FLOUR MILLS TO SHUT DOWN.

High Railroad Rates Render the Business Unprofitable.

SUPERIOR, Wis., Dec. 3.—All of the ten flour mills at the head of the lake are preparing for a shut-down, and within a week probably not a grinding wheel will be turning in Superior or Duluth. The suspension of operations is contemplated chiefly because of navigation, but the falling off the flour market is responsible to some extent for the decision. The millers expect to remain idle about thirty days, in order to reduce stocks and secure railroad rates and then it is expected they will be able to run steadily nearly all winter.

Went Over to the Insurgents.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 3.—A special from Key West says: News has been received here that the troop of the Spanish garrison at San Jose de las Yemas, twenty miles southeast of Havana, abandoned their posts and joined the insurgents. Many of the citizens accompanied the troops and carried ammunition with them. The news caused great excitement at the palace, and fresh troops were immediately sent to the post and order restored. Before the troops arrived anarchy reigned, and when the troops reached the city many residents were shot down in the streets.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

Buckley's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, fester, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Blakeley and Houghton, druggists.

NOTES ON DRESS.

Fetching Designs That the Early Autumn Has Revealed.

All the latest frocks have medium-sized if not actually narrow sleeves. This is now a well-received fact, the arm being covered with a tight-fitting smooth or wrinkled sleeve, with a very short puff or drapery arranged at the very top.

It seems to be conceded that this season any style whatever may be worn—Louise XV., Henry IV., Marie Antoinette, 1830; in fact, anything that suits the style and taste of the wearer. For this reason, doubtless, there seems to be no very marked change in the autumn gowns. Nevertheless, one cannot be too sure, as the dressmakers are apt to reserve their surprises until later; and it is never safe to order gowns until some decided fashionable function, like the Horse Show, for instance, has shown the tendency of the season. There are certain indications, however, that may be followed by those who desire to have a new but not too expensive costume for the demi-season. Nearly all the street costumes are made with a jacket, either real or simulated, for where a tight-fitting waist is preferred, basques are frequently sewed on to the bodice, the joining being covered with the belt.

Corsets, too, are in great favor, and the bolero jacket seems to have taken a new lease of popularity, and, combined with the corset or high-draped belt, will be much worn this season.

A very pretty green foulard covered with strange hieroglyphics in white, which are now so popular, is made with a bolero slightly gathered at the neck, but otherwise fitting smoothly over the bust and back. This is cut very open and short, to show a draped belt of dark red satin, hooked together in front, with a couple of tiny ruffles of embroidered red chiffon edging to match. This at the top of the corset-belt turns back on either side and edges a jabot of red chiffon, which is gathered full, and so graduated that the embroidered edge forms diamond-shaped graduated squares to the neck, this arrangement filling the entire space left open by the bolero jacket. The sleeves are long and tight fitting, with a very short, full puff at the top, over which is gathered a drapery of the silk lined with red silk to match the chiffon front. The skirt is plain, lined with red taffeta, and finished at the bottom with a couple of tiny ruffles, also lined with red.—St. Louis Republic.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

Do not fail to call on Dr. Lannerberg, the eye specialist, and have your eyes examined free of charge. If you suffer with headache or nervousness you undoubtedly have imperfect vision that, if corrected, will benefit you for life. Office in the Vogt block.

 All the Family.

With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.

We furnish "The Chronicle" and N. Y. Weekly Tribune one year for only $1.75.

Write your name and address on a postal card, send it to Geo. W. Best, Tribune Office, New York City, and a sample copy of The New York Weekly Tribune will be mailed to you.
