LAFAYETTE LANE DEAD

Once in the State Legislature and Once in Congress.

SON OF GENERAL JOSEPH LANE

He Was Associated With Judge Deady in the Work of Codifying the Laws of Oregon.

ROSEBURG, Or., Nov. 23.—Hon. Lafayette Lane, an ex-congressman of Oregon, died at his residence here this afternoon. The body will be buried Wednesday.

Lafayette Lane, a son of General Joseph Lane, Oregon's first territorial governor, was born on his father's farm, near Evansville, Vanderburg county, Indiana, 54 years ago. He was one of a family of 11 children, of whom Mrs. M. F. Shelby, Mrs. L. F. Mosher, of Portland, Or.; Mrs. E. S. Flood and Colonel John Lane, of Spokane; and Simon Lane of Myrtle Creek and Joseph Lane of Roseburg, are still living. In 1853, four years after his appointment as governor of Oregon, General Lane returned to Indiana and brought his family out to the territory, making his home in Southern Oregon, near Roseburg. Lafayette Lane was then nine years old. A few years later he was sent to school at Stamford, Conn., and upon his return read law in the office of Judge Aaron E. Watt, of Portland. Immediately after being admitted to the bar, when he was scarcely 21, he was elected to the legislature from Umatilla county in 1864, being the youngest member ever sent to that body.

After the expiration of his term, he went to Roseburg and began practicing law. He married Miss Amanda Mann, an Alabama girl, with whom he lived happily, and whom survives him. In 1875 he was elected as a democrat to congress, to fill the term made vacant by the death of George La Dow. While in congress he took an active part in the passage of the bill providing for the building of the locks at the cascades, recently completed. In 1871 he was associated with Judge Deady in the codifying of the laws of Oregon.

After the expiration of his term in congress, he returned to Roseburg, where he practiced his profession up to within six weeks of his death. Besides his wife, he left two sons: Lafayette Lane, now in California, and Rev. Father Arthur Lane, a recently ordained priest of the Catholic church, now at St. Mary's Home, Beaverton; and Miss Rose Lane, at Roseburg, the only surviving daughter.

Although on what proved to be his deathbed, Mr. Lane took great interest in the recent campaign. During the closing days of the fight for sound money, he addressed a letter to Judge M. L. Pipes, which was read by the latter from the platform at Roseburg. In this letter, Mr. Lane expressed his regret that he was physically unable to go to the polls and vote for McKinley.

TWO INSURGENT VICTORIES.

Spaniards Defeated at Dos Caminos and Holguin.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—The World this morning publishes the following correspondence from Santiago de Cuba, under date of November 12:

General Liguera and Cara del Rey, with 2000 men, were defeated November 10 by Mendoza and Freire at Barracoa, near Dos Caminos. The Spanish fled, leaving many killed and wounded, among the latter a colonel. The wounded, including the colonel, were cared for by some women living near. When the Spaniards afterward returned from Dos Caminos to get their wounded they arrested and shamefully treated the women.

On the 9th Spanish commander Ardanaz, with a large force, was defeated by the rebel leader Torres, near the wharf of Banes (Holguin), where there is a fort. The rebels laid a wire cable across the harbor entrance so when the gunboat Vincente Tanez went to protect the Spanish column she could not get in. She retired in a shower of bullets, after losing two men killed. The Spanish column again fought the insurgents on its return in Loma de Los Angeles, and suffered considerable loss. Commander Garridos' guerrillas and regulars were defeated on the 10th by Brigadier Boune. Garridos was severely wounded. Almost the entire force of the guerrillas joined the rebels.

General Weyler's orders to send firemen to the field has produced a result just contrary to his expectation. Of the 100 colored firemen who left Havana for Pinar del Rio, November 7, '90 have joined the rebels at the first chance. A selection of 150 firemen of Santiago were ordered to be ready to take the field yesterday. Forty disappeared night before last, taking their arms and ammunition. They had joined the rebel force of Colonel Vega. In Manzanillo 250 firemen with a lieutenant did likewise as soon as they got the order to be ready for service.

