 Mr. M. P. Isenberg was in the city today and left for Dutch Flat, where he makes a political address this evening.
 Dr. Hollister left this afternoon for Moro, where he was called to consult with Dr. Smith on a difficult case in that vicinity. The doctor will return tonight.
 Hon. W. R. Dunniway left for Hood River this afternoon to supply the place of Hon. Richard Williams, who was billed for 2 o'clock, but who failed to be present.

The City Decorated.

The city is very liberally decorated with American flags and bunting today. Many of the stores and a large share of the residences are adorned with the national colors. Second street throughout its entire length is ablaze with color and presents a patriotic appearance calculated to inspire every Republican heart. There are several displays which are unusually effective.

Pease & Mays' center window presents a beautiful combination of colors and in the window is placed a live sheep. In the back ground are hung cards, upon which are printed the past expressed sentiments upon wool of both presidential candidates. Bryan says: "I am for free wool." McKinley says: "Wool on the free list is a vicious and indefensible blow at the entire agricultural interests of the country."

A. M. Williams & Co. are most profuse with the tri-colors, one of their mammoth show windows being entirely devoted to flags and bunting. The American eagle perches above the handsome lithographs of McKinley and Hobart.

Mays & Crowe also express themselves upon wool. A window is partially filled with this raw material, with the significant motto over it, "Sixteen cents for one pound under protection." A magnificent eagle forms a further adornment.

Marders & Michelbach, in addition to the usual decorations, have placed a live eagle upon a perch in front of the saloon.

Republican headquarters look gay with flags floating high, bunting everywhere, portraits of the candidates and political posters.

Mr. Donnell's drug store contains the flag that was used in the ratification meeting when Grant and Colfax were elected in 1868. It is faded and worn, but the occasion is not too important to raise the old silken banner. Mrs. Donnell was one of a number of ladies who made it in that year.

Saltmarsh exhibits a frayed sheep hide with short wool and an old broom, with a Bryan motto pinned to the hide.

The flags do not exactly indicate the political complexion of those who display them, though the Republicans have been by far the most liberal.

THE CHURCHES.

Services as usual tomorrow at the Christian church, preaching by the pastor, Elder A. D. Skaggs. Subject at 11 a. m.—"If the righteous scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and sinners appear." Subject at 7:30—"The name and its importance."

The Congregational church, corner Court and Fifth streets—Sunday services as follows: At 11 a. m. administration of the Lord's Supper; at 7:30 worship, and a sermon by the pastor, W. O. Curtis. Sunday school immediately after the morning service. Meeting of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at 8:30 p. m. Topic, The blessedness of entire surrender to God; John xv:1-10. All persons not worshipping elsewhere are cordially invited.

It is the same old story and yet constantly recurring that Simmons Liver Regulator is the best family medicine. "We have used it in our family for eight years and find it the best medicine we have used. "We think there is no such medicine as Simmons Liver Regulator."—Mrs. M. E. S. Adlington, Franklin, N. C. Each member of our family uses it as occasion requires."—W. B. Smith, Mt. Vernon, Ky.
