WAYSIDE CLEANINGS.

Random Observations and Local Events of Lesser Magnitude.

French & Co. have had their bank doors handsomely decorated today.

Eleven carloads of sheep were shipped from the Saltmarsh yards last night to Tacoma.

This is the day to settle private accounts. Public ones will be settled tomorrow.

Rev. I. D. Driver filled the pulpit of the Methodist church at last evening's services.

The election booths were placed in position today for the battle of the ballots tomorrow.

County court met this morning and has been busy all day examining into probate matters.

Found—A pair of eyeglasses. Owner can have same by calling at this office and paying for notice.

Judge Bennett spoke at Boyd this afternoon, and will close the Democratic argument at Dufur tonight.

All members of the McKinley Glee club are requested to be on the platform at the Vogt Grand tonight promptly at 8 o'clock.

A lot of flambeaux were received by the McKinley club from Portland last night, and will be used in the parade this evening.

Owing to parties leaving town, an elegant new black walnut sideboard can be purchased at half price by applying at 21, Second street.

The sheep in Pease & Mays window is perhaps the most appropriate of all the decorations on Second street. Lamb and pease always go together.

D. C. Herrin, grand lecturer for the A. O. U. W., arrived home Saturday. He is doing excellent work, and justifying the belief of the members of the order here, that the grand lodge made no mistake in selecting our fellow townsman for the place.

All gold men who desire can get yellow chrysanthemums at the Stubling greenhouse, or by leaving orders for them, at prices from 5 to 15 cents each.

The sturgeon catch this fall has been remarkably good. A fact that is made most particularly apparent at this office, the display being always visible.

The Democrats listened to Mr. Pierce of Umatilla county, and Mr. Harlan of Mosier, at the Baldwin Saturday night. The speakers drew a fairly good house.

The Democrats close their campaign in this city tonight, with an address by Mr. F. Clarno. We understand the brass band from Grass Valley has been engaged for the occasion.

The regular session of the county court, sitting as a board of commissioners begins Wednesday. Bills against the county to be acted on this term, must be filed with the clerk by tomorrow night.

What with flag day, election and the celebration of the opening of the locks at the Cascades the Dalles citizen is having an abundance of hilarity. The decorations now in place will be left until after the celebration.

County Judge Mays desires us to again say that the judges and clerks of election, appointed last January and who served at the June election, were appointed for two years and consequently will act tomorrow.

The Regulator will make her first run to Portland Friday. Thursday the Dalles City will come through and remain here Friday, commencing her regular run Saturday. A boat has been chartered to take the place of the Dalles City on the run to Portland Thursday.

Among the other events of the celebration Thursday, will be a grand barbecue in the evening. The spacious dining room of the Umatilla House will be thrown open to the public and the oxen and the other animals butchered to make a rousing holiday, will be dished up there.

Both the D. P. & A. N. and the O. R. & N. have fixed the round trip fare to the Locks Thursday at $1.50. The rate may seem high, but as both companies donate 50 cents to the committee on celebration for each ticket sold, the rate is not higher than usual, and the fund for celebration will be perceptibly enlarged.

The Democrats are somewhat disappointed today, they having depended on hearing Hon. H. L. Barclay tonight. When the local pulled in Barclay failed to show up, and in his place came Mr. Frank Clarno. It doesn't really make any difference, for Wasco will give a handsome Republican majority anyhow, so the Democracy loses nothing.

When on Saturday Mr. Brown was completing arrangements for climbing the flag pole at the corner of Second and Court streets, a large crowd gathered to watch the proceedings. Frank

Egan remarked to a bystander, "That's another of them Mark Hanna schemes." "How so," said the person addressed. "Why the dickens didn't they send up a Republican instead of hiring Brown," replied Egan, as he watched that gentleman go up the pole. "The first thing you know Bryan will lose a vote."

The Bryanites claim that Wasco county will give only a very small majority for McKinley, some of them even going so far as to insist that Bryan will carry it. Conservative Republicans fix the majority for McKinley between 300 and 500, but incline more to the first named figures. That the majority will not be less than that is beyond question.

