EASTERN OFFICE—230 to 234 Temple Court, N. Y. City. E. KATZ, Agent.

IS IT ENDED!

The election is over, and the result settled beyond a doubt. Succeeding Cleveland March 4th William McKinley will for four years fill the presidential chair and administer the affairs of the country. For two years, at least, he will have with him the lower house. Backed by it, it remains to be seen how much obstruction to legislation can be supplied by the senate. From present indications the senate will be about a tie, with a few silver senators holding the balance of power. What they will do, or try to do, is an open question. That they will continue their old fight against any modification of the tariff unless something is done for silver, is most probable, and so instead of this matter dropping back into the shades of oblivion, it promises to crop up in the senate as lively as ever.

In season and out the silver men are crowding their fight, and in our humble opinion this is where they are making a mistake. If the continuance of the present financial conditions is to bring the disaster they have predicted, the surest and most speedy way to forever settle their political enemies is to allow the conditions not only to exist, but to be carried to their utmost limit. If this has the effect predicted, they have but to bide their time. On the other hand, suppose they are mistaken in their theories. It would be better to allow the demand of the people, made in no uncertain terms last Tuesday, to be enforced.

If, as the gold standard men believe and assert, this will bring, not calamity, but prosperity, then as good citizens, and in their own interest, they should withdraw all opposition and confess themselves in the wrong. That they will look at it in this light, is hardly probable; but that the silver fight will be continued in the senate and used to block the wheels of legislation, is, in our opinion, certain.

APPRECIATED.

Major McKinley—I will say that the patriotic efforts of the men of both of the old parties have brought about the result. Ardent and devoted as have been the efforts of Republicans everywhere, equally pronounced and helpful was the attitude of the sound money Democrats. Then the press of the country, the intelligent and enthusiastic efforts of the great journals of both parties have been a mighty factor in the result and an aid to the Republican cause.

Garret A. Hobart—This is purely a victory of honest voters. It is a demand for the continuance of a sound money policy. The Democrats who contributed to the result are entitled to recognition for their services to the people.

Mark Hanna—The National Democrats were a very important factor in the election, and I don't think any man appreciates their services any more than I do. They worked just as hard for the same result. There was no break in the line anywhere, and they were loyal from the outset. The value of their services cannot be overestimated.

Sol. Hirsch—I feel that special mention is due to those old-line Democrats who have stood with us shoulder to shoulder in this great contest. I believe that nearly the whole of McKinley's majority in Oregon is due to such efforts, and, without their active and loyal support, I do not believe that we would have carried the state. I would like to mention some names, but where all deserve recognition it is best not to make any distinction.

It is said the proposed amendment to the state constitution of Washington providing an educational qualification for voters, has carried. The amendment proposed provides that in order to vote a man must be "able to read and write the English language." This, "strictly interpreted, would disfranchise ninety-nine one-hundredths of the present voting population.

The Ashland McKinley Club Nov. 4th began circulating a petition to the legislature asking the enactment of a registration law. It is all that is needed to make the Australian ballot system perfect, and we hope the matter will be taken up in every county in the state, and that at once.
