PROHIBIT SHODDY.

Whatever else may be done with the tariff question at the session of congress beginning, the first thing should be the amending of the present law so that the importation of shoddy and rags will be absolutely prohibited.

Coupled with this should be another law, compelling all goods containing shoddy to be plainly marked, both while in the bolt and after being made up into clothing.

From present appearances it is not probable, however, that anything will be done at this session of congress. It seems to be considered certain by leading politicians that McKinley will call an extra session of congress soon after his inauguration, for the purpose of revising the tariff, and until that time there is but little prospect of any change in the tariff laws.

MISSED A BARGAIN.

According to the latest Cuba dispatches, Weyler has at last found Maceo, his army being surrounded by that of the insurgents. Of course the next thing in order for the doughty captain-general to do is to present Maceo with that mortal blow he has been carrying concealed about his person so long.

It seems probable that Spain will take, and be glad to take, less than the $100,000,000 offered her for Cuba, and that before long Cuba will be, so to speak, among the remnants on that government's bargain counter. Spain missed a splendid bargain.

General Ruger, of the department of the East, says in his annual report that the present military force of the nation is inadequate as a reliable basis in the event of war with a maritime power, and he deems it especially desirable that state artillery organizations should be drilled for seacoast defensive purposes.

It has been suggested that Oregon adopt the system in vogue in Washington and some other states concerning the payment of taxes. The system is based upon the theory that by dividing the debt it becomes easier to pay, and hence the law has in those states provided that half the taxes may be paid in the spring and half in the fall.

Quite a number of our exchanges do not seem to realize that the election is over, but keep whacking away at Bryan as though he was still in sight. As a matter of fact he is buried under an avalanche of nearly a million votes, and his political remains, just now could not be reached with a dynamite gun.
