Motions for Review and Rehearing.

DEPT. OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24, '96.

Rule 114 of Practice (see 18 L. D., 472) is amended to read as follows, to take effect as of the date hereof:

Rule 114.—Motions for review and motions for rehearing before the secretary must be filed with the commissioner of the general land office within thirty days after notice of the decision complained of, and will act as a supersedeas of the decision until otherwise directed by the secretary.

Such motion must state concisely and specifically the grounds upon which it is based, and may be accompanied by an argument in support thereof.

On receipt of such motion the commissioner of the general land office will forward the same immediately to this department, where it will be treated as "special." If the motion does not show proper grounds for review or rehearing, it will be denied and sent to the files of the general land office, whereupon the commissioner will remove the suspension and proceed to execute the judgment before rendered. But if, upon examination, proper grounds are shown the motion will be entertained and the moving party notified, whereupon he will be allowed thirty days within which to serve the same, together with all argument in support thereof, on the opposite party, who will be allowed thirty days thereafter in which to file and serve an answer, after which no further argument will be received. Thereafter the case will not be reopened except under such circumstances as would induce a court of equity to grant relief against a judgment of a court of law.

All rules or parts of rules inconsistent herewith are rescinded.

DAVID R. FRANCIS, Secretary.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.
