PERSONAL MENTION.

H. E. Hayson came in from Prineville Saturday.
 Mr. Frank Aldrich of Goldendale was in the city yesterday.
 Frank Peabody and C. C. Butler were in from Dufur yesterday.
 H. E. McGuire, fish commissioner of the state, is in the city.
 J. E. Rand and M. P. Isenberg came up from Hood River today.
 Hon. E. L. Smith came up on the local, but remained with us only an hour.
 W. H. Wilson arrived home Friday from a visit to his parents in Southern Illinois.
 Mr. Leslie and Miss May Friday arrived in from Cross Keys yesterday evening.
 W. G. Steel of Portland, the great force of reserve advocate, was here Saturday.
 Mr. T. M. Baldwin came in from Prineville Saturday evening, and went to Portland yesterday morning.
 Miss Hilda Beck left for Portland this afternoon where she will spend the remainder of the winter.
 Bishop Morris arrived from Portland Saturday night and held services in the Episcopal church yesterday morning and evening.

Momentary Hurricane.

At 10 minutes before 1 this afternoon a momentary hurricane blew in Pendleton, and everything loose was picked up and hurled through the air. The air was full of signs and boards and papers. From the East Oregonian building, three telegraph poles could be seen lying low. The wooden awnings in front of Darveau's saloon went over the buildings. The front glass was blown from Nelson's store.

The wind appeared to blow straight ahead, and was not cyclone in character. It came with a rush, tore about for about one and one-half minutes, and then all was as calm as on a summer's evening of the poets.

Word soon came up from the W. & C. R. offices that the engine house had demolished. It was badly wrecked and strewn over the lot.

George Darveau's saloon front was blown in, and was patched up temporarily. On the schoolhouse hill about 100 feet of the main street sidewalk was blown across the street.

The extent of the damage, if any, in the country, is not known.

Wamic Cleanings.

WAMIC, Dec. 8, 1896.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:

With feelings akin to awe, I take the liberty to chronicle a few of the local doings of Wamic.

We have enjoyed a fine chinook, in consequence of which the ground is bare of snow, and the streams very high.

On the evening of the 5th a very pleasant party was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Knowles, the occasion being the seventeenth birthday of their daughter, Miss Etta Knowles. Many pleasant games were enjoyed during the evening, after which a bountiful supper was served, of which all partook heartily. About 3 o'clock some of the guests went home, while others stayed till daylight on account of bad roads and high waters. For lack of space we forbear mentioning names, as there were forty-seven guests present.

Queen's Domestic Correspondence.

One pleasing feature of the queen's busy life is the keeping up with her own hand of a correspondence with all her children and grandchildren, besides many other relatives and dear friends, such as, in the latter case, ex-Empress Eugenie. This correspondence is particularly large when she is, as at present, in retirement in her Highland home. Perhaps the most interesting letter her majesty ever penned was that written to the prince of Wales many years ago announcing his emancipation from parental authority and control, when, after warning him against flatterers, she stated that she would never intrude any advice upon him, although she would ever be ready to give it whenever he should think fit to seek it.

The Unknown South.

The international geographical congress in London a year ago declared that the greatest piece of geographical exploration remaining to be undertaken is that of the antarctic regions. Since then a number of small expeditions toward the south pole have been planned, but little has yet been accomplished, and Dr. Mill reminds English readers in Nature that, although 55 years have elapsed since Capt. Ross discovered the two great volcanoes which he named Mounts Erebus and Terror, they have never again been seen, and no important additional facts have been learned about that mysterious part of the globe.

There Is Nothing So Good.

There is nothing just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, so demand it and do not permit the dealer to sell you some substitute. He will not claim there is anything better, but in order to make more profit he may claim something else to be just as good. You want Dr. King's New Discovery because you know it to be safe and reliable, and guaranteed to do good or money refunded. For Coughs, Colds, Consumption and for all affections of Throat, Chest and Lungs, there is nothing so good as Dr. King's New Discovery. Trial bottle free at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. (2)

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the Liver and Kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at Blakeley & Houghton's Drug Store. (2)

 —FOR—
 All the Family.

With the close of the Presidential Campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.

Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE pre-eminently a National Family Newspaper, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.

We furnish "The Chronicle" and N. Y. Weekly Tribune one year for only $1.75.

Write your name and address on a postal card, send it to Geo. W. Best, Tribune Office, New York City, and a sample copy of The New York Weekly Tribune will be mailed to you.
