TOM REED THE MAN

Most Likely to Be Secretary of State.

AN EXTRA SESSION PROBABLE

Kentucky Still in Doubt and an Official Vote Will Only Decide South Dakota.

President McKinley's Cabinet.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Statesmen are at work here already framing a cabinet for President-elect McKinley, and the names mentioned range from Speaker Reed for secretary of state, down to John C. Cowan, of Nebraska, for attorney-general. It has been suggested that Mr. McKinley might follow precedent, and tender the portfolio of the state department to Reed, inasmuch as the latter was the nearest competitor for the nomination at St. Louis. On the other hand it is believed a re-election to the speakership of the 55th congress would be more acceptable to Reed.

Next in line, according to the cabinet-fixers, stands Henry Cabot Lodge, who would make an ideal secretary of state. Such an appointment would be popular in the East, and New England in particular, owing to the vigorous Americanism of the present associate of Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts. Three other names are also mentioned in connection with the department of state—Senator Allison of Iowa, Davis of Minnesota, and Sherman of Ohio, having supporters for this position at the head of the diplomatic branch of the government. Senator Sherman is also named in connection with the treasury.

Senator Proctor, of Vermont, is mentioned for a return to the war department, where he was secretary under President Harrison, but in the same connection the name of General Alger, of Michigan, is also suggested.

Representative Henderson, of Iowa, and ex-Senator Manderson, of Nebraska, have also come to the front as among the possibilities for secretary of war.

Representative Bontelle is being urged as the secretary of the navy, and his friends say Mr. McKinley could not find a man for the place better posted than the Maine congressman.

In making up the cabinet the West is not being disregarded, and a very popular name for postmaster-general is that of Representative Babcock, of Wisconsin, chairman of the Republican congressional campaign committee. There is some talk of Hanna for this portfolio, as well as H. Clay Evans, of Tennessee, who was defeated in his vice-presidential aspirations by Mr. Hobart.

Ex-Governor W. R. Merriam, of Minnesota, and ex-Congressman La Follette, of Wisconsin, are well thought of for the interior department.

It is frequently urged that a graceful act of courtesy would be to tender the post of secretary of state to ex-President Harrison, but it is considered doubtful whether he would accept.

C. W. Fairbanks, of Indiana who would like to succeed Senator Voorhees, is also named as a cabinet minister embryo.

For attorney-general the names of Judges McKenna and McComas, of California and Maryland, respectively, are most frequently heard, and Captain J. C. Cowan, of Omaha, is considered among those entitled to be heard on this subject.

New York would like to have the secretaryship of the treasury, and Cornelius

N. Bliss and T. C. Platt are favored for that position.

Senator Quay, of Pennsylvania, is mentioned in connection with the navy department.

It is believed that Secretary Morton will be succeeded by a Western man, and Governor Morrill, of Kansas, is mentioned for the place in the agricultural department.

An Extra Session of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—An extra session following immediately the inauguration of Mr. McKinley is, in the prevailing opinion, certain. No one professes to have word from Mr. McKinley direct on the subject, but there is good authority for saying that Mark Hanna, during a recent visit in New York, said enough to give the impression that an extra session is on the Republican program.

Senator Quay believes an extra session is certain. That was what he had in mind last Saturday when he said: "We shall have a new tariff bill within eight months after McKinley's inauguration."

Senator Quay has the habit of speaking by the card, and to get a new tariff bill passed by that time would require the calling of congress together as soon after March 4th next as possible.

The Effect at Muncie.

MUNCIE, Ind., Nov. 6.—Ball Brothers' glass factory company say they will build another mill at once employing 500 more hands.

The Indiana Iron Company, which has worked about one-tenth capacity for a year, is flooded with orders and will resume with 800 hands next Monday.

The Midland Steel Company reports an immense influx of orders.

The Muncie Iron Company put their men at work on double time yesterday. Five other factories report more orders than in any one week for five months past.

The window glass factories are idle because of a strike.

A Tie in South Dakota.

YANKTON, S. D., Nov. 6.—South Dakota's vote on presidential electors is tied, and an official count will be required to determine the result. Republican managers have closed their office, with the above declaration. Any claim of Populists that the state is for Bryan is not justified by the returns. Corrections and changes in three precincts not yet heard from may give the electors to either Bryan or McKinley. The Republican congressmen ran ahead of the electors by several hundred votes, so far as heard from, and they may have safe majorities.

