PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. A. W. Giesy is in the city from Portland.
 Mr. J. O. Morton came up from Hood River today.
 Mr. E. Jacobsen, who acted as bridesmaid for Mr. Hertz, arrived home last night.
 William N. and E. M. Froebe are in the city today making proof on railroad lands.
 Bishop Earl Cranston left on last night's train for Walla Walla, to preside over the conference of elders.

Governmental Banking Business.

Under the above caption the president in his message says:
 "The entire case may be presented by the statement that the day of sensible and sound financial methods will not dawn upon us until our government abandons the banking business and the accumulation of funds, and confines its monetary operations to the reception of the money contributed by the people for its support and to expenditures of such money for the people's benefit. Our business interests and all good citizens long for rest from feverish agitation, and the inauguration by the government of a reformed financial policy which will encourage enterprise and make certain the rewards of labor and industry."

Sprightly Sam Clarke.

Mr. S. A. Clarke, the celebrated writer and authority on horticulture, was in the city today. We have heard it said that Mr. Clarke was killed in the Yakima Indian war of 1857, but have always doubted it, for he is certainly very much alive, and his pen has not forgotten its cunning, nor does his active brain show any signs of decay, though he is getting well up in years, way beyond the age where many consider their life's work ended. Clarke pegs away as light hearted and cheerful as though life were mostly before, instead of behind, him.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for Consumption, Coughs, and Colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.