The school board has decided that school will be kept Thursday as usual. In reaching this conclusion the board reasoned that the celebration would not begin here until after school hours, and that but few parents would care to take their children to the Cascades. However should any parents desire to take their children to the Locks, no objections will be raised.

Bets on the election are not numerous, caused largely by lack of faith in Bryan supporters or else lack of Bryan money, as the odds offered on McKinley are on an average three to one. The other side has a good chance to gather in abundant shekels from the gold bugs. Truly the election betting business is stagnant like all other business from the lack of confidence.

Workmen are busy putting up a grand arch across Court street, at the D. P. & A. N. office. This will be, when completed, a very handsome decoration. By Thursday afternoon the city, already gay with bunting, will be in full holiday attire, ready to greet her visitors and to rejoice with them in the completion of the great work at the Cascades. Quite a number of boats from the lower river will be here, two at least coming from Astoria.

The Final Rally.

The Republican parade this evening (weather permitting) will be the greatest event of the kind ever witnessed in The Dalles. The parade will form at Republican headquarters on Second street at 7:30, march west to Liberty, south on Liberty to Fourth, east on Fourth to Laughlin, north on Laughlin to Third, east on Third to Monroe, north on Monroe to Second, west on Second to Federal, south on Federal to Third, west on Third to Vogt opera house. The parade will consist in part of the McKinley club in uniforms, Flambeau club, Ladies Auxiliary club, McKinley Cavalry club and last and most numerous, McKinley voters. At the Vogt the meeting will be addressed by Hon. Rufus Mallory, one of Oregon's most noted orators, and Hon. E. L. Smith, one of Wasco county's most distinguished citizens, and one of the presidential electors. It is perhaps unnecessary to add, from the well established reputation of both of these gentlemen, that the speaking tonight will be up to the high standard set by Senator

Mitchell, Congressman Schoonmaker, Hermann and others.

SILVER AND GOLD.

Come eat an election dinner; Come with silver or with gold, In amount so small. Many doubting sheep (tration). Need bend not beneath the load.

SILVER.

Dear Bryanites, we have for you Good things to eat and friendship, too. The bill of fare is worthy of All men who do their country love. In short, we will present to you The following home-cooked menu:

Chicken tender, sweet and nice; Roast beef juicy in chunk or slice; Ham that boiled and sugar-cured, And tongue that has to silver lured Many doubting sheep (tration). Salt-rising bread, like morning sun; Coffee strong, with coffee bun; Delicious tea, the cup that cheers, And pumpkin pie up to your ears. Other things we'll also serve. Just ask the girls; just use your nerve.

GOLD.

To McKinleyites we have to say, You are sincere and think the way To save your country from decay. Must vote for Mac without delay Brave hearts to win must be encased In bodies strong, with ill erased. For this effect then you must call. And eat a meal at our church hall.

We'll have chicken, rich as gold; Boiled ham, sweet as ever sold; Roast beef well done; roast beef rare; Tongue of logic that speaks with care; Salt-rising bread, delicious kind; Vege ables without the rind. For drink, coffee, tea or milk; Pumpkin pie, as smooth as silk. Other things we'll also serve. Just ask the girls; just use your nerve.

Election dinner served by the ladies of the Christian church Nov. 3, 1896, at the store formerly occupied W. A. Johnson, Washington street, from 12 m. to 8 p. m. Price 25 cents. Everything palatable; everything home cooked.

To the Locks Thursday.

A special train will leave The Dalles Thursday morning about 10 o'clock for Bonneville. From this point passengers will be given the option of returning to The Dalles by train, or coming up through the locks on the O. R. & N. Co.'s boats. Fare for the round trip $1.50.

Opening of Cascade Locks, Nov. 5th.

Tickets are now on sale at the Regulator office. A limited number only will be sold. Round trip tickets $1.50. The Regulator will leave The Dalles Thursday at 9:30 a. m.