Little Change in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—The San Francisco Chronicle will say:

The majority for McKinley and Hobart is reduced by the new returns, but the Republican state committee, with its private returns from almost every county, insists upon holding the figures above 4000. There are still 111 precincts missing in the tabulated votes. These are outlying ones, where the vote was small four years ago. They cannot greatly change the present figures, which show the Republican ticket in the lead by 4513.

For Commissioner of Pensions.

ROCKFORD, Ill., Nov. 6.—Friends of Colonel Thomas G. Lawler, ex-commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, will urge his name to President-elect McKinley for the appointment of commissioner of pensions when the proper time arrives. He is one of the most popular men in the Grand Army organization, and while at its head visited every state in the Union.

The Times-Star's Figures.

CINCINNATI, C., Nov. 6.—The Times-Star has received returns from Leslie county, Ky., which gives a Republican plurality of 841, and, with complete returns from all counties in Kentucky, announces that McKinley has a plurality of 676.

CIVIC PRIDE.

He Was Driving for Chicago and He Laid Claim to the Whole Road.

It happened the other day in one of the most aristocratic districts of the North side. One of the vehicles was a handsome carriage, occupied by a swell young matron, and driven by the haughtiest of English coachmen, while the other was an extremely unbecoming wagon belonging to the street cleaning department, and engineered by a non-descript individual of Hibernian lineage.

The wagon was in such a position that it blocked the advance of the carriage, and the coachman, leaning forward, bent his haughty gaze on the driver and said: "Aw, say, me man, turn out there, will you?"

There was no reply, and the individual addressed gazed far into vacancy. The neck of the coachman grew purple, and there was some asperity in his tones as he called again: "Hi say, old fellow, just turn aside and let us pass, will you?"

Again there was no reply, and the occupant of the carriage came to the rescue. Leaning out of the window, with a conquering smile, she said:

"My good man, kindly turn out and allow us to pass; you are blocking the way." But the man on the cart gave no sign of hearing any more than might the statue of Gen. Grant under similar conditions. He also remained immovable.

Finally the lady gave the order to turn out and go around the other way. As the carriage disappeared the helper approached the cart.

"What was the swells sayin' to ye, Pat?" he asked.

Then the sphinx spoke: "They was wantin' me to turn out," he said, "but Oim drivin' for the city of Chicago, Oim am, and O'll not turn out for anny wan!"—Chicago Tribune.

An Economical Dandy.

Gabe Snodgrass recently applied to Rev. Whangdoodle Baxter, of the Blue Light tabernacle, for some pecuniary assistance.

"I jess kain' do hit," replied Parson Baxter. "I ain't her s'port my pore ole mudder."

"But yer pore ole mudder says yer don' do nuffin for her."

"Well, den, ef I don' do nuffin fer my pore ole mudder, what's de use ob an outsider like you tryin' ter make me shell out?"—Texas Sifter.

LONGS TO BE A SLAVE.

A Southern Negro Who Wants to Go Into Bondage Again.

Some of the letters that Mayor Thacher gets are curiosities in their way. People from out of town who wish to find out anything in the city of Albany invariably write letters to the mayor. It doesn't make any difference what the information desired relates to, the mayor, they think, ought to know, says the Albany Argus.

A letter was received from a negro away down south, who, Mr. Monahan says, has been dead for 30 years—not literally a corpse, but deceased as far as his grip on bustling, progressive nineteenth century life was concerned. This man believes that slavery is still an institution in this great land, and is ignorant of the glorious fact that the master's whip hasn't cracked for 30 years. He never heard of the president's proclamation, never knew that the north had whipped the south, and that 1,000,000 lives had been sacrificed to free the slave. In his letter to the mayor this colored man asked to be brought north and sold back into slavery. There is no question that he found it impossible to live in the south, and longed again for the irresponsibility from self-support of slavery days which he thought still flourished in the south.

Economical and Speedy Cure by CUTICURA REMEDIES

Now no Trace of Disease. Hair Thick, Child Fat, Good, and Healthy.

When four days old my babe broke out over one side of his head and body with watery blisters, which turned to a complete scalp. We called the family doctor, and he said that "he could heal them up," but "the baby would never have any more hair on his head, and we were completely discouraged. We were told to try CUTICURA REMEDIES and did so. We used two boxes of CUTICURA, two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP, and he now is all right. The hair is on thick, and you would never think there was anything the matter with him, he is so fat, good, and healthy, and I do not know how to praise CUTICURA REMEDIES enough for the good they did my child. Mrs. WM. H. SCOTT, Luzerne, Pa.
