A Word of Sympathy.

Died, Dec. 2, 1896, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Bartlett.

Dear Friends, I know how impossible it is to silence your grief with words. The heart pleads for utterance in tears, and let it speak thus. We bow in sorrow of the taking of your little one, feeling that while the ripened fruit mabe gathered, it seems cruel that the bud should be taken before it has even opportunity to unfold its blossom. But in nature fruits fall, and so do blossoms and buds. In the ways of kind Nature this is perhaps best, and in taking from our arms this little one we will try and accept the cross and bear it, believing that the bud will yet blossom and bear fruit in the angel land, where the spirit of this pure child has so early flown.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading drugglet of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment, It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

For Boat Railway Lands.

The jury in the United States court in the case of the United States court sgainst F. A. Seufert came up from Portland last night and went out to Seufert's place this morning. The soit is a re-trial of that brought to condemn lands belonging to Seufert, the government wanting the lands for a right of way for the boat railway. In the former suit Mr. Seufert was not satisfied with the 2 00 amount of damages given him and asked 1 50 for a new trial. As Mr. Murphy, U. S. attorney, was also dissatisfied, the new trial was granted. Besides Mr. Murphy, who came up last night, there were fifteen others comprising the jury and the officer with them. They are O. R. Pihl, C. W. Boynton, F. E. Beach, W. Rawlings, J. M. Archibald, John Gill, Jasper Wilkins, C. D. Steen, C. Wells, J. D. Simmons, S. J. Thornton, M. S. Booth, Ed. L. Bryan, L. R. Webster and Geo. Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely counteracting and freeing the system from the malartal poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bit-ters. 50c au : $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.
