DETAILS OF THE CELEBRATION

Lord or some other of Oregon's leading citizens would be present to respond, but they were not here, for reasons best known to themselves.

Fortunately Mr. N. B. Brooks, one of Goldendale's brightest attorneys, was on the stage, and though the task was unexpected, when called upon by Mayor Menefee he made such a response that those who had the pleasure of hearing him, were glad that Oregon's greatest, were not there.

At the close of Mr. Brooks' remarks, Gov. Moody gave a brief history of the locks from her inception, and then the vast crowd adjourned to the Umatilla House to partake of the more solid refreshments. Arrangements for seating 300 at the tables had been made, and though the chairs had been filled and emptied three times, yet there were other hundreds to be fed.

At the Baldwin, in the meanwhile, the grand ball was in progress, and only as the morning dawned did the crowd disperse.

Thus passed the celebration of the opening of the locks, and that within a few years we may be again called upon to celebrate the removal of obstructions to navigation above this city, is the earnest and hearty wish of every citizen of this section.

AFTER NOTES OF THE CELEBRATION.

The immense plate glass windows of A. M. Williams & Co. afford a splendid opportunity for decorating, and last night they were certainly things of beauty.

Pease & Mays had a handsome and unique window ornament in the shape of a deep sea freighting steamer. It was the work of Ernest Jensen, and was really a work of art. The other windows were beautifully draped and decorated.

Herbring's windows reflected the excellent taste of whoever arranged the bunting and other decorations.

The Umatilla House last night broke the record for handling a large crowd, over 900 being served. Only the weariness of the ladies who assisted in waiting on the guests, prevented as many more being fed.

Our citizens may well feel proud of the way our business men decorated their stores. Lack of space alone prevents, individual mention as there were many beautiful things worthy of it.

We have substituted a brief history of the locks in place of editorial. The importance of the subject, as well as the tired feeling of the editor, were the causes therefor.

Some persons who wrote letters of regret at their inability to attend the celebration here yesterday evening, after all came near being here in time. They came up on the 10:45 train last night.

G. Company made a handsome addition to the parade, and the boys of Battery A provoked favorable comment on their soldierly appearance.

Col. Patterson was among those who sacrificed his desires to the good cause and remained at home to assist in perfecting the details of the evening's exercises.

Among the pleasantest things of the celebration were the songs by the Boyer quartet of Portland, who favored the crowd better at the locks and at the Umatilla House with some beautiful selections.

This Near the Final Figure.

Practically complete returns from all counties of Oregon, except five, give McKinley a plurality of 3156.

No returns have been received from Crook, Curry, Lake, Grant and Harney counties. Crook county will undoubtedly show a majority of 100 for McKinley, while Harney, Grant and Curry combined will probably give Bryan a majority of 300, which will leave McKinley's plurality in the state about 3000.

Clackamas has run her plurality for McKinley up to 290, Clatsop will give more than 700, Marion still stands at about 400, Morrow is good for 61, and Washington for 500.

Polk, Douglas and Josephine are for Bryan by small pluralities, and Union, Jackson and Linn give him large pluralities.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for coughs, colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at Blakeley & Houghton's, Drug Store.

AN EXPENSIVE DINNER.

It Cost at the Rate of Seven Hundred Dollars a Plate.

"History of the cuisine fairly teems with descriptions of costly meals," remarked a resident of Brooklyn recently to a writer for the Washington Star. "We read how that profligate Heliogabalus, the Roman emperor, had a single dish on his table once that cost two hundred thousand dollars, and how another Roman, Aelin Verus, gave a supper to a dozen cronies that cost a quarter of a million dollars. Then Vitellius, still another Roman and an emperor, likewise entertained his brother at a little smack that used up a couple of hundred thousand; but these were ancient fellows, who had nightingales' tongues and humming birds' brains and similar marvelous dainties. Coming down to modern days and plain, ordinary, everyday ham and eggs, I ate a supper once in this very town that cost a friend of mine fourteen hundred dollars. A gentleman named Parker kept an establishment devoted to entertaining gentlemen at sundry games of chance. One night the friend I speak of and myself were killing an evening here together, when we conceived the idea that a visit to Parker's would be just the thing. We put it into execution at once. I have never gambled in my life, and my friend has not done it since. We went upstairs and entered the room just as supper was announced. My friend did not want to eat anything, but I was hungry, and when some plausible rascal of a dealer told me that there was broiled Smithfield ham flanked with pullets' eggs as a sort of side issue to the otherwise gorgeous feast I broke for the supper room, despite my companion's pleadings. Of course he followed me when he found his protestations were useless, and we enjoyed the feed immensely. When we came out my friend pulled out a twenty-dollar bill and said he would play a turn or two to pay for our supper. I begged him in turn not to do it, but he was as obdurate as I had been. He lost his twenty-dollar bill and tried to get it back. In two hours fourteen hundred dollars were gone glimmering. I have never felt so downright hungry since that a slight request from a mere acquaintance cannot keep me away from a dead-head feed."

A Lengthy Courtship.

A courtship remarkable for its length is that of Abram Maria, aged 60 years, and Miss Sarah B. Williams, aged 57 years, and the scene is Damascus, a quaint little Quaker village of Kentucky. Both bride and groom are among the wealthiest members of the Society of Friends in that state, and for 40 years met each other on Sunday at the old brick church in their quaint village. The attachment between them began when Miss Williams was a rosy-cheeked girl of 17, but the only love making was a smile and a minute's conversation at the church door once a week, year in and year out.

Electric Bitters.
Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
