IF SO, WHY?

A few years ago the growth of the West in population was marvelous and the most common theme of orators. But the westward march of empire has come to a pause, if it has not retrograded. Since 1890 Massachusetts has gained nearly twelve per cent. in population and New Jersey nearly sixteen per cent. Iowa has gained seven and a half per cent. and Oregon about the same. Kansas has fewer inhabitants today than six years ago. These western states planned for constant and increasing growth. They laid out cities, erected public buildings, organized colleges and churches to provide for the incoming millions. The millions have not come—the loss is great, the disappointment deep, and pride as well as pockets suffer. The East has furnished a large part of the capital invested to take advantage of this growth which has not materialized—capital much of which has disappeared and more of which is yielding no return. It is not strange that each section should find a good deal of fault with the other, and propose experiments in legislation to get prosperity. But let us have patience. The natural resources of the West are as great today as ever. They will be developed more cautiously and wisely, but their worth will be realized. Capital will again flow into the West, its vast wealth will be utilized and prosperity will return. Let us not waste in fault-finding the strength needed to take advantage of new and better conditions.—Congregationalist.

COATS OF MAIL.

And now it is stated that our American millionaires are going back to the ages of chivalry, and are wearing coats and vests made of light steel chain mail. Just why any citizen of this great republic should want a suit of boiler plate clothes is a mystery. Our millionaires must be beginning to think that they really ought to be killed, and are protecting themselves from what they feel ought to happen, an attack on themselves. The practice is utterly silly, for while every American desires to get rich, and naturally feels envious to some degree of those who have already accomplished their desires in that matter, there is not now any intent to take their wealth from them by force. The ridiculousness of the whole affair is discussed in the statement given below. It was a wise writer who stated these coats of mail would "turn a sword or dagger driven at long range." Among other things the article says: While these coats will not turn a bullet, nor prevent the penetration of a dagger driven at short range, they are sufficiently strong to turn either a sword or a dagger driven at long range. A spent bullet will not affect them in the slightest degree. The same manufacturer says that in the last five years his firm has received more than 900 orders for light armor.

Someone defined dirt as being "something out of place," and while this definition may not be technically correct, it is undoubtedly true that things out of season become noticeable by contrast with the natural and existing order of things. Our eagle eye, in fact both our eagle eyes, for we have two, noted in glancing over an exchange this morning an advertisement of "Shark's Tea," done up in local form. It began, "The summer girl is wearing a blouse waist with sleeves larger than ever, a skirt with godet plaits, a jaunty yachting cap, but no veil." And then we gazed out of the window at the snowy streets and falling flakes, and our heart was moved to pity for that summer dandel. She should be gathered to the fireside by her relatives.

The Weekly Democrat of Baker City has completed its 26th year, and justly feels proud of the fact that it is the third oldest paper in the state. The Democrat has always ranked well up in the front of Oregon newspapers, and has done a great deal more than it will ever be given credit for in aiding the development of Eastern Oregon. May its field of usefulness enlarge, and may it live to celebrate its anniversary a hundred years hence, and we be still around to swipe some of its bright things with our keen perception and greedy shears.

Jonathan Bourne is said to be a candidate for the position of speaker in the next legislature. It strikes us that Jonathan has aspirations that are doomed to defeat, as he stands with the minority wing of the dominant party. Still politics furnishes some remarkable paradoxes, and Jonathan is somewhat of a hustler.
