and last elections in Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky and Ohio were disastrous because you, you shouters, with your heresies, drove the party on to failure and contempt. Hold up that banner. There is the emblem of the McKinley Aid Society. Look at it." The train pulled out before Palmer could speak.

SPAIN'S CUP IS FULL.

Further Trouble Threatens that Luckless Country.

PORTO RICO, Oct. 30.—The cup of woe will certainly be filled to overflowing if, as some suspect is possible, a spark from Cuban campfires blows Porto Riceward and proves sufficient to start the flame of insurrection here.

The government, far from failing to realize the situation, knows full well the inflammable nature of the material with which it is dealing, and carries its precautions almost to the verge of exaggeration. If the people tell the truth, however, there is no likelihood of trouble here, at least while the struggle in Cuba goes on. That bitter contest won by the insurgents, their ends gained, there can be no doubt but that there will be an uprising in Porto Rico, but until that time comes the island is not likely to give Spain any trouble other than may be made by contributions to the cause of Cuba through the junta in New York.

"I never said Bryan would not carry Illinois," said the senator, what I did say was that Bryan would win without carrying that state. We have not given up the hope of carrying Illinois. On the contrary, we fully expect to carry it.

would be the effect on Porto Rico?" "Ah, that's another matter," he said, with a smile. "Very likely in that case Cubans would want to see Porto Rico free, too, and once sure of their assistance, there is no telling what the natives would do."

CRIME OF A MONTANA WOMAN.

Shot at Her Husband and Killed Her Son.

BUTTE, Mont., Oct. 30.—In an attempt to kill her husband, Mrs. J. W. Allen, of Maryville, shot and almost instantly killed her 12-year-old son. She then fired two more shots at her husband, one bullet fracturing his skull and the other breaking his arm. He will probably die.

For some time the wife and husband have not been getting along well, owing to the quarrelsome disposition of the woman, who is believed to be of unsound mind. Before going to work Allen whipped his son, and this so enraged the mother that she picked up a rifle and began shooting at her husband. The first shot missed him and hit the boy in the left side. The two other shots hit the man.

After the shooting Mrs. Allen threw the gun out of the window and rushed out of the house, crying, "Murder!" "Help!" The boy was still alive when the neighbors arrived. He said: "Mother shot me and I will never forgive her," and then expired. The woman was taken to jail.

Jones Denies It.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—Chairman Jones of the Democratic National Committee, was shown the London dispatch today in which he is quoted as having admitted the defeat of Bryan in Illinois.

"I never said Bryan would not carry Illinois," said the senator, what I did say was that Bryan would win without carrying that state. We have not given up the hope of carrying Illinois. On the contrary, we fully expect to carry it.

MRS. P. CREAM.

THE DANGERS OF KISSING.

A Warning to Sweetheart Against Promiscuous Osculation.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 30.—The secretary of the state health board has a case reported from Columbus, where a man persisted in kissing his sweetheart who is alarmingly ill with diphtheria, by which he also contracted the disease. The secretary therefore wants to interdict all kissing, concerning which he says:

"I am convinced of the difficulty the health board will meet in trying to taboo kissing among sweethearts. Although a most dangerous pastime, there seems to be an inherent tendency to indulge in it, and we have little hope of ever being able to do away with it. I may have to recommend a disinfectant. All that will be necessary will be to rinse the teeth well with it and rub it well on the lips. That would insure against the dangers resulting from osculation.

Carlisle's Last Speech.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 30.—The last of Carlisle's five speeches in Kentucky was made here this afternoon to a tremendous and enthusiastic audience at the opera house. Mrs. Carlisle joined the secretary here this morning and they will leave for Washington tonight.

Carlisle said today that this visit to Kentucky only confirmed his previously expressed opinion that Bryan will be badly beaten.