MYSTERIOUS FLYING MACHINE.

San Francisco Continues to Speculate Regarding It.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—The inventor of the mysterious air ship which has been puzzling local scientists and others for the past week, is believed to be one "Dr. E. H. Benjamin," an alleged dentist, who has occupied rooms in an Ellis street lodging house for the past two years, but so far he has successfully evaded all attempts to discover his identity. His attorney, Collins, when seen yesterday and pressed to tell further about the alleged inventor and his machinery, said:

"This morning the inventor came to my office in the Crocker building and told me that he had tested the merits of the ship in last night's storm, with the greatest success. The wind currents were very contrary, and the test tried the merits of the machine in the hardest possible way, but it came out of the ordeal in the best condition, having breasted the storm like any bird. He started in the locality where the vessel is housed, and flew over Alcatraz and out through the Golden Gate, skirting the Cliff house and returning by the same route across the bay. He hovered over the seal rocks for fully 10 minutes and played his searchlight on the seals. His intention is to make another trip this evening, probably over the same ground, running on his return trip as far as Sacramento."

A dispatch was received from Sacramento last night that hundreds of people there had again seen the mysterious meteor in the heavens; but as yet, no one has been able to see the object sufficiently to state definitely what it is.

Fatal Accident to a Fallbearer.

DOUBLE SPRINGS, Ala., Nov. 23.—John Welton met a horrible death at Shiloh burying-ground near here, while acting as one of the fallbearers at the funeral of Junius Roberts, a farmer. The coffin was lowered into the grave by straps. The strap held by Welton and another man snapped as the coffin was being lowered. Welton lost his balance as the strap broke and fell headlong into the grave, which was six feet deep. At the same time the rear end of the coffin which had been held by the broken strap also plunged downward. The falling coffin struck Welton on the head and banged him against the side of the grave, which was of hard soil. Welton was extricated, but died two hours afterward.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH.

Its Mother, Who Was Crazed With Grief, Tried to Kill Herself.

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 23.—Russell Warren, the 2-year-old child of Solomon S. Warren, burned to death this afternoon in the apartments of the Holland block. Mrs. Warren went out for a few minutes, and when she returned she found the child on the floor with his clothing in flames. He had apparently turned on the gas in the stove, struck a match and was knocked down by the concussion. He lived about two hours, in great agony. His father was at Lewiston, Idaho, and was summoned home by a telegram. The child's mother got a revolver and attempted to kill herself, but was quickly disarmed. She was crazed with grief, but was somewhat calmer this evening. Solomon Warren is a brother of ex-Chief of Police Joel E. Warren, of this city, and of Felix Warren, a well-known driver.

Insurgents Blow Up a Spanish Exploring Train.

HAVANA, Nov. 23.—At the approaching public trial of Luis Somellán, an American citizen, long imprisoned on charges of conspiracy, rebellion, etc., counsel for the defense will demand his acquittal upon conclusions arrived at by the public prosecutor when he asked that a life sentence be imposed on the prisoner.

Insurgents have dynamited an exploring train near Cardenas, Matanzas, derailing the engine and upsetting and burning the cars. A passenger train which followed it was fired upon. A lady and five gens d'arms and a fireman were wounded.

Grew Worse Under Treatment of Best Physicians. Tried

CUTICURA REMEDIES

Great Change in Five Days. To-day Entirely Cured, With Nice Head of Hair. Lively and Hearty.

I had a baby that had Eczema in its worst form. I had one of the best physicians in the city attending her, but she continued to get worse all the time under his treatment. He finally admitted that he was at his wits' end. I then got CUTICURA REMEDIES, and in a few days noticed great change in her condition. She continued to improve after that, and to-day is entirely cured, has nice head of hair, and is lively and hearty. I can fully recommend them as being the best medicines for the cure of this disease. I spent considerable money for drugs and doctor's bills, which was useless in this case, for I think if your remedies don't cure, nothing will. I am telling every one that I see suffering about CUTICURA REMEDIES, and can cheerfully recommend them to those in need of them.
